Year 12 Farewell Message

On sitting down to compose a little address to Year 12 for their final formal school assembly, I was wondering how I could say something fresh, something not said in my previous addresses on such occasions. I would not want to be accused of aporia (a condition which owners of The Superior Person's Book of Words will recognise as the patently insincere protestations of a speaker that he does not know what to say or how to begin his speech), so I decided to explore the unoriginal but topical theme of 'the vintage year'.

I wonder if in academic terms Year 12 will be a 'vintage year' It certainly is the first Year 12 to have its own website. In the sense that Year 12 2003 is high yield academically, to be processed shortly by the HSC harvester. Bottled up, labelled and distributed by rank, and likely to turn out better after a few years cellaring at a university, we are yet to know how good a vintage Year 12 is. From the point of view of their predilection to being associated with vegetation that produces mind altering substances, I guess every Year 12 may secretly harbour such a desire at this time of year.

From the perspective of sporting achievement, it has been a vintage year. Premierships in tennis and rifle shooting equalled the best ever performance by the school since 1906. Just one goal! History might well have been made by our undefeated first grade soccer team, if only they had scored one more goal for themselves, or indeed one less for their opponents! High has never won 3 premierships in one year, but for a short moment when Joeys were leading 2-1 in the final minutes of the final game, I permitted a spectre of glory to confound me. If we add the first volleyball title in a trial GPS competition, then the goal was achieved. There were vintage performances by the debating team to win the Hume Barbour and by the chess team to win the state all schools title.

Year 12 boys have carried on the tradition of useful last week service by nearly doubling the charity collections made by the class of 2001. We will hear more about that feat later.

Let me commend the work of your leadership. The Prefects performed their various duties admirably, often attending various functions at short notice but always dressed well and impeccably mannered. Your Executive, Hugh James, Tim Edmeades and Andrew Walters led you admirably. Let me also thank publicly John Shin for his efforts since Year 10 concerning all things social.

This Year 12 has been very productive and responsible. My sense of their teachers comments is that they expect good results from this cohort of scholars. Speech Night is the occasion for celebrating individual accomplishments, but may I congratulate you all in advance for all you have achieved in such a variety of fields of endeavour.

As you take leave of us please consider the words of 'A Brief History' By Les Murray in his 1996 publication (Subhuman Redneck Poems)

*We are the Australians. Our history is short.
This makes pastry chefs snotty and racehorses snort.
It makes pride a blood poppy and work an export
And bars our trained minds from original thought
As all that can be named gets renamed away.*

*A short history gets you imperial scorn,
Maintained by hacks after the empire is gone
Which shaped and exiled us, left men's bodies torn With the lash, then with shrapnel, and taught many to be lewd in kindness, formal in bastardry.*

As you leave us today, after your final assembly with us all together, after your rites of passage have been observed and experienced, I hope that you will all fight against the bitter sentiments in Les Murray's poem. I trust your training at High has not constrained original thought in you. I expect that you will not let Australia's relative isolation, copy cat culture or brain drain get in the way of your great and innovative ideas. Take with you what I see here at High as a mature multicultural brotherhood of scholars. Take away the notion that you can achieve anything against international competition. Export from this school the belief that we are not prisoners of history, or slaves of an imperialist past. Be confident that you can play your part in forging a newly self-confident Australia.

I wish all of you the best of luck with your preparations for the HSC. Thank you for what you have contributed to the High tradition. We will remember the 2003 vintage.

SPEECH NIGHT

and

119th ANNUAL PRIZE GIVING

Tuesday February 25, 2003

Occasional address by

Mr Phil Tresidder

Principal's Address

[The following is an edited version of the address given by the Principal at the Annual Speech Night and Prize-Giving.]

Distinguished guests, special guest Mr Phil Tresidder, members of staff, parents, students and particularly the class of 2002, welcome to our 119th Speech Night. I would like to thank all the people who have worked to support and facilitate the achievements we honour this evening. On a personal level, I express my thanks to Dennis Briggs from the P & C, John Kaldor and Andy Chow from the Foundation, John Gerofi and most particularly, to the tireless Bob Outterside, who ran the selection criteria campaign last year with such dignity and skill and who continues to work long hours for the school on two sensitive and complex matters.

All the public attention last year was centred on the selective criteria and process debate and us not playing King's at rugby. I believe the selection criteria controversy brought back to life an issue that the Minister was perhaps happy to see die in February. Much debate in the press ensued. The major issues have been canvassed in the High Bulletin. Hopeful signs from the Discussion Paper press release late last year are that coaching colleges may be regulated and that a writing test will be seriously piloted, after the results of a previous flawed attempt were buried.

My colleague GPS Heads strongly supported our continued participation in the rugby competition. We have brokered a solution to the rugby issue, with us fielding at least 'A' teams in age groups

13-15 (and 16s able to play down if not selected for first grade) and a first grade side. Our place in the 16s competition will be filled by St Gregory's at Campbelltown, as a short term measure. Up to four of our second grade fixtures may be played by TAS's first grade, the rest by St Gregory's. We hope to rebuild our playing strength in 2003-4 as a result of these initiatives.

In reviewing what the school achieved in 2002, I am most pleased with the reduction in HSC UAI's below 80 to 7.5%, significantly lower than the than the figures for the last 5 years. Of note is the increase in UAI's of 90 or above to 130 or 76.5% of reported UAI's. Our most pressing performance goal is to reduce the percentage of UAI's below 80 to zero and increase UAI's at 90 or above to 80% within 3 years. 174 boys accepted university places – two are going to TAFE and two went into full time employment.

It was gratifying to observe the bedding down of the Living Skills program for Years 7-10. Once fully evaluated and refined, I believe this program will assist in the culture change and redefinition of masculinity that the school community is working towards. We are gathered together as a community of scholars. Our principal purpose is to prepare students for high academic achievement. Respect for persons should guide our behaviour. Understanding of ourselves is a precursor to understanding and valuing the diversity we find in others. The Living Skills program is designed to move us towards this ideal learning community. We are planning to develop a study group concept for the senior school, where groups of boys, under the guidance of teacher mentors, will support each other's learning. We need to establish a more caring and cooperative learning culture to raise overall outcomes.

Our leadership program has also matured. An effective relationship between the Student Representative Council and the Prefects has enhanced the status of and broadened the participation in the leadership program. Peer Support and Mediation training have together deepened our prospective leaders' understanding of the nurturing role of leadership.

The Student Award Scheme has been refined. I am most heartened by the participation rates in each year. Upwards of 50 boys per year are qualifying for awards in a scheme which is gradually becoming more rigorous. Our target is one third of boys in each year, progressing through from bronze awards in Year 7 to the impressive trophies awarded here tonight to our recent alumni.

I was encouraged by the way that staff tackled the issue of how to enhance Band 6 HSC performance across the board during 2002. Improved pedagogy will result. I was pleased at the grouping experiments for structural acceleration undertaken by a couple of departments. I believe our use of purposeful grouping into Year 7 and banding in other years will bear fruit as we adapt our policy to the disparate and individual learning needs of our students. I have had a personal interest in extending tertiary level courses to secondary school students since I wrote on the subject to academic boards at the major universities in 1999. I was particularly pleased that the university developed, dual accredited Mind and Morality one unit course was organised as a joint venture with Sydney Girls High, with very short notice towards the end of the year. Our first semester delivery model and joint hub school concept are ground breaking. A class of 15 students commenced yesterday. My thanks go to Mrs Varady for inspiring so many of her girls to take the up the challenge. I hope more of our boys do the same in 2003. We would like to attract science students to the Problem Solving course for next year.

It was great to finish the Canteen refurbishment. We can now boast a fine, functional and regulation-compliant canteen. Funds available for expenditure have increased 187% in the three years since 1999.

As usual at High, there are many group and individual achievements worthy of our recognition and acknowledgement tonight. Many have been discussed in our weekly High Notes. Most will appear in our 2002 Annual Report. I have selected a sample to reflect the broad range of achievement.

In academic achievements

George Zhong and Ji Li were selected as Rio Tinto scholars for the Science Olympiad. Ivan Guo represented us at the Mathematics Olympiad. Junyang Sim, was first in the state in Chinese Continuers and second in Chinese Extension. Shihab Hamid, third in chemistry and Yichuan Jin, fourth in Chinese Continuers. David Nguyen - tenth in English Advanced and an eighth in English extension; Tom Petty (Year 11) ninth in industrial technology as an accelerant.

Premier's Awards for All-Round Excellence (for 10 units at 90 or better). Craig Birtles, John Bui, David Carter, Thomas Cusbert, Robert Dooley, Zahid Gamielien, Shihab Hamid, Mathew Hii, Chun-chi Hung, Chang-Wan Kim, Sachin Kumar, David Nguyen, Junyang Sim, Jack Su and You Wu. Our scholarship winners: Shihab Hamid (UNSW Co-op Scholarship in computer science) and Jonathon Laurie (Co-operative Education – Accountancy UTS).

Phil Lesnie's work was chosen for Art Express, to be exhibited 7/2/03-6/4/03.

