

From the Principal High Talent

Sustainable Living Challenge participants from Year 10 2005 were recognised for their entries. Kevin Lee, Edward Deng and Aditya Keswani were awarded High Commendations, with Joseph Lai and Sabeeh Hussain earning commendations. Congratulations boys! Well done to Gehan Karunaratne and Adrian Jeyendra who were selected in the combined GPS XI for cricket. Yu Lin won 1st place in the NSWFA Novice #1 division and a bronze medal in the Gilt Series 2006, Men's Epee. Well done, Yu. Old Boy brain surgeon Paul Silberstein was featured on 'Australian Story' recently, describing his surgical innovation in the treatment of Parkinson's disease. Recent Old Boys Kae Yen Wong and John Shin are exhibiting several paintings at Harrington Street Artists Cooperative Gallery – a tick for the Arts! Congratulations to our junior and intermediate debaters who won their divisions of the UNSW Invitational Debate. Congratulations also to Terry Ly, Victor Nguyen, Jaime Tao, Weiping Lu, Danny Ng, Warren Trac and Ping Du who have been selected to represent Sydney East Region at the CHS Inter-regional Volleyball Carnival to be held at Taree from 28 to 30 March.

Canteen Committee

The management and volunteers helping in the canteen asked me to convey their thanks to the School Prefects for their great efforts in helping at the Canteen during term 1. Coke Zero is to be supplied in the vending machine along with water, powerade, sprite zero and diet coke. Don't forget that our salads, sandwiches, wraps, rolls and fruit salad are made fresh daily on the premises, not bought in pre-prepared. Our prices are still way below commercial rates for prepared food. Don't forget to use our lunch ordering system.

School Behaviour and Dress

I am concerned that our standards are slipping in behaviour and school uniform compliance. Staff members are complaining to me about students attempting to eat in classrooms, about running and pushing in corridors and about boys not doing up their ties and not tucking in their shirts. Ties are supposed to be worn with the collar button done up and the knot of the tie pushed up to the throat. There is a trend for ties to be hung lower and lower down the chest. This looks slovenly and is pointless. I urge boys to comply with the school's dress code. From next week, students can expect staff to enforce the school dress code more energetically, including school detentions for persistent offenders. Similarly, disrespect for the school is shown by running in corridors, eating in class and discarding rubbish inappropriately inside and outside the school. Let's smarten up the way we present ourselves. Showing pride in your school comes via showing pride in your dress and demeanour!

Behaviour on Buses

Regrettably, I have to bring up the matter of behaviour on buses. I received a complaint from a passenger on a 394 bus who comes past our school every day. She complained that she was brushed aside by a senior student of this school as he boarded the bus at 8:40 at Kingsford and that the same boy deliberately occupied a seat while passengers were standing – contrary to the conditions of free bus and train travel for school students. That inconsiderate student tarnished the reputation of the school. Behave yourselves on public transport boys!

Job Skills Lacking – SMH 13/3

Employers want universities to place more emphasis on communication skills in undergraduate courses. Creativity, initiative, oral business communication and problem-solving skills need development. These ‘employability skills’ are nurtured in English, social science and visual arts courses, co-curricular activities and leadership courses at our school. When you do school service, charity work, research for a project or dream up a new solution to a problem, you are making yourself more employable. Employability starts with communication. I urge boys and their parents to see the value in writing more, more fluently and more expertly, for specific purposes. Do not complain about being given non-assessable writing tasks – embrace them as opportunities to practise necessary skills.

Newington Matches

High hosted Newington for senior competition without much success except in cricket where both the first and second elevens are right in their contests. In second grade basketball the other GPS teams have decided that go-to man Ray Huynh has to be shut down and they were prepared to double team him all the time to do it. As our defence tired late in the game we could not stop the tall Newington players making fast transitions and our offensive players did not keep moving all the time, thus cutting down our options. We went scoreless for over 5 minutes and we closed out 65-35. In first grade, our boys were playing in the land of the giants with two Newington players a head and shoulders over our players. Nevertheless, ‘in your face’ defensive tactics broke up the Newington attack and our boys had a great first quarter to be down only 18-22. As substitutes moved in and out of the game our defensive intensity and communication waned a little and Newington started to use their big men better. They moved away to lead 46-27 in the break. It was difficult to get near the basket with attempted shots being rejected or thwarted by tall timber. Our boys persisted and scored 50 points in the game but were outgunned. In tennis we still can’t find a way to win the 5th vital match. Our boys fell just short again this week against a Newington team that played their doubles quite well. In singles, Hai Le had his best game of the season, overpowering a big hitting Newington No3, 0 and 1. Mitch Kelly and Matthew King won well. At McKay, our boys bundled out Newington for a modest 130. In reply we were 4-112 at stumps, needing one good partnership to secure first innings points. I saw some patient, grafting batting by Eddy Pham and Matthew Fetherston, until Eddy had a rush of blood after hitting a good 4 and mistimed an on drive. Gehan looked the goods until he attempted a lofted off drive against two short cover fieldsmen and was caught at mid off.

Educational Access Scheme (EAS)

Most tertiary institutions that participate in the Universities Admissions Centre (UAC) participate in the EAS. Students are eligible to apply if they are an Australian citizen, a New Zealand citizen, or a permanent resident of Australia. The student must demonstrate that his educational performance during Year 11 and/or Year 12 has been seriously affected by circumstances beyond his control.

Students applying for EAS will need to download their booklets and application forms from the website: www.uac.edu.au. The school counsellors are sent only a small number of booklets for distribution. If you require a Confidential Statement of Support completed by the school counsellor it is important that students begin the process early in the year.

The responsibility for sending the finalised application to UAC rests with the individual student.

Tri Series Final Day

End of the Sailing Season

Sydney Boys High has worked hard to compete in the Tri Series. We sailed against Cranbrook, Scots and Sceggs Redlands to name but a few. They are tremendous opponents.

The last day of racing was slow. The participants were enthusiastic but the wind was none existent. After the first race (nearly two hours long!) the course was shortened. Of course just then the wind picked up and our sailors were flying!! Race Two and Three were over in less than an hour each. The most successful Pacer sailors included Brian Lung, Roy Wong, Tom Sun and David Toh. Hot on their heels were Tadeusz Davenport and Nikita Slinko – boys to watch out for in the next season.

The Laser Division was won decisively by our very own Phil Kurts. He blitzed the opposition winning almost every race. On the final day as he rounded the last mark he was several boat lengths ahead.

Our racing season has drawn to an end and we hope that more “potentials” join us for fun on the water in Term IV. If you are interested see Mrs B in the English Staffroom or speak to our Captain of Sailing Mohamed Mehmedbasic.

GO FOR COURTS - ISSUE #6

FIRST GRADE:

Sat 18th March – Newington vs High (R6)

Newington 8 - High 4
Dbls 1: 1-6, 4-6; Dbls 2: 6-0, 6-0; Dbls 3: 6-2, 5-7, 6-4
Singles 1: 6-3, 7-6; Sgls 2: 6-3, 6-1; Sgls 3: 2-6, 3-6; Sgls 4: 3-6, 3-6; Sgls 5: 6-1, 6-0; Sgls 6: 2-6, 2-6

Last Saturday saw High involved in a competitive rubber against Newington – with us going down narrowly 5-4. It was a fantastic effort by the players, regardless of the loss.

In the doubles, Matt and Ivan held their nerves, teamed up well and played some great tennis to win a tight 3 setter. Hai and Mitch were outclassed by their opponents, while Daniel and David struggled with their teamwork and consistency.

Mitch swept passed his opponent in straight sets, playing a well controlled match. In the end, it was his power and precision that proved too much for his opponent. Matt also enjoyed victory, out hitting his opponent in all the rallies to win in comfortable style. Hai barely raised a sweat in his match – completely crushing his opponent with his deadly ground strokes, losing only a game in the entire match. Daniel also showed fantastic form, and the score was not indicative of the quality of his match. Ivan came up against a pumped up opponent, and there was a lot of great rallies, however, his consistency wasn't there on the day. David struggled to contain his nerves, and had a nightmare of a match, going down in a less than impressive match.

With just one more game left for High for some of the players, we look forward to going all out and giving it our best one last time this weekend against Shore (premiers for 2006).