In the arts

Debating was again our strength. David Carter, Tim Davis Frank, Alex Gruszka and Alexander McCauley, won the Hume Barbour trophy for the twentieth time. The 10As were undefeated in the GPS competition. Tanvir Ahmed was selected for the state Year 10 debating championship. Tanvir Ahmed, Clement Sheil, Daniel Wodak and Oscar Ware won the Les Gordon history debating competition. Thomas Kaldor won the state Legacy Junior Public Speaking contest. David Kaldor won the SCEGGS Redlands French Reading Competition. Raj Kumar, Adam McKenzie, Thomas Norrie, David Quach and Patrick Coyte were selected for the Performing arts Unit symphony Orchestra. Hamish Nairn made the PAU Stage band.

In sports

In rowing, Jacob Stretton won a CHS championship gold medal in single scull. Eugene Hooi, Hamish Nairn, Peter Kaillis, Andrew Simpson, Tim Edmeades, Richard Zhou, Brett Saucis, Shane

Speech Night

Talbot and Jack Tam won the Under-17 Pan Pacific Championship for rowing eights. In swimming, Tom Miller and Ellis Louie were selected for the CHS Carnival and Ellis made the CIS team for the all schools meet. Tom Miller, Glen Carroll, Jason Ong and Matthew Louie were selected for the CHS team for the All Schools carnival. In athletics, Roger Burrell won the GPS under-14 shot put by over a metre. Paul Watzlaff and Jonathon Laurie were second in their 1500metre races at the GPS championships. We had 14 CHS representatives in athletics. The under-14 GPS cross country team finished second.

Other sporting achievements included: Jeremy Yuen winning the state gymnastics title; Lucian Francis and Oliver Pickles winning the CHS Pacer division in sailing, Andrew Jacques' selection in the Australian under-21 Rifle Shooting Team, Christopher Budd's four national medals at the Queen's Rifle competition and Nigel Panagopka's full scholarship at the Australian Institute of sport for volleyball.

Our students have achieved in many areas of endeavour. This short account has not done them justice. I congratulate them all.

As is my custom, I will close with some gratuitous advice for the class of 2002, this time gleaned from Bruce Dawe's social commentary in a poem entitled, Before Plato.

*We went, I think, in this country,
Straight from the cave
To the television set.
We missed out on those civilizing barbarities in between.*

*We put down the club
And picked up the TV guide...
We switched from real life hunger, fear, cold,
To watching them on World Vision commercials;
We let go of our enemy's throat
And lost our grip on life.*

*Somebody called, back there, deep in the shadows
– it could have been love, or hate, or just plain loneliness,
but we were glassed off in a mini-series.*

*We stopped dreaming of falling.
And, instead,
Fell.*

My message to the prize winners this evening, especially to those we say farewell to, is informed by Bruce Dawe's concern that we experience life to the full and not be satisfied with the voyeuristic substitute of the manufactured images of lives of others. We need to experience the process of life, not get to a privileged position without doing any hard yards. We need to get involved. We need to understand our history and our culture in order to make a worthwhile contribution to either. In a multicultural Australia we should remember the ancient traditions at the core of attempts to come to terms with this land. I hope that your achievements at High have shown you the value of being part of a community, of participating in a team and of striving with self-discipline towards a worthy goal. I trust you have seen the value of a broad perspective. I would like to think that you have been influenced by and have contributed to, the culture we have always prized here, namely the pursuit of excellence with integrity. Hopefully, you have been sensitised to the need for critical self-reflection.

Tonight we rejoice in your success. We ask that you take with you not only these symbols of what you achieved but also fond memories of the processes that are embedded in how and why you were awarded them. Good luck to you all in your future careers.

ANZAC Day Assembly, 10 April 2003

Distinguished guests, staff and students. I welcome you today to our annual ceremony celebrating Anzac Day. We come together today in a dark international context. Australia is currently involved in a war against Iraq. North Korea is posturing about its nuclear capability and itching to make trouble with its neighbours. Afghanistan is not yet functioning as an independent state. We are scared to travel because of the international tensions and the SARS virus. The world financial markets are jittery, economies are stagnating. In troubled times we need to focus on the values that sustain us – fairness, justice, personal freedom, respect for individuality, compassion for others and the self-discipline to strive for goals. Never was it more apt to observe that we must think internationally but act locally.

Our war aims in Iraq are stated as fighting to effect regime change to reduce the likelihood of the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction among rogue states and terrorist organisations. A consequent objective is the removal of the infrastructure in Iraq that is alleged to harbour and protect terrorist groups, including Al Qaeda. It is yet to be seen whether weapons of mass destruction are even available in Iraq, let alone traded! It is also yet to be stated convincingly how possible terrorist organisations in Iraq are linked to a threat to Australian citizens, unless they are travellers overseas. It is further yet to be understood how disparate and autonomous terrorist organisations in Indonesia and south-east Asia are linked by networks to any organisations operating within Iraq.

Australia has joined the USA as an outraged victim of international terrorism since the Bali attack of late last year. The added notion of liberating Iraqis from dictatorship has been propounded as a wider justification for invasion. As the last few weeks have indicated, Iraqis have shown a decided aversion to being invaded for whatever reason. Scenes of their rejoicing in the streets of Baghdad have not convinced sceptics that a war of liberation has occurred.

The politics of involvement in the war against Iraq are complex. At the heart of the matter is a 'Western' fear of fundamentalist Moslem doctrines and radical activities spreading in the world and this anxiety is matched by a corresponding fear in the 'Moslem' world of economic imperialism by the USA and OECD countries compromising the governance of their homelands, weakening their cultures and undermining their religion.

In Australia's case, I really would not like history to record that we sold out our international honour for a free trade agreement with America and restored wheat sales to Iraq. Let us hope that substantial evidence is found in Iraq of weapons of mass destruction. Let us hope that the majority of Iraqis come to the judgement that the war did liberate their country from despotic rule. We need outcomes of substance to make us feel easier about the thousands of dead soldiers and civilians and the mutilated children, troubling our national conscience.

Much has been made of the 'fog of war' in the reporting by 'embedded' journalists on video telephones. In such a high technology war, the greatest danger to military personnel is ironically from themselves. The grotesque expression 'friendly fire' is used to describe military mistakes. Accidents involving high technology machinery claimed many lives. Mercifully, our small force has suffered no casualties so far in the engagements they have been involved in. As military history teaches us, wars are messy. Whatever their aims they never remain honourable or clinical or admirable. Wars create 'collateral damage' which is a macabre code for killing civilians and destroying a country. On Anzac Day the horrors of past wars are brought into sharper focus by the present horrors we are witnessing so graphically.

One positive development in the politics of our involvement in Iraq is the now bipartisan view that our sailors, our air crews and our SAS troops are not to be pawns included in the aftermath of war. In contrast to our Vietnam veterans, it is hoped that our service personnel are welcomed respectfully by everyone and recognised for their contribution. Wars are fought by ordinary people. On both sides individuals suffer, die or are injured. That is the constant thread running through wartime experiences.

ANZAC Day

If Vietnam was the first major conflict to be turned because of media involvement, the Iraqi war may be the first war that numbs the consciousness and deadens the sensitivities of people through daily overload of confronting images of war in microcosm. It seems the media have grown tired of their ratings bonanza in just 21 days. Perhaps people can no longer bear to witness war at close quarters, right down to blood on the camera lens. Journalists in increasing numbers are martyred for the cause of immediacy. Serendipitously, the impact on the Arab world may be felt most in the liberation of the media. It will be difficult to enforce censorship in countries where people are now accustomed to live war reports on TV.

This morning at our ceremony we should take a broad perspective. We need to look back to the past to help rationalise the present in order to influence our future. Our national day of remembrance is Anzac Day. We are given a public holiday on April 25 to pause, to reflect on our evolving nationhood as tested in the international arena, and to participate in ceremonies honouring those who served and those who were sacrificed in their country's causes. This year High will send a marching band to accompany the marchers. I wish them well and thank them for their involvement.

By holding ceremonies and marches and social gatherings it is hoped that the contemplation of the myriad implications of the conduct of past wars will help us as a nation to avoid getting involved in future ones. Distressingly, we cannot seem to find a way to do so. Perhaps there is something in human nature that makes us exploit the differences among us in strength, aggression and physical prowess. In international terms they become military power, totalitarianism and ideologically driven bullying.

Let us always use the time set aside for honouring our fallen to reflect upon what it was they died for. It is the hope of us all that our lives will be remembered by others. Whether they believed in the cause they suffered for or not, the point is that they acted on their country's behalf and the nation ought to recognise their service. We do so today by laying wreaths beneath the honour roll of our Old Boys who gave their lives in war. Let us look forward to acts of remembrance on the 25th. I urge you all to participate in the day.

School Notes

High Talent Tom Petty's 2002 HSC Industrial Technology Major Project (a superbly crafted sail boat) was identified by the examiners as being of a sufficiently high standard to be included in the Intech 2003 display at the 'Timber and Working with Wood Show' at Fox Studios this month.

Young Inventor (Tom again) On 24 July Tom Petty (Year 12) was featured on the ABC program New Dimensions. The piece featured Tom's considerable achievements to date, including sustainable school design and a clinker-built dinghy, and his future as an architect.

Rowing Roots The Glebe Rowing Club, where High rowing began, opened its new boatshed and clubhouse in Blackwattle Bay on 27th July, after a protracted period of fund-raising. Several past and present members of the High rowing fraternity were present to help mark the occasion.

Synchronicity New First Fifteen coach, Serdar Bolen (95), was delighted to observe that his opposite number for the first GPS competition match, the Newington coach, had played against him in the first fifteen in 1995.