SECOND GRADE: Sat 18th Mar – High vs Newington (R6)

High Lites: DBLS1 1-6, 3-6; DBLS2 0-6, 4-6; DBLS3 6-3, 4-6, 1-6

No.1 1-6, 0-6; No.2 6-2, 6-2; No.3 2-6, 2-6; No.4 6-2, 6-1; No.5 3-6, 2-6; No.6 0-6, 0-6

After suffering a complete defeat at the hands of Riverview last week, we were determined to get a few individual wins, if not beat Newington altogether.

Chapman and Nikita paired up well and played some good tennis, but were unable to match the play of their opponents. Thomas and Henry started out of rhythm and lost the first set rather quickly. However, they regained their composure and contested the second set fiercely, and it could have gone either way. After the first set, Nelson and Jordan looked ready to take our only doubles win for the day. Unfortunately, they took their feet off the accelerator and let their opponents run off with the next 2 sets.

Chapman started his first few games brilliantly, drawing game point after game point. Now he needs to learn to convert them at will. In our next singles, Thomas outplayed and outclassed his physically intimidating opponent to deliver a convincing win for the team. After suffering from his extremely long doubles game, Nelson did not play his best tennis but still managed to win some games. In Henry's singles, after dropping the first two games, he raised his tennis to a new level and ploughed through the rest of the match, dropping only 1 game in the next 13. Jordan and Nikita played fine tennis, but due to a lack of match-play, they were ineffective in their attacks.

As promised, High managed to win several matches. With this foundation in mind, we will enter the final round next week looking for a win.

16'S MATCH REPORT The 16As had a point to prove against Newington on Saturday, who appeared to be the weakest side in the competition. For whatever reason, complacency or otherwise, we found ourselves in a struggle early on, with the number 1 doubles falling. Fortunately we rallied to win the second match. In the singles, Ben was out-hit after making a late comeback; while Alex and Cary had good wins against respectable opposition. Jason played the best match without doubt, coming through 6-2 in quick time as well. We ended up prevailing by the slender margin of 4-2, but as the saying goes, 'a win is a win'. We will look to emulate this in the final round against Shore this week, and thus end the season on a strong note.

C1 Doubles of James and Matthew were a shock loss but made up for it in their singles matches. The Ds were again in awesome form, especially Jono, Tam and Alex, all posting 6-0 scorelines. Well done.

Thanks to coaches for results.

Rowing News

The season reaches its climax for junior rowers this weekend with the Gold Cup Regatta. It is best viewed from the grounds of St Ignatius. Last Wednesday the combined boatshed dinner was held where captain of year 10 rowing, Robert Chen, stroke of 4th year 8 Quad, Andrew Banh, stroke of 1st year 8 Quad, Sam Darcy, stroke of 3rd year 9 Quad, Johan Santoso, stroke of 1st year 9 Quad, Matt Ling and the Captain of Boats, Blake Angell introduced the crews to the dinner and gave a brief report on the season.

The following is from Blake Angell Captain of Boats:

The Sydney High Regatta has been and gone, with races being held for all crews from 6th Year 8 Quad, all the way up to the 2nd VIII's, with the 1st VIII's not racing owing to a shortage of crews due to the Nationals regatta held at the same time. Congratulations to the 1st (Blomberg, Ambrose, Darcy, Denny-Smith c:Schilling) and 2nd (Whiting, Phillis, Nguyen, Chen c:Radhakrishnan) Year 8 Quads who both managed to secure second place in their respective heats. The day was a great success and thanks to all volunteers who helped out on the day.

The Sydney Grammar Regatta also took place on the 18th of March with impressive improvements from the senior crews. It was the last regatta of the season held in Hen and Chicken Bay before the Gold Cup at Lane Cove and Head of the River on the 1st of April for the senior crews. The senior crews have undergone another shift in the lead up to this big event. Congratulations to Tommy Hurrell who managed to secure a seat in the 1st VIII for these upcoming weeks.

The annual boatshed dinner is also fast approaching. The event, to be held on the 22nd of March, will, for the first time, comprise of all crews, junior and senior, in one fun and excitement filled night.

All crews now look towards the Gold Cup regatta this Saturday. This marks the end of the season for junior crews and the final regatta before the Head of the River for the senior crews.

I strongly encourage all members of the High family to attend the Head of the River on the 1st of April (buses available, see the office). It is arguably the biggest event on the GPS sporting calendar and the boys appreciate your support incredibly.