King's Man Mr Eric Choy (Staff) reported that David Eyres (94 Captain) was studying for his PhD in Computer Science at Kings College Cambridge.

Strength and Honour During a long interview with Andrew Denton on his ABC program Enough Rope on 11 August, Old Boy and Oscar-winning actor Russell Crowe (77) said that the motto "Strength and Honour" used in his film Gladiator was based on the School's motto VERITATE ET VIRTUTE. A member of the languages department was forgiving of his interpretation but delighted that the study of Latin at Sydney High, and its use in daily life, was discussed on national television.

Welcome Boggabilla Central School This week the school welcomed Principal Mr Greg Simmonds, Aboriginal Education Aide Mr Dave McGrady, teachers Ms Joanne Thompson and Ms Ann Ritchie and fourteen students from Boggabilla (north of Moree, on the Queensland border) on the first of a series of student cultural exchanges organised through our SRC last year. Our visitors are having a busy week – city tour, coastal walk, rowing at Abbotsford, State of Origin match, Swans training, Sportspace tour, harbour cruise, and more. Mr Barris has done a fine job as tour director and general organiser of the week and Ms Crothers has organised the SRC to man the barbecue and to provide other hosting duties and Mr Devlin supervised at Telstra Stadium on Wednesday night. Thank you to the Cradock, Gough, James, Kaldor, Kay and Luscombe families for hosting billets for the week, to Paul Girdler for providing lunch at Abbotsford, and to Robbie Girdler, Josh Scharfegger, Alex Tiedgen and Ian Kwok for their assistance with the rowing activities on Wednesday.

The Light Fantastic Sydney Girls High hosted more than 100 boys from Years 7, 8 and 9 at their junior dance on Monday night. A great time was had by all and our boys' conduct attracted many compliments from the SGHS staff. Thank you to our chaperones for giving up their time to ensure the night's success – Mr Devlin, Mr Hannon, Mr Tiedgen, Mr Davies, Ms Cook, Mr Ockert, Mr Pearson, Ms Gazzola, Ms Ross, Mr Barris, Mr Stein, Mr Hesse.

The Select Few Congratulations to Lachlan Mitchell, Tom Andrews, Andrew Walters and Rhys Gencur on their selection in the GPS 2nd XV squad.

Canteen Opening

[The following is an edited version of the speech given on the occasion of the opening of the refurbished and extended canteen.]

Good morning Dr. Jaggar, Mr. Beringer, teachers, special guests and fellow students.

Well, as we celebrated seventy-five years at Moore Park, we must remember a vital institution of the school that has been there since the start. Yes, it is the canteen. It has served in the past many of the purposes which it now serves. The canteen is an income generator for the school, a place for boys to satisfy their hunger, and somewhere where the boys can get a sight of girls.

The canteen has had a proud and colourful history, not just here, but at its previous locations also. Before the move to Moore Park in 1928, the canteen was just as, if not more, important. It used to be called the Tuck Shop and boys were very much expected to buy their lunches and pastries from it. It was a "Noble Institution", and every boy who bought something would be "doing his duty towards the school union".

By 1918 the canteen was run in a very business-like fashion, by a canteen committee comprised of the third year Commercial Class (today's equivalent of a year nine Commerce Class). The Tuck Shop did go through its fair share of tough times though. In 1919 influenza, the bread, and the sugar strikes reduced profits to a mere nineteen pounds. However, things got better and everyday at 12:30 the "chattering of monkeys" would start as, a prefect Thompson put it.

After the school's move in 1928, the canteen became a huge room under the new building. The emphasis shifted from students to mothers as those being in charge of the Tuck Shop. There was constant re-organisation and modernisation of this ancient school tradition and in 1964 it became known as The Canteen. By this time, it sold stationery as well as foods.

In the 70s the long-held dream of a financial institution was realised, as the canteen took in yearly gross profits of about $50,000. It ran from 8:30 to 1:30 and volunteering Mums became the norm. Soon the canteen became an offshoot of the P & C, and the profits were used to further sporting and other facilities.

But by far the most dramatic developments to the canteen have been the recent renovations. In 2000, when Dr. Jaggar became Principal, he walked into the canteen during a committee meeting and remarked that it was a "primitive premises". Since that time he has persevered with the idea of having a new canteen and after four months of work, we finally did have one at the end of last year.

According to veteran canteen lady Penny, there have been many improvements, such as more and better ovens, better flooring, and much more room. Certainly, the vertically challenged ones of our school such as myself will be thankful for the lower counters and increased window areas.

Thanks to these new developments, or should I say, to Dr. Jaggar, more people now go to the canteen. The chirping and chattering of those monkeys goes on louder than ever, as does the pushing in lines from every boy to satisfy his hunger with the brand new and great products. The canteen, throughout the seventy-five years at Moore Park, was good, but now, it's great. Thank you.

Foundation Day Assembly 2003

Distinguished guests, parents of our Prefects elect, staff and students. Good morning and welcome to the 120th. Founders' Day Assembly. We are pleased to have with us our special guest Old Boy Reverend Simon Winchester who will deliver the occasional address. We are gathered today to commemorate October 1, 1883 when the first 46 students began their schooling at High. Our prefects elect are also here to become part of the official history of the school by accepting the call to a prestigious office. This ceremony connects us to our traditions and founding principles in a very demonstrable way.

Forty years ago, Ken Andrews, the retiring Headmaster, looked back on his 32 years of association with this fine school. In his Farewell Address he remarked upon the powerful influence of history and tradition that is exerted in the school. He asserted that such traditions "stem from the standards and achievements of the many" in "scholarship, sportsmanship and personal integrity". How much stronger today must Mr Andrews' line of argument be, with thousands more students having preserved and enhanced the standards of the many over the intervening years. As our Prefects Elect prepare to recite their pledge of office and sign the Prefects' Book, they will no doubt be moved by reflections of their places in the history of High.

Forty years ago, on October 4, the Honourable Mr Wetherell, Minister for Education, opened the Killip Wing, in the presence of James H Killip, Headmaster of High from 1936-1951. Gough Whitlam was here, along with Dr Wyndham and Lord Mayor Alderman Jensen. Mr Wetherell congratulated the school on its sporting achievements, commenting that sport "is a vital part in the development of human character because it teaches tolerance and the ability to give and take".

Forty years on in October, our anniversary prompts a nostalgic look at the traditions of High and its honour roll of great achievers. What do we stand for now? Do our students still feel that it is a privilege to have attended High? Do they still carry on the "academic, cultural, sporting and character-forming traditions" replicated in the achievements of the many? In my judgement, boys at this school are doing so in fine style.

When assessments are made about the ethos of a school, it pays to take a long term view. A learning culture takes a while to grow. Our culture is based on maximum participation – be the best you can be in as many areas of school life as you can. In recent years we have asked you all to challenge yourself more. Face the intellectual challenges. Take on the rigorous courses for the HSC, attempt tertiary level courses. Accept the demands of subject acceleration. Be responsible for your own learning. Do not be held back by any negative pressure not to shine. Develop an individual education plan. Perceive the value of emotional intelligence development. Confront the issues raised in values education. Think about the way you interact with others. Put yourself in the position of the other person. Empathise before you criticise. Stick to the basics – fairness, equity, justice, integrity, honesty, trust. Get into leadership. Ensure that you qualify for selection as a leader by earning a gold medallion in four years. Complete your Outdoor Education program. Serve the school and somebody deserving every year.

Set yourself physical goals. Make a serious effort to reach surpass the performance benchmarks the school has set in swimming and running.

Do not be satisfied with one team sport - get involved summer and winter. Be inspired by our sporting results this year. Take advantage of the growing expertise overlaying sports administration in the form of our expert coordinators in cricket, basketball, rugby and rowing. Honour the sport played by your peers. Rejoice in the successes of others. Understand how each performance in any of our seventeen sports sets a standard for the many.

Do not allow yourself to be intimidated by mythology or daunted by difficult goals.

Foundation Day

Outstanding individuals are not the benchmark. Forty years ago High won the rugby premiership. Phil Smith and John Brass were in the centres. The concurrence of two future internationals at the same school at the same time made all the difference. These coincidences happen rarely. They are like the 'roman candle' fireworks I enjoyed in my childhood - they shot out fountains of sparks and light, but faded rapidly. Striving for the 5% margin of excellence should be the guiding force of team sports. Incremental performance gains build standards.

Today I call upon the School Prefects to model the values and aspirations of our school. As leaders, avoid the seven habits of ineffective people.

Do not doubt yourselves and blame others. Be confident in your abilities and accept responsibility for inevitable errors and omissions. Try not to adopt a win/lose mindset. Life is all about growth. Look for win / win scenarios. Avoid working without a clear end in mind. Decide where you are headed before you commit your personal resources. Suppress the urge to do the urgent things first. The important things need to be done. Do not adopt the tactic of seeking to be understood first. Be a good listener. Consider your audience. Clarify your thoughts. Do not feel that if you cannot win, then compromise is necessary. On matters of importance, of principle, compromise diminishes character. Do not fear change and put off improvement. Change is inevitable. Build your personal capacities for lifelong learning. Plan to adapt to changing contexts. Grow yourselves into effective leaders.

Make sure that in forty years from now, if a person like me were to be moved to look back at the achievements of the Prefects of 2004, he could rightly observe that you young men added to the achievements and raised the standards of the many that have made High the school that it is.

Dr K A Jaggar

Economics – Dr Vernon Smith

On the 7th of March, Max Kletski and I (Albert Bielinko) were selected to travel to the UNSW to observe a presentation by the eminent professor, Dr Vernon Smith, ‘the father of experimental economics.’ The speech was exceedingly interesting and offered profound insight into the operation of markets under controlled conditions.

Dr Smith, the 2002 Nobel Laureate in Economics, meticulously described an economic experiment involving traders in a market, which was known as ‘Personal Exchange’. This involved a group of people who participated in a simulated share market ‘game’ in which pairs were randomly selected and seated at different terminals. The player in control had to choose whether to settle for $10 each and end the game or to pass, so that the other participant had the option of taking $25 and giving $15 to the other player, or continuing the experiment to maximize profit. As each participant accumulated market information, he/she was able to compete more efficiently, and market prices followed the fundamental value trend more accurately.

The objective of these economic experiments was to observe and analyze the behavior of traders and identify trends which emerged as the simulation was repeated. Although experienced markets tended to be considerably less volatile than new trading, speculative bubbles still formed which would essentially overshoot or undershoot the value of the shares and have a negative impact on the market.

Dr. Smith’s work has diverse applications and covers issues which are central to Australian economic markets, such as water rights and deregulated energy and finance markets.

Whilst the seminar was rather complex, it was also humorous and provided us with practical economic experience of market situations, forces and phenomena.

Chess

Sydney High Chess club in 2003 had a successful season. Compared to last year, this was an enormous improvement in all grades. Good organization and dedication by all players has made it possible for all teams to be graded, and as a result, we were competitive against other schools.

High fielded a total of fourteen teams: 6 junior, 6 intermediate, and 2 senior. This was more than any other school in the region.

Throughout the Inter-School chess competition held every Friday afternoon, success was achieved in the Senior A team in the preliminary round robin, having whitewashed every team 4-0. The results of all the matches are shown below.

Preliminary Round Robin

Round 1: def South Sydney 4-0

Round 2: def Marcelling 4-0

Round 3: def Sydney Grammar B 4-0

Round 4: def Cranbrook 4-0

Round 5: def Scots A 4-0

Round 6: def Waverley 4-0

Round 7: def St. Catherine's 4-0

Regional Finals

Round 1: Bye

Round 2: def Fort St. 3-1

Round 3: def Sydney Grammar A 3-1

State finals

Semi-final: def Sir Joseph Banks 3.5-0.5

Final: def Normanhurst 2.5-1.5

During mid-June, our school chess teams also entered the Secondary Schools One-Day Tournament held at Lidcombe. Due to the lack of experience in short games, our chess players were unable to perform to their potential. In the junior division we came fourth and in the senior division sixth.

The finals, unlike previous years, were a round robin and only the winner progressed to the State knockouts. The round robin pairings in the finals were between Grammar, Fort Street, and High. During the first week, we had a bye, and Grammar thumped Fort Street 4-0, so the next week it was important that we win 4-0, which we failed to do. The result: 3-1 our way. This meant that we had to win 3-1 or better against Grammar to stay in the hunt for the premiership.

First Grade Chess

In the last five encounters between High and Grammar, the results have been as close as 2.5-1.5, and we were very unfortunate to be on the losing side. However this year luck has finally swung our way. With the scores at 2-0 (Alex and Thien having won), and Ilya under siege on board 1, the pressure was on Mark. He was stuck in a battle against time, and with all that experience of rapid play behind him, we were confident that he could carry us over the line, and he did. The result: 3-1 our way.

Our team then progressed to the Inter-Region finals where we took on the winners of the other regions. On the following week we played the winners of Metropolitan South-West, Sir Joseph Banks High School, whom we defeated 3.5-0.5.

The final was between Normanhurst Boys High and Sydney Boys High. Having won the One-day tournament earlier in the year, they came into this final as the clear favourites. Right from the word 'go', we knew the match was going to be tough.

At board 1, Ilya was down a pawn but with his skilful tactics, he was able to force a draw against the State Champion. Alex put in a great effort on board 2, but was very unfortunate to lose to an opponent who has been playing regularly in recent times. On board 3, Thien came back from a knight down to take the scores to 1.5-all. It was then up to the ever so reliable Mark (undefeated throughout the tournament) to win the match for us. A strategic pawn sacrifice allowed him to manoeuvre his pieces within striking distance, and eventually forced his opponent to resign.

This was the first time Sydney High has won a Chess Premiership of any grade since 1999. It has been an extremely tough journey and at last we have achieved our long-term goal.

The 1st Grade Chess team for 2003 is from 4th board: Mark Liang, Thien Vuong, Alex Feldman, and Ilya Zvedeniouk.

Debating

YR 9 Debating 2003

Year 9 was a year of major transformation for the class of 2006 debating community. We had just spent two years with premiership winning coach Hilbert Chiu, part of the last High team to have won the debating 1st grade competition. His departure had indeed saddened us, but brought in two bright new coaches in the form of Alex MacCauley and Alex Gruszka, who were part of a team that was expected to win the title but failed to do so. Due to the change, the year was a bit unorganised, with the new coaches determined to get things right and not select on reputation. Faraz Amin was dropped from the A team alongside Phillip Roser, the debater of the year recipient from the year before. Romesh Abesuriya, James Morgan and Sriram Srikumar started off in the A's, with Faraz and Phil in the Bs with Labib Rahman.

The season was a very good one for all teams concerned. The A team, which by season's end had had 3 different combinations, won 5 out of 7, and the Bs managed 4 in the GPS competition. The coaches did a great job with a unique blend of humour and intelligent planning. Debater of the Year went to Faraz Amin after he stopped acting like a goon at training and managed to make it into the As team after much "sucking up" and factsheet typing.

14A Eleven

This season proved a slightly disappointing one for the 14As although it did have a good ending. This was our first season of playing games that went over two weeks with both teams having two innings. We had a couple of really close games where we only just lost on first innings. Our one triumph for the season was against Newington in our last game. We managed to beat them in first innings and drew in the second. This was mostly thanks to Gajaba Manamperi hitting form with the bat at the right time scoring a fifty in our first innings and driving our score past theirs. Malik Razeen also proved to be a great player with his new off-breaks as before he had bowled medium pace. He managed to get a five wicket haul and a few four wicket hauls. When Edward Hibbert, our other off-spinner, bowled with Malik, we often had as many as seven maidens in a row, a tribute to the fielding of the team as well.

Our first game was against Grammar. Unfortunately the Captain (Edward Hibbert) couldn't make it to the game and in the end, although all the players played very well, we ended up losing outright. The next game was against Joeys, and we once again found ourselves losing outright. However, although we were disappointed, the opposition were absolutely great and they deserved to win.

The next game against Kings was a great improvement and even though we did not score a large total as we batted first, we found ourselves in a commanding position at the end of the day. The next week it was rained off so no one got the points. In our next game against Riverview, we once again showed improvement although we lost on first innings and drew the second.

Against Shore we once again managed to force them on the back foot but the second day was rained off so no points for either team. Scots were a team that we were hoping to beat. We were playing very well but a few too many mistakes cost us the first innings. We held on and did not lose the second innings.

We were determined to win our last game against Newington and we were fairly confident as we had been improving a lot throughout the year. We did win the first innings with a great fifty from Gajaba and some wonderful bowling from Malik stopped us losing the second innings.

All in all, a season in which we could have done a lot better but it could have been worse. At the end of the season, Gajaba Manamperi got the batting award, Malik got the bowling award and Thariq Razeen was the best fielder with the most catches.

1st Year 10 VIII

From the beginning of the season we knew this was going to be a competitive year, due to great success in the junior quads the previous two years. Our first problem to overcome was the transition of rowing techniques, from sculling to sweep-oar. We managed to achieve this with the expertise of experienced coach Mr Barris. However it was not our technique that led to our success, but our passion.

It seemed as soon as the winter sport was stopping we were in the boats. The selection process was made, done by 2km erg tests, resulting in a strong and determined crew. The original crew consisted of: Mischa Steen, James Brown, Josh Scharfegger, Dom Grimm, Nigel Panagopka, Daniel Thomas, Jeremy James, and myself. Our training consisted of arduous long rows, intense race training, and a weights programme. Our first test was the Head of the Parramatta, a gruelling 4.5 km race, where we proved ourselves a feared crew in the G.P.S, coming third.

Mid-season the crew suffered a great loss due to Nigel's decision to leave the school to train at the A.I.S for volleyball. He was replaced by David Clayton, a fit member of the 2nd VIII.

The new crew bonded well, on and off the water. Good times were had at the overnight camps, and we were consistently posting good results, usually 3rd behind Shore and Kings. Our crew finished first at the Sydney High regatta, in front of a delighted home crowd.

The Sydney Regatta was considered to be an absolute practice for the Head of the River, the pinnacle of the season. The crew pushed themselves to the limits, finishing 3rd, only 0.2 seconds behind Kings.

The following week was the Gold Cup, hosted by Riverview, considered to be a competitive event for rowers, and a social event for onlookers. The crew made it to the final, overtaking Scots in the final stretch due to a big push and settling of rhythm. In the final we came 2nd, beating all but Shore. This was very promising a week before the Head of the River.