As all summer sports draw to a close may I recommend that all captains hand their season reports to the MICs of their sports. Below is a season report from Brynley Pfull which is just one example of a suitable report. See your MICs for proformas.

2006 Season Rowing Report Year 10 VIIIs

Rowing. I really enjoyed it until the 2005/2006 season started. Everything was now slightly more intense, the training, the coaches and the commitment. Ah yes, the end of innocence and the beginning of the famous shed sleepover. It feels as if it were only five months ago.

Initially it was great fun No races for ages and sleepovers once a fortnight. Term four passed fairly quickly rowing-wise. Our rowing was enjoyable and we were steadily improving. A visit from Melbourne High was fun, and assured us we could win.

Heaven forbid, I was almost looking forward to 2006 rowing by the end of 2005. How wrong I was. After an intense week, of rowing, during the holidays, we were all prepared to return and attack the New Year with force.

As school started we found out that shed sleepovers would for us occur every week. I could hardly contain my glee at this wonderful prospect. And so every week on a particular day, we rowed and ate a surprise dinner. This dinner always consisted of steak or chicken, potatoes, pasta and vegetables. Then after completing one's duties one could happily settle down to some homework. At around ten, it was bedtime. Looked forward to by everyone in the sleepover, it is a reason to be happy and tired the next day.

When you wake up with a headache at five o'clock the next morning and realise that you have only had five hours sleep at the most, there is a feeling that you get that tumbles around in your head and brings tears to your eyes. This is sickness mixed with tiredness, but the beautiful quiet early mornings when we hear only the drips of water from the blades as we are feathering and the sound of the blades pushing against the water that tells us we are pulling hard, brings the charm of rowing to all the crew. This in a two hour row, breakfast and school.

The whole season was not always based around these joyful ventures. Do not be fooled, we raced too when we had a chance. Every Saturday we turned up two or three hours prior our race to contemplate life, or rowing.

Each Saturday was exhausting, painful. Then I got up. But the races too proved to be exhausting and exhilarating. The distance of 1650 metres seems rather long when you're racing. But what a thrill! People shouting, coxswain shouting, even the coaches shouting.

The trip to Melbourne came and went (see earlier fun report). As the season progressed, two regattas were held at the Sydney International Rowing Centre at Penrith. This meant early morning starts, arriving the sheds at 6 a.m. Although we lost races our times improved and enabled us to hold our heads high.

Our crews have changed over the season, trying new blends, seat changes and rowers coming and going. Our coaches have tried to muster motivation to get the right combination. It is also the crews who have provided their own motivation striving with their ergs and times at the gym to show we can still be competitive, although the results give us a healthy reminder of the strength of the opposition we are never intimidated or overawed.

There was success over the season; we beat Scots in a tight race by around three seconds or so. Who said we always come last?

And so I come upon the present, where we are reaching the zenith of our rowing season. Last week we almost beat Riverview, so watch out Head of the River. We are looking forward to the Gold Cup Regatta and the Head of the River.

Year 10 coaches, Mr. Barris and George Barris have been invaluable to us all season. Spurring us on when we were tired and smiling when we weren't and sometimes when we were. We are indebted to both of them. Thank you both for a great season. Mr Daish who repairs our boats and keeps them in good order, thank you.

Another group of people who must be thanked are the parents who go out of their way to come and cook us dinners and look after us. Without their help, shed sleepovers would have been terribly difficult. Thanks to all our parents who drive us to those early starts.

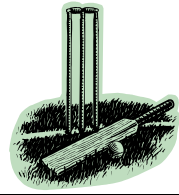

A special thank you to everyone in the rowing program. It really is a great community and almost always runs smoothly.

SYDNEY BOYS HIGH CRICKET

This week's notes comes from the southern suburb of Sydney (called Melbourne) where there is a "Gold Rush" going on. Not only that, I have witnessed athletes attaining the ultimate in their sport through personal goals, hours of training, dedication, self belief, mental discipline, but displays of old fashioned guts and determination as well. In a number of interviews, the athlete's backgrounds have been discussed and many of them have sound academic qualifications which show that the combination of sport and study can compliment each other. In witnessing these athletes it made me wonder how many of our young cricketers have set their goals on attaining the highest in their chosen sport in addition to academic success. We now have one Saturday to go to complete the 2005 /2006 GPS Competitions, following an encouraging showing of several teams who went for "gold" last Saturday on Day 1 of Round 7, with the 15Bs taking our first "medal". The 1st, 2nd, 3rd XIs and 15As are now in "medal winning" positions if they maintain their form and focus.