When it came down to the day that counted, everything went wrong. We didn't settle into an efficient rhythm, and we got too excited from the start. By the 1000 m mark, the crew was physically drained. Suddenly crews that we had beaten consistently throughout the season were at our neck, and overtaking us. We finished 6th, a great disappointment considering our results throughout the season. However when remembering the season, the friends formed and the feeling of overtaking crews is what stays.

Melbourne High Rowing Exchange

From Tuesday 10 to Thursday 12 December 2002 a great rowing and social bond was formed between Sydney Boys High School and Melbourne High School. It was a thoroughly enjoyed experience by all rowers and coaches, involving a long row to St Ignatius rowing sheds in the arctic winds and frosty rain, and a friendly but competitive race day.

The visitors from Melbourne arrived on Tuesday and were taken on a tour of Sydney, as well as a ferry ride to Manly. This ferry ride showed our guests how gnarly Sydney Harbour can get in unfortunate weather. The following day we all had to arrive at the sheds at 7 am to start our long row to Lane Cove. Despite the weather, our guests got to see the Harbour, which compared to the Yarra River, appeared like a sea to them.

On Thursday we had three races. The first, a 1600m race, Sydney High First Year 10 VIII won in a heated, fast-paced race, closely followed by the rest of the crews. The next was a 1000m race, in which Sydney High continued to show dominance. For the final race, the crews were mixed around between Sydney High and Melbourne High. It was a great occasion to be rowing with students of similar ability from another state. In the friendship race, the stroke side of the Sydney First Year 10 VIII and the bow side of the Melbourne Second Year 10 VIII nipped the other crews on the line in an all out 500m sprint.

I would like to thank Mr Barris and Ms Opferkuch for organising this event, as it has sparked friendships between Sydney High and Melbourne High. We look forward to a possible visit to Melbourne next year to race them on their home turf. Thanks also to those families who hosted billets and to the parents who helped with lunches throughout their stay.

Rowing

First Year 9 Quad

The First Year 9 Quad consisted of Attila Szabo (Bow), Roger Burrell (2), Douglas Chang (3), Quinton Yang (Stroke), and Romesh Abeyhuriya (Cox).

The competitive season officially started at the Head of the Parramatta time trial, where the First Year 9 Quad finished third in their division. The regatta season began with Sydney Grammar Regatta at Hen and Chicken (H&C), where our crew came fourth, by a margin of 24.22 s. The other regattas followed inexorably, with the following results:

St. Joseph's Regatta at H&C, fourth with unknown margin.

Scots College Regatta at H&C, fourth due to injuries, by a margin of 37.24 s.

Sydney Boys' Regatta at H&C, third by a margin of 22.00 s.

Kings School Regatta at H&C, third by a margin of 21.80 s.

Shore School Regatta at H&C was cancelled due to bad weather.

Newington Regatta at H&C, third by unknown margin.

These regatta results placed the crew in the B final of Gold Cup Regatta on the Land Cove River, where we came fourth with a margin of 7.47 s

Overall, these results did not reflect on the attitude of these rowers. The First Year 9 Quad had another year of good rowing and looked forward to next year's eights.

First Year 8 Quad

The First Year 8 Quad was guided by coach Mr Gary McIver. The crews changed thoroughly through the early season. The season began with David Kim, Joeun Na, Kevin Kim, Siyang Wang and cox Vassili Issaev. However as the season moved on, technique was found to be a more important factor than just strength. Thus two outstanding rowers with less strength, but better rowing technique and rhythm replaced Joeun Na and Kevin Kim – Harry Song and Yun Zhe Guo were these two rowers. They turned out to be determined and competent rowers, who were a major asset to the team. The final quad turned out to be Siyang Wang (Stroke), David Kim (3), Harry Song (2), Yun Zhe Guo (Bow) and Bill Sun (Cox).

With trials out of the way, and the crew finalised, it was time to focus on the upcoming regattas. Holiday camp consisted of both endurance and strength exercises. One of which was a day trip to Lane Cove and back, which lasted six hours from 9am to 3pm.

The season consisted of many sessions out in bad weather and rocky waves. Despite giving it our best, we failed to be on par with the elite competitors of the opposition. None the less it was our first experience on the waters, and was time well spent learning the sport for the first year. Thanks to Mr McIver and to the wonderful accommodation provided by the Outterside shed – to Mr McIver especially, for spending his free afternoons coaching us, and helping us take our first few steps in rowing.

Fourth Year 8 Quad

The beginning of the first rowing season for a quite inexperienced crew (Sameer, Eddy, David, Geoffrey, Godwin) was quite memorable as Mr. Hespe, our coach taught us the basic fundamentals of getting the speed boat on to the water and also getting the rather heavy 'Centenary' on and off the pontoon cleanly. The crew attended most land training sessions and were quite dedicated in preparation for the racing season. Although the crew achieved few successes in the regattas, we nevertheless received some satisfaction over minor wins in 3rd or 4th place by occasionally leading some crews by quite a few boat lengths, and also by certain crews that simply do not turn up.

Overall, a very pleasing season with tremendous thanks to Mr. Hespe and also parent's that help out at the barbecue on Saturdays.

Third to Sixth Grade Tennis

The GPS season started poorly for Third to Sixth Grade, and despite the team's best efforts, finished in much the same way. The first rubber was against Riverview, whose First Grade team were defending champions. It was a disastrous encounter. An under prepared High team, lacking form, walked away licking their wounds, having taken only a single set from the strong Saint Ignatius team. Several absences also did not help the cause.

The second rubber against Shore saw a slight improvement in the scores, with four sets won (two each in fourth and fifth grade), but the need for further training and practice was evident. The next week saw a determined third grade hold out for a 4 2 win against archrivals Grammar. The remaining grades, however, did not fare so well, with only one other set won.

The rubber against Scots the following week, brought a reversal in fortunes, with third grade drawing (thanks to a tough 6-5 win by Yeou-Heng Shaw), fourth grade winning comfortably 5-1, and sixth grade 6-0. Sixth grade unfortunately defied the trend, losing all their matches.

Things looked to be on the improve, but any hopes of better results late in the season were cruelly shattered by Joeys and a surprisingly tough Newington – third to sixth grade managed to win only two sets from each school (although there were some very competitive scores posted). Absences again caused problems.

The last match of the season against Kings at Gowan Brae saw only three grades compete (due to transport difficulties), and once more, it was very much a one-sided affair, this time with only four sets won. This was not the best way to finish off the season (for some, their very last at High), but it was clear, on some reflection, that the season had been thoroughly enjoyed by all, and indeed for all players, had its moments.

Special mention must go to those who competed in all the rubbers: Miyuru, Daniel Ng, Nathan Rapaport, Tom Norrie, myself, and Allan Chow. Allan's effort is all the more inspiring considering he played (as an unofficial member) after his basketball matches for High, and that he won all but one of his sets (many in the higher grades). An outstanding achievement that demonstrates what it truly means to be a High boy.

Finally, thanks go to our coach, Mrs Nesbitt, for her time, labour, patience, and ability to maintain a sense of humour even in the direst of circumstances.

14 Years Tennis

The 14's showed good spirit in the 2003 tennis season, but our overall results, both in the Singles and in the Doubles, were not great by any stretch of imagination.

This season might not have been a success in terms of the number of wins, but it was a great opportunity to get to know each other, and to forge new tennis partnerships and friendships. Even though our scores were disappointing, in the face of adversity we developed a strong team spirit. Whilst we had three reserves and a sufficient number of players to field four teams, we just did not have the depth of players our competitors had.

Overall the D-team was the most successful one, with a fair number of wins, both in the Singles and in the Doubles.

Whilst our skills have improved over the Christmas break, we still have a long way to go. Overall physical and mental fitness, or the lack of it, appears to be our main handicap. We will have to work hard this coming winter to overcome these hindrances. Serious training and fitness sessions are required by all to lift our performance and to prepare us for a successful season next year. In addition to this, it would be great if some experienced players would decide to sign up for tennis next season.

Thank you to Mr Boros and Ms Tuthill for encouraging us throughout the competition and to our coaches for their Wednesday coaching.

Fifth Grade Basketball

The 2002/03 season proved to be a very exciting one for all those involved. No matter what the result was, we always managed to have a good time. This was the final season of summer sport for all those in the team, as it entirely comprised of year 12s, and it proved to be a great final season. The results were as follows: Grammar, lost 35-47; Shore, lost 12-17 and 14-33; Joeys, lost 12-29 and 12-43; Scots, lost 2-50 and 20-28; Kings, lost 15-22 and won 34-17; Ignatius, won 26-20 and 31-25; Newington, lost 25-41. We were actually on a three game winning streak, and can claim to have been undefeated for almost three months, as the wins came either side of the summer break. It was awesome to get the double over St Ignatius.

The team consisted of:

David Wong – the inspirational captain. David would always give his 110% whether it be in defence or attack. He was an extremely reliable guard, and was the brains behind most of our plays.

Adrian Low- whenever Adrian was on the court, you could always relax a bit as he could on occasions pull something out of absolutely nothing. He also had an extremely accurate shot, and was constantly among the points.

Grant Wrighter – this was Grant's first season of basketball, but it didn't show. In the first couple of games when the team was struggling to put points on the board, it was Grant who stood up and led the way. He always had a never say die attitude to the game.