It is important to our cricketers to receive recognition for their efforts throughout the season and no better way than to finish the season on a positive note to confirm that their personal efforts were worthwhile.

ANNUAL DINNER and PRESENTATION of AWARDS

You now have less than 2 weeks to secure your tickets for the Cricket Dinner and Presentation to be held on Saturday 8th APRIL 2006 in the Great Hall commencing at 6-30pm for 7-00pm. A great night is assured as we present the batting, bowling and team awards during the course of Dinner. You will then experience the Senior XIs presentation as they reflect on the season and on team members in an off-beat manner in addition to door and raffle prizes and a trivia quiz that will test the teams. The cost is $30-00 for adults and $25-00 for students. A reminder to the boys that SCHOOL UNIFORM is the dress of the evening.

CRICKET SUB-COMMITTEE MEETING- Wednesday 29th.MARCH 2006 at 5-30pm

Please note the earlier starting time and change of location to the Common Room in the main building. This will be our second last meeting for the season, the final one being to settle all accounts and confirmation of the 2006 /07 Training Plan. At this meeting we will finalize the Cricket Dinner and also the need to appoint (1) a Parking Coordinator; and (2) Hon Treasurer, as Kieran Lewis is stepping down due to personal commitments

It would be pleasing to see some new parents attend who assist our up and coming junior teams and take on some of the support roles we need for our teams

CRICKET KIT RETURNS – ALL TEAMS

During the "off-season" all kits are checked and replenished where necessary in preparation for next season
Next WEDNESDAY from 3-0pm through to the Cricket Sub-Committee Meeting I will be in attendance at the gymnasium to receive all outstanding cricket kits. Please ensure that all used match balls plus practice balls are included in the kits. I will also accept kits at the Cricket Meeting.

AROUND THE GROUNDS

1stXI DAY 1 - High 4/112 -versus- Newington 10/130

An interesting finish to Day 1 and a real opportunity to put Newington away on Day 2 with a pressure bowling performance supported by a top fielding effort. No match report submitted.

2ndXI DAY 1 - High 10/135 -versus- Newington 4/36

Not to be overshadowed on Day 1 High have put itself in a position to finish the season on a positive note. It will take adherence to the match plan to keep the pressure on Newington by taking wickets early and positive fielding support. No match report submitted.

3rdXI DAY 1 - High 5 /86 -versus- Newington 10 /206

A day of dropped catches allowed Newington to get off the hook and reach a challenging total. It will take another determined effort to deny them a win. A match report appears on the website.

Wicket takers Arty Surendran 4 /64 , Girish Panicker 2 /20 and Michael Coutts 2 /17

15A DAY 1 - High 10 /209 - versus- Newington 2 / 15

A proud day for the 15As who passed 200 for the first time this season on the back of an all round batting performance and a last wicket stand of 28 between Timmy Lim (7n.o.) and Roshan Kashyap(34). The run scoring spree was led by Kerrod McPherson (55), Alisdair Brown (30), William Lim(17), Arthur Kourtesis (13), Harrison Lane(12), Nakul Pedneker (12)

In a fiery burst of 6 overs before stumps Kerrod Mcpherson snapped up 2 Newington wickets. A detailed match report appears on the cricket website.

15B HIGH 6 /146 - DEFEATED - Newington 9 /145

How good a day it was for the team with their resounding victory over the well fancied Newington. Some marvelous batting, supported by the bowlers and a sound fielding effort gave the boys everything they deserved for their perseverance and grit. This team has certainly turned the corner since its draw performance against the 16Bs 2 weeks ago.

Run scorers Nakul Pedneker (47), Raghav Saggar (25), Maxim Mikha (23), Arun Krishnan (12n.o.) and Julian Byrnes (8n.o.) Wicket takers – Tasneem Chowdhury 3 /4 (2 overs), Raghav Saggar 3 /16 (5 overs), Arun Krishnan 2 /22(5 overs) and Anthony Hopkins 1 /22 (4 overs)

A full match report appears on the cricket website.