Max Kletski – what can I say? He was the heart of the team. With his height, he became unstoppable and with only an ounce of strength, he was able to rebound the ball and finish the play off. Without Max, we would never have done as well as we did, so great job Max. (David Wong)

Albert Le – the master himself. If Albert had the ball anywhere near the key, whether in his left or right hand, or even facing the ring, there was a good chance that he was going to score. He was unstoppable and teams were forced to double team him. Unfortunately, he was unavailable for much of the latter part of the season.

Basketball

Jerry Liu – with his coaching duties relieved of 6ths Jerry joined our team for the second half of the season. Although Jerry was often much shorter than his opposition, he made up for this by having a freakish jump height. He left oppositions mesmerised when he won rebounds. He also scored some very classy shots.

Angus Ng – originally in Fourth Grade, Angus decided to instead join our team, after having played one game for us. In defence, Angus was very reliable. He was left in 2 on 1 situations on a number of occasions and on most of them came out the victor. Unfortunately Angus was prone to injury, and due to this missed several games.

Andrew Hunt – the little beast. Andrew joined fifths from water polo in the latter part of the season. What he lacked in height he made up in determination. He also had the best record from the free throw, when he sunk both of his in his debut game.

Allan Chau – although officially part of thirds, Allan always made himself available when we were short (and sometimes when we weren't). He was simply a scoring machine!

Apart from the above mentioned, there were many others who at one point or other played for fifths. Many thanks must go to Richard Zhou, Fai Lam, Simon Lai, Matthew Sit, Ian Tran, Jim Yang, Bo Jing, Anthony Ko, Axel Levitan, and Jim Li. My apologies to anyone whom I missed.

I would like to thank all my team mates for such a great season. It was a lot of fun playing with you guys, and I'd like to wish you all the best of luck in the future.

15A Basketball

The 15A Basketball team was very solid from the start consisting of several talented players who are sure to form the basis of First Grade in years to come. With Vincent Saloman returning to coach another season we were sure to have a big chance at competing, with the strong line-up of Francis Wong, Hai Sang, Raymond Huynh, Pat Tung, Chris Tran, Brian Chan, David Greenup, Yang Hee, Eugene Wong, and Lewis d'Avigdor (captain).

We started our season with three resounding wins, smashing joeys 55-14, and pulling wins over Kings and Scots. We were in peak form. However, two draws followed and we began to see a slump occurring in our winning streak. The second time we played Scots it was a bitter match – on the basketball court they were our sworn enemies, even more than any other school. From the start the game was tough, points being hard won and scored equally by both sides. But the game took a turn for the worse when Francis fell over ... and didn't get up. On closer examination his arm was broken badly, complete with an S-bend. After he was rushed to hospital, courageously taking the pain, High was inspired to achieve a win over Scots. We didn't match their aggression, but outplayed them in basketball to score a narrow victory.

Many thanks to Vincent Saloman, who has proved to be a consistent and vital asset to Sydney High Basketball.

15C Basketball

High 15Cs started off the season slowly with losses to both Iggies and Shore. We also finished off the season with another two losses against Newington and the new look Kings. I would like to thank the regular line-up of Adrian Flores, Alex Kogan, Bennet Wong, Joon Kwon, Jordan Luong and Tony Tan for their continued efforts, as well as newcomers Ting Mei and Ramesh Nithiyendran.

I was slightly disappointed that a few people did not show up regularly and I hope that next year they will make amends. I would also like to praise the help of Kenny Liu and Jack Phu who made guest appearances.

We managed to defeat Grammar 27-19, Scots 53-24, and Joeys 32-31. If High spirit is about giving it all you've got, never giving up, and having fun, then the 15Cs have it. Rtheir spirit was on show against Joeys where Joon Kwon managed to score the winning basket in the dying seconds of the game. Goog on you, Joon!

All in all this was a good season and next year we will aim a little higher and try to defeat Shore!

Wayne Xu, Captain.

15D Basketball

Firstly I would like to congratulate the team's effort in this season's games and to also thank the coach, Mr Dowdell. They have done an excellent job in both the season and the preseason. Each team member has developed skill in each area of basketball. The team played well in each game and gave the best of effort, although some games, which we merely lost such as Joeys and Kings, were unfortunate.

Peter Lieu and John Jiang played outstandingly in the two games that both scored most of the points. There were games where the team had lost to the opposition by a large amount, such as Shore. Alan Wong, even in a bad situation of the game kept the team together with a few good baskets.

But amongst the losses we did manage to get a brilliantly played game against Grammar which was capped off by Jack Phu with the highest point score in any match.

The skill in each player of the team was obviously above average, yet I did think that we lacked in teamwork. I believe that we could have shot extra baskets if our passing skills were better and that we should have communicated more before the game rather than deciding to call out what to do in the game.

The attendances were overall good with some exceptions of people. Our numbers increased in the start of the season when three players joined. The number of players proved not to be a problem in any match.

Samuel Chhor and Aaron Chong proved to be an asset when they joined the team, both inexperienced yet played excellently in the games. Overall the team had done brilliantly even though many of us were new to this game. Each player had improved in his own area and has given the best of effort to win.

Swimming

The swimming season was rather successful with a new MIC and the sport now officially GPS. The new MIC was Mr Stuart Fenton who took over from Mr Phillip Day, after fourteen years of loyal service to Sydney High Swimming. The season began with a meeting of the swimming Captains, Vice-Captains and MICs from all the GPS schools at St Joseph's College in Hunters Hill, where Mr Day was the guest speaker. It signaled the beginning of the GPS swimming season starting with the Grammar carnival at the renovated Andrew 'Boy' Charlton pool in the Domain. The traditional King's carnival was left out this year. In its place, Joeys hosted a carnival at the Sydney International Aquatic Centre in Homebush.

In addition to the GPS competition, High swimmers also had to compete in the CHS competition in which a team is selected from the results of our school carnival to swim at the Zone Carnival. From here a team is then selected for the Regional Carnival and then onto the CHS State Championships.

High competed successfully in both competitions. Overall in the GPS competition, High came fourth in the Open division, sixth in the Intermediate division and fifth in the Junior division. The following swimmers must be congratulated on being selected in the GPS representative team which competed at the CIS carnival: Kenny La, Andrew Reis, Ellis Louie, Barry Dubovsky and Tom Miller. Of special note are Tom Miller and Andrew Reis who gained selection in the CIS team to compete at the All Schools Carnival.

The six swimmers mentioned above as well as the twelve years freestyle relay and the Opens freestyle and medley relay teams must also be congratulated on being chosen for the Sydney East Team to compete at the CHS Carnival.

The season ended with the Annual Swimming Dinner held at the Woollahra Golf Club on 2 April. The guest speaker was Mr Ben Ebel, Sydney Boys High Swimming Captain 1994 and GPS Swimming Captain 1994, who gave an inspiring speech. Mr Fenton and Mr Day, swimming MICs, deserve recognition for their organisation and dedication to the swimming team. Their enthusiasm and encouragement throughout the season is much appreciated by the Sydney High Swimming Team.

Second Grade Volleyball

The introduction of Volleyball into the GPS in 2003 as an unofficial sport resulted in the creation of a second grade squad at High. Ever since 2000 Volleyball at High has gained popularity, and this was reflected in the large number of people who turned up for the try-outs early in the year. Second Grade comprised an interesting mix of experienced and new players, and so we basically had to start from scratch: refining skills and techniques, learning new plays, and building teamwork and cooperation.

In the inaugural unofficial GPS Competition, only five GPS schools participated. A modified competition was adopted, where each school played every other twice. Due to First Grade's commitments to the CHS competition, Second Grade played many First Grade matches throughout the season. Some of our GPS opponents were inexperienced, but others proved more than formidable opponents. Throughout the entire winter season, Second Grade lost only one match, which is a credit to the players. The combined efforts of Second and First Grades secured High the premiership for GPS Volleyball 2003.

Aside from the GPS competition, Seconds also competed in a number of tournaments throughout the year. Tournaments require teams to play about five matches in a day. Although this is a great deal of fun, it is also very taxing on the bodies. Second Grade competed well in the Metro Schools Competitions, taking full advantage of much-needed court time. However it was in the NSW State Cup that Second Grade played several phenomenon games against quality opposition. We finished runners-up in our division, which is a commendable effort considering the fact that some of our players had only been playing Volleyball for a term.

The final challenge for Second Grade is the National Schools Competition in Melbourne, where we hope to rise to even higher challenges and come back satisfied that we have played to the best of our abilities.

Third Fifteen

Sydney High Third Grade Rugby has always been a social side composed of players who enjoy their rugby, but don't want to take it too seriously. However in 2002, a team of committed and talented players proved that with determination and a little hard work, a Sydney High Third Grade side could be a force to be reckoned with.

However all the best efforts of the team would have come to nought without the indispensable advice and belligerent personality of Mr Storey, who was an endless source of motivation, inspiration and occasionally, humiliation.

The Thirds was the only Sydney High team undefeated throughout the pre-season, albeit against weaker sides. Unfortunately the surprising depth of other GPS schools created a serious imbalance in the competition, which contributed to the difficulties of the Sydney High First and Second Fifteens. But the efforts of Third Grade should not be downplayed, especially with a plucky GPS victory over Newington through a late try. Outstanding players are too numerous to name, and for fear of attracting recrimination for omissions, I will simply lavish praise upon the entire Third Grade outfit. I was proud to captain this honourable team of men.

In conclusion, a talented team with a determined coach challenged the notion of the soft social thirds at High, with the success of the season the result of commitment and dedication by the players.

David Carter, Captain.

15A Rugby

The team had high hopes at the start of the season, as it was the first year that rugby teams were decided by grade, and not age. This allowed a greater bond throughout the team, all of us being in year 10. It also gave us an advantage over the other G.P.S schools, with some of us playing a year down.

There were numerous wins in the pre-season, including convincing wins over Hurlstone Ag. and the Armidale School. The pre-season was seen as a base for our development of basic skills and cohesion in general play. With solid forwards, including stand-out front rowers Ian Kwok and Bryan Wrench, and loose forwards Josh Scharfegger and Mitchell Taylor, we were a team to be feared in scrums and at the breakdown. The backline had a mix of size and speed, with agile wingers and fullback, Suren Wickramasinghe, Jason Phung, Alan Dam, and Jacob Stretton, huge centres with Rak Sangha and Will Kwok, and skilful halves Damitha Fonseka and Shaheen Kumar.

We had several training sessions a week, including weights, scrums, backline moves, and team run-throughs, which heightened our chances of success in the season. However it seemed that we were a team of champions, not a champion team. Individually all players had useful attributes, but the team did not use these in collaboration.

Our only G.P.S win was against Grammar, at their home ground, 15-5. The team played well, with continuous phases, well contested break-downs, and successful set-pieces. The highlight of the game was not winning, but seeing Ian Kwok miss a conversion attempt from directly in front of the posts.

Another highlight was our game against St Josephs at McKay Oval, in wet conditions, which led to many dropped balls in both teams' backlines, as well as rough play at rucks. We kept Joey's to 0-5 at half time. All players strived to shut down their playmakers, including a young Kurtley Beale. The end score was 0-25, although the score did not reflect the game.

Throughout the season there were many moments of glory, with tries and big hits. At the end of the season, it was decided that the biggest hit was awarded to Mitch Taylor. Although the season was expected to have more wins, there were numerous close score lines that did not reflect the better team on the day. Many bonds were formed throughout the season, and it gave added experience to all of our rugby skills. Also an extra thanks to coaches Mr Berenger and Mr Codey, who put an endless effort into developing the team.

14A Fifteen

The 14As started the season a little uncertainly, with the team being significantly shaken up from the year before. Highlighted by big wins over Armidale (44-0) and Hurlstone (22-5), we entered the GPS season with confidence and expectation. An early win over Grammar (12-0) at Weigall was enjoyable, but it was followed up by a disastrous loss at Shore (12-24), after leading 12-0 at half time. Our final round match against Scots was a thriller, and I expect it will not be quickly forgotten by either team. It deserves the main attention of this report, as it was a truly enjoyable match.

After scoring early, we entered half time with confidence, 5-0 ahead. An uncharacteristic missed penalty attempt by our kicker from in front early in the second half could have put us in a comfortable position, but the miss only added to the tension and excitement. We fell back to our customary trench-style defence for the rest of the half, but it was not enough. When Scots scored from in front with two minutes to go, the game was surely gone. Memories of the Shore match were returning for the team. But in a tribute to the bungling nature of the match, the Scots kicker (kindly) missed the conversion, keeping the scores level at 5-5. But the best was still to come, with a final two minutes of relentless attack from Scots ending in a penalty from what would have been a simple kicking position in any other game. However the Scots captain, unwilling to risk his unreliable goal-kicker, opted for touch, and when the ball was kicked dead the game was over – a 5-5 draw.

Special thanks must go to Mr Gainford and Mr Bigelow for their coaching efforts, managing to extract a win and a draw from a season that could have been much less eventful.

Soccer Master

This year Soccer at High again moved from strength to strength, with twenty-four teams competing during the season. The First Grade were very competitive and despite staying unbeaten for the season could not tear the premiership away from a dominant Riverview side.

One of the highlights of the season would have to be the Independent Cup victory over Riverview. Leading 3-1 at half time Riverview came back into it to draw 4-4 at the end of full time. In the fading light penalties were used to split the teams and High dismayed the Riverview crowd on their home turf by winning 5-3. The scenes of jubilation summed up the strength of the High unit and the self-belief the players had for the up and coming season.

In other matters, a second training clinic was organised with Parramatta Eagles/Manchester United where a number of the junior players took advantage of four days of intensive professional training.

Soccer

A problem was identified with the McKay Fields where an official complaint was made over the playing surface meaning the ground was unusable for the remainder of the season. First and Second Grade therefore played on the Bus Loop fields for the first time and relished the flat, grassy surface.

In the Junior School we fielded five Under 13s, five Under 14s, four Under 15s and four Under 16s with four other Opens teams. The participation was very strong and two other teams, the Under 15Ds and the Under 13Es, remained unbeaten throughout the season.

Fifth Grade Soccer

With the team already being familiar with each other due to previous seasons, we were entering the 2003 season with high hopes and expectations. However, as we learned from early on, our team was not flawless. Our weakness was scoring as our team just didn't seem to have the ability of placing the ball into the net. Nonetheless, when it mattered, we found that certain players such as Tim Wu, Robbie Glance and most notably Pu Shen Xin, discovered their potential for striking and their goals in pivotal moments of the game saved our team from a countless number of losses.

It was unfortunate that we slipped and lost the first game of the season 1-3 to Newington, however, we failed to be demoralised and redeemed ourselves with a comprehensive 2 0 win over Grammar the following week. This victory was a result of a combined team effort which elevated our confidence for the rest of the season. It was only unfortunate that we managed to slip on some occasions and lose some key games, but nonetheless our confidence throughout the season remained very high and every match was played with good spirit.

No doubt the strength of the team was bestowed upon our midfield, with Ho's and Tim's dazzling ball skills, Pu Shen's and Robbie Glance's sharpshooting ability, and together with the prowess of Ericson and Terence, it was only inevitable that we dominated every match we played. Our rock solid backline of Pavan, Andrew and Kon, together with our goalkeepers Jason Kok and Munir Alam, worked tirelessly all season to keep the goals conceded to a minimum. Our strikers Garry, Nirushan and Clem played consistently all season and made sure the ball always stayed in the opposition's half. It was the effort of the whole team which made this season an interesting and an enjoyable one. Also we heartily thank Mr Watson for his coaching and management.

Sixth Grade Soccer

Dolan Cup Swindlers' and Wooden Spoons

Golden Boot winner Pu Shen Xin

The season began with controversial tryouts in which even the later-appointed captain was not initially selected. Wins in all four of our pre-season fixtures-against Waverley, Scots (Home and Away) and Cranbrook, with ease, were an indication of what was to come.

A long awaited three-week break was the key for success. The holidays resulted in the mystery of all Year 12s in the team save two leaving, as the trial HSC approached. Also, as the players required much balancing out from our coach's intense and passionate training, the break really paid off.

Against our first opponents, Cranbrook (Newington did not have a sixth grade side), it was shown how much one player impacts a game. In the pre-season, we played them with a man down, and still managed a 1-0 win. This time they were a man down. Consequently, Cranbrook conceded a total of seven goals while providing infinitesimal offensive threat.

After cruising through games against Grammar at home and Shore at a beach in Centennial Park, Riverview were our next targets. The visitors lead 0-2 at half time, all at the expense of mediocre communication and Jason Kok's knee (keeper on loan from Fifth Grade). But, as the cliché goes, 'we were beaten by a better side', with Riverview holding on to win 0-2. (This was the only game in the entire season where a team scored twice against Sixth Grade in one half).

The week following the Riverview tragedy, we marched ourselves to 'the beach' (McKay 4) again to do battle, this time against the other Joey's. With the Sixth Grade captain deciding to become a referee, Sydney High players and supporters all felt let down. Never before has any one individual been under more pressure by refereeing a schoolboy game and then to play in the game afterwards than against this St Joseph's side. Put succinctly, invectives and derogatory language aimed at the High Captain voiced by "supporters" continued for the duration of the match (about an hour). Despite this we still managed a 2-0 win against Joey's, with the captain, ironically, assisting in all the goals.

The following week saw a bye against Kings with many players ordered to visit North Parramatta to play in Fifth Grade.

Our final game was shrouded in controversy, juxtaposing heroic qualities with disappointment. It was the game of the season. The game began with even numbers, about twenty Scotsmen and twenty Sydney High supporters and just as many players in each team. With 15Ds having scored against Kings in double figures, sixth grade knew what needed to be done for a Dolan Cup win. The task was estimated to be something along the lines of a 10-0 thrashing.

The regular starting lineup, went in. Against the wind, three goals were put into the Scots net, with Richie Cherian (standing tall at about 5'5") scoring with his head from a corner. With five minutes to go in the first half, the captain was forced off due to substitutions by unknown players. During these five minutes two more goals were scored. (It was a myth that High had scored all of them, in fact the number of goals scored was also a myth. It was later found out that Scots had in fact scored a goal.)

By the second half, the High sideline had grown in size. There were now over thirty players in High uniform alone. In this second half, High broke a GPS record with most substitutions in a half by one team, with about seventeen. Everyone wanted to score, but only the true sixth grade players netted in three in the second half. By not knowing what the end result was, the captain was forced to make an assumption on the following Monday. Thus we were only stripped of our Dolan Cup and our reputation. Ironically, Scots had also forged the results claiming High had only scored four. (The true score, to this day remains a mystery, but statistical estimates based on the latest technology range the score from 5-1 to 9-1).