14B Newington 5 /148 - defeated - High 10 / 76

Run scorers David Ma (45), Hugh Huang (10) and Oliver Fio (5n.o) Wicket takers were William Lee, Rafat Kamal and Hugh Huang who took one wicket each. A match report appears on the website.

13A Newington 0 /76 - defeated - High 9 /74

This team has been showing the signs that it can be a competitive unit with two or three changes to balance out the overall strength. Unfortunately, our bowling let us down again with too many loose balls being bowled which gave Newington many bonus runs as a result. This has been a good debut by this group in Term 1.

13B Newington 5 /130 - defeated High 10 /38

Wicket takers. Isaac Everleigh 2 /19(3 overs),Leo Lu 2 /24 (5 overs) and Samir Kinger 1 /15(5 overs).

Run scorers were Nathan Kok (13), Nathan Leong (8), Isaac Everleigh (1) and Andrew Huynh (1).

A match report appears on the website.

Fourth Grade Match Report

With a long anticipated wait for this game and the need to defeat Newington, 4th grade warmed up with great anxiety. Having lost to Newington last season by 5 points with only 5 players, one being sick, we were confident that this game was ours, considering our improved defence. We started the game with confidence but failed to put the ball in the hoop. It seemed that the ball was just too big to fit in the hoop. We closed the first half down 12-7. However, our heads were held up high, and we entered the second half determined to win. Things started out the way we wanted. The ball went in and with 2 minutes left it was tied at 18-18. A small audience to begin with turned out to be quite a crowd, cheering on high school. A crucial intercept by Si-yang Wang and a quick transition basket gave us the lead with 30 seconds to go. However, after a time-out, Newington had possession of the ball with less than 30 seconds. Having scored not a single 3 pointer the whole game, a solid Newington guard pulled up in surprise on the 3-point line, a hand in his face but to our misery, a swish. All seemed to be over. However, the spirit of 4th grade remained and we were determined to have one last shot with around 20 seconds. Jamie Tao ran the court but a Newington player was under pressure and was forced to trip Jamie. Jamie was sent to the free throw line as Newington hit 8 fouls. Down by 1, Jamie had 2 shots. To our disappointment, both were missed. Newington hesitantly grabbed the rebound and was intentionally fouled by Si-yang. However, the player lost his patience and kicked Si-yang. This triggered a huge argument! A few high students came onto the court. However, thanks to Mr. Hayman and other referees who seemed to come out of nowhere, the controversy was broken up. The referee was stumped. After a long pause, he ejected the Newington player and gave a tech foul-2 shots. Bill was chosen to shoot the 2 free throws. Under immense pressure, both were missed. But there was still hope. 4 seconds left. We had the inbound pass. A timeout was called, a play was drawn up and all we need was 1 point to draw or 2 points to win. However, the play was not executed and the ball ended up in the hands of Bill... again. After drawing a definite foul on the 3 point line, Bill chuckled the ball up in hope that the foul was called. No foul and the ball hit nothing but the ground. A good game it was. We could blame it on the ref's poor call at the end, a definite foul, but overall 4th grade showed good sportsmanship and played hard to the end. Well-done 4ths ON A MASSIVE IMPROVEMENT FROM PREVIOUS WEEKS.

Microsoft Student Select

Your child can have the latest Microsoft software for home at school prices.

Student Select¹ is a Microsoft initiative, which allows Australian students to buy Microsoft software at school prices for their own use at home.

It gives students an affordable and legitimate way to have the latest versions of Microsoft software and benefit from the advanced features when completing homework, revision and assignments.

A commitment, not an offer

Student Select is not a one-time special offer. It's an ongoing commitment from Microsoft and the NSW Department of Education aimed at helping young people with their academic studies. If you would like to take advantage of this program for your child, here's what you do:

Step 1. Make note of the unique School Code on this notice.

Step 2. Make sure you have your credit card handy, then go to www.microsoft.com.au/studentselect and order the software you require online.

What to expect

When you receive your software in the mail, there will be no box, just a CD and installation instructions. However, it is genuine Microsoft software.