Despite our 'Dolan Cup Swindle', we would like to congratulate the 15Ds on winning the Cup this year. Let this be a warning to all future captains: Do not let anyone other than your team's players play for your team.

Furthermore, Sixth Grade, 2003, would like to thank Mr. Watson for his coaching and managing expertise, Mrs. Bradley for her oranges at half-time, and the captain for his insightful 'glucose is good' snakes before all our games.

16A Soccer

Throughout the season all games were close and the boys rose to the occasion every time. Our new coach Mr Morris, MIC of soccer, helped us throughout the season.

There was not much between the other GPS schools and High, which showed in the numerous draws obtained throughout the season. Luck sometimes seemed to be against us in a few of the games with close calls not always favouring High, such is the way of soccer sometimes. High finished the season in the middle of the table which judging by our on field performance against the other teams may have been a little unfair.

By the end of the season all players were greatly improved from the start of the season with a greater understanding of the game and better teamwork which set most of the boys up to play in the high Open grades in future years with much success.

Cross Country Captain's Report

GPS Competition

Sydney High had some very good and unexpected results throughout the GPS season. This year the GPS Championships were hosted by Newington College at Sydney Park. This was a new course and we had the opportunity to run there in the first carnival of the season. It was definitely tougher than any of the other GPS courses because the laps were very long and each contained three steep hills. It would be even harder at the Championships, which is always run at a faster pace than the other races.

Opens

Nadeeka Jayarathna was our only realistic chance of a good individual position in the Opens. In the first carnival he was 11th and also had a few top ten finishes later on including 4th place at the second last carnival, which High hosted. All his training seemed to have paid off and at the Championships Nadeeka seemed likely to finish in the top ten. However, he surprised everyone by remarkably finishing a close second.

High's next three runners were placed in the 50s. However, this is not bad considering the high level of competition in this age group.

Under 16s

The under 16s always had the most number of High runners and they were usually evenly spread out through the field. As a result, they had solid results in the teams competition, which is encouraging because most of the runners will be in the same age group next year.

At the Championships, Dale Sun was 20th and Attila Szabo 21st. The best was Alan Trieu who was 15th. However, it was Attila who was the most impressive throughout the season.

Under 14s

After a slow start in the first two carnivals, Andrew Reis made huge improvements and was consistently in the top ten and few times in the top five. He finished the season well with 6th place at the Championships.

It was also good to see High runners who finished further back in the field but participated every week.

CHS Competition

In the CHS competition, Sydney High had six competitors qualify for the NSW All Schools Cross Country Carnival (State Carnival), including the under 17 school team. In the under 15s, Paul Watzlaff won at the Regional and finished 21st in the State Carnival, where he was hampered by an injured thumb. In the under 17s the best was Nadeeka Jayarathna who finished 19th. Also, Steven D'Souza was 64th and Sahan Dasanayaka 79th.

I want to thank Mr Kesting and Mr Prorellis for their help with training on Wednesdays and at the GPS and CHS carnivals throughout the season.

Sahan Dasanayaka, Cross Country Captain

Open Cross Country

With many Year 12 runners departing last year, the opens team was doubted to perform as well as in previous years. However, this doubt was soon erased with new, rising talent from the years below.

The season began with the Newington carnival in early June. The hilly terrain was difficult to cross, but High finished strongly, coming third in the opens with Nadeeka Jayarathna finishing eleventh in a competitive field.

This was followed by the Shore carnival, where the first grade team was selected:

Jim Li

Matthew Lam

Grant Wrighter

Yinan Zhang

Michael Walder

Cross Country

Steven D'Souza

Nadeeka Jayarathna

Thien Vuong (vice captain)

Sahan Dasanayaka (captain)

In the Trinity Relay, the only team relay event, High team 1 finished 11th with a few teams not far behind.

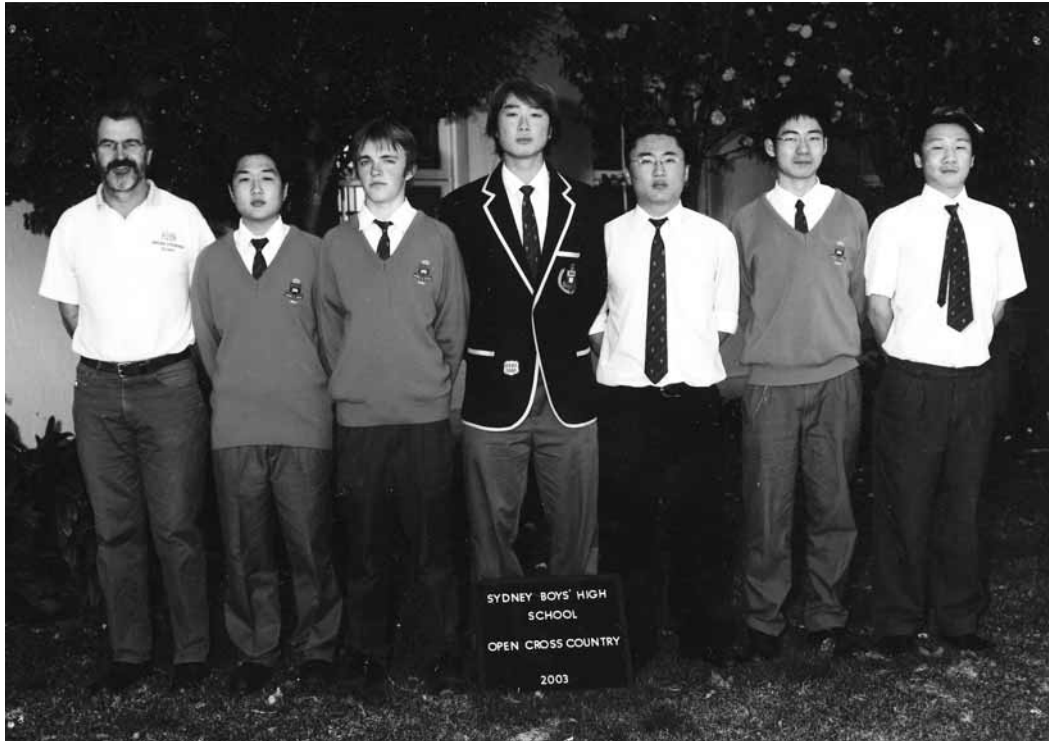

Term 3 saw many new talents helping High to a strong finish in the season. In the opens Nadeeka, returning after a two year absence, finished consistently in the top ten, coming fourth, ninth and tenth in the last three races before the Championships.

The season ended with the GPS Championships, hosted this year by Newington. In opens, Nadeeka finished the season second in a fast paced race.

I'd like to thank Mr. Prorellis and Mr. Kesting, as coaches, for helping with coordinating cross country and helping on Saturdays.

Second Grade Shooting

Two thousand and three was the beginning of a rebuilding process for Sydney High shooting as the major part of the experienced shooters had left or soon would be leaving the school. Thus it was that both First and Second Grade teams entered the competition as somewhat unknown quantities. Second Grade contained a mix of experienced shooters who had seen the GPS Shoot before and those who had only begun shooting shortly before the GPS Shoot.

The Second Grade match takes place on the second day of the competition and we gained a great deal of inspiration from the First Grade team who had, to the surprise of even themselves, been successful in regaining the NRA Shield and Rawson Cup. Additionally, this year the weather was fine and conditions were generally more conducive to shooting than the intermittent showers of 2002.

The first stage was at 500m. Some excellent shooting from Peter Gordon and Aroshan Wijusurendra (both with 34.1 out of a possible 35) along with John Shin, Tim Shu and Captain David Isaacs (with 33s) and admirable shooting from debutants Dominic Wong, Chris Lam and Patrick Chen saw Sydney High running second only to Shore at the conclusion of the stage.

The second stage was at 300m – generally considered a harder range to shoot from. We began this stage well with Shin shooting the same 33 as he managed in the first stage. From here however things started to go awry. Inexperience showed and only two other scores over 30 were recorded (A.Wijusurendra, D.Isaacs). High finished up with 469.17 out of 560 placing us in fourth position.

Congratulations to Shore who won the match with a total of 518 and the excellent Second Grade average of 32.375. Well done also to John Shin with a total of 66.4 out of a possible 70 – our best and most consistent shooter. Also congratulations to our First Grade team who hung on in the final match – the Buchanan Shield – to win the GPS Premiership for the third time in four years. I will look forward to watching both teams compete in 2004.

Fencing Mini As

The SBHS Mini A fencing team competed in the School League Preliminary Rounds at Newington on the 9, 16 and 23 August. Even though the team fenced enthusiastically, we had to be content with a disappointing ninth place due to lack of competition experience in our team. However, we were awarded a Bronze Medal in the Individual Awards Category.

All team members are keen to improve their fencing skills quickly and are currently training both at SBHS and SGHS, hence we are looking forward to a much-improved performance in 2004.

[1] From 1884-1919 the dux was known as captain of the school.

[2] The prefect system was introduced in 1910.

From 1910 to 1919, the equivalent of the present School Captain was called the Senior Prefect.

[3] The title of Senior Prefect was changed to Captain in 1920.
