High Talent

The Sydney Boys Golf team of Jason Hong, Sam Musgrove, Geoff Tesoriero and Michael Kay successfully defended their title by winning the Sir Roden Cutler Foundation Cup, held on Thursday 28 May at Concord Golf Club. The SBHS golf team shot a round of 13 under par in the ambrose event for a net score of 58.85. The day was aimed at raising enough funds (c$27k) to convert one of the Foundation cars to have wheel chair accessibility. SBHS students Bosco Tran (current Sir Roden and Lady Joan Cutler Scholarship holder), Harjas Ahuja, Brandon Nguyen and Edmund Pan did a great job selling raffle tickets (>$4k) and helping with the organisation on the day. Congratulations to all concerned! Last Friday our Eastside Year 12 debating team won the final for the 7th consecutive year. Well done to Max Koslowski, Ganeshmoorthy Chandrasekaran and Thomas Shortridge for keeping our winning streak going! Our UN Debating team (Andrew McNaughton, Esmond Ye and Vishal Karnamadakala) won through to the Rotary Club Competition finals. Well done, boys and good luck!

Important school events

Coming up at High in the next few weeks: parent-teacher interviews for Years 9 and 12, 15/6/15 3pm-7pm; Joint P & C meeting at SGHS Campbell Hall – Prof. David Weisbrot will be speaking on ‘coping with media and social media’

7:30-9pm; parent- teacher interviews for Years 7 and 11 on 18/6/15, 3-7pm; ‘Guys and Dolls’ joint production with SGHS at SGHS MPC, 18-20/6 @ 7:30pm; and parent-teacher interviews for Years 8 and 10, 3-7pm. Please make a diary note to arrange interview times online or purchase tickets for these school-community events.

High Spirit

Jesse Nixon (Year 12) is commended for his devotion and compassion in providing emotional and personal support to a close friend who has been diagnosed with cancer in her final year of school. She faces months of chemotherapy. At her request I formally recognise Jesse’s support. She writes:

“I know that Jesse is a very active member of your school in academic and co-curricular activities. Despite his busy schedule he has been available whenever I have needed him. Jesse has provided emotional support, prepared food for me and my family and spends time with me when I have felt down. He is also the best friend I could ever wish for!”

Student Leave Requests

I have been enforcing DEC policy on not granting student leave requests during school term. A number of people have requested leave within the four weeks deadline. Also, parents are asking for leave just before or just after school holiday periods. DEC is strongly discouraging the practice of taking students out of school during term time without a pressing reason – eg urgent family crisis or late sporting selection.

Reports

Years 7, 9, 10, 11 and 12 reports have been distributed. Parents should have had an opportunity to discuss with their sons the information in the reports about what they know, understand and can do. There are still some stragglers left in Years 9-11. I hope to have all reports to boys before the parent-teacher interviews but to do so, students need to make appointments in the times provided.

From the Canteen

Did you know that Sydney Boys High School has one of the few remaining school canteens which is not privately owned and therefore all profits are returned to the school to be spent on worthwhile projects which benefit our sons. Our wonderful Managers Karen and Tracey, along with our parent helpers, work very hard to prepare mostly homemade foods, which allow us to keep our prices reasonable and profits to remain in the school. We have recently made the first instalment of our annual donation to the P&C of $35,000.00. Thank you for your continued support.

SRC Report T2W6

THE SRC

This week has been a rather uneventful week for the SRC, but the activity will pick up as we come closer and closer to our joint Talent Quest with SGHS. On that note, it has been postponed, as we have exams for year 12s coming up, and the hall will be booked for Guys and Dolls. The date will be decided upon soon, and you can expect to be notified in the near future. If you're still unsure, come speak to one of us, and we'll be sure to inform you. On another note, the SRC notice board will officially be allocated to us by Ms Powell, and any events run by the SRC and any other SRC related information will be posted on there, for everyone's convenience. We are also planning some joint events with SGHS SRC, for things such as R U OK Day, and White Ribbon Day. On a final note, the SRC will be filling in for the prefects while they are taking exams. We're inexperienced, so please be gentle.

National Reconciliation Week 2015,
*it's time to change it up!

SBHS marked reconciliation week with a Sorry Day Assembly on Wednesday 27th May, 2015. This has been a regular event in our calendar for several years now. Dr Jaggar gave a speech highlighting inequities in our criminal justice system towards Indigenous people and urged the boys to focus on their own opinions to change it up for the better of our whole nation. Following this Marcus Borscz, Derek Nguyen, Vinushan Kuganathan and Vasco Santos-Dwyer read poems and speeches they had written. These were moving and demonstrated a genuine apology to the Indigenous people. The assembly gave way to a broader discussion on racism and highlighted some of the ways in which our school community can change it up! Reprinted here is Vasco's poem:

We're Sorry

I don't know what we were thinking,
When we first saw the Aboriginals,
On the Charlotte and Scarborough of the first fleet,
There must have been some pretty ignorant individuals.

We don't know what they were thinking,
When they first saw white men,
But the mistake that we made,
We will never make again.

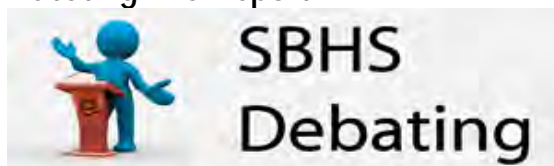

What we are trying to say,
Is that we apologise.
For what we did to you,
Caused cultural compromise.

I don't know why we did it,
It was a poor decision,
For you and your families,
To suffer such division.

What we did was unacceptable,
And for that we'll pay the price,
Of having to live with the guilt,
Of knowing it wasn't nice.

It would've been awful,
To have been taken away,
Once again we're sorry,
For sins of past days.

Debating MIC Report

Congratulations to the 2015 First debating Team who won the Eastside Final last week. We are thus able to keep the trophy for the seventh year running.

Rachel Powell
MIC Debating

Debating Prefect

It has been an exciting week for Year 12 and Year 11 debaters. We won the finals of Eastside last Friday; we were affirmative to the topic That the US should send massive ground troops to combat the IS. We also won the regional semi-finals for the Hume Barbour trophy competition and will be debating the regional finals at the State Parliament House this Friday. I encourage anyone interested to come along and support us. We are debating against Sydney Girls who are a talented team and the debate promises to be very interesting and entertaining.

This is also the last opportunity to sign up for the social debates against SGHS. The debates will occur next Friday during coaching sessions, and if you are not debating you will watch the debates. You will receive 3 topics the day before, and one topic will be chosen on Friday. Prep will only be 20 mins. If you are doing the social debates, I encourage you to enjoy yourself and have fun. It's a great opportunity to experiment with humour and other debating styles in an entertaining environment. We now have a brief lull before the GPS season begins in earnest, and now is the time to enjoy your Friday nights. But in all honesty debating in the GPS is fun and challenging, often boasting some of the best teams in the state. We have had quite a lot of success in the GPS season over the past few years and I hope to hear of more success this year. GPS will also probably be the last chance you get in the rest of the year to debate (in my case the last chance to debate in high school), so make sure you enjoy the experience and have fun. Hope everyone has a great weekend.

Congratulations

Congratulations to our Years 11 and 12 debaters who have won their regional semi-final debate against Sydney Technical High School. They now move on to debate in the regional final this Friday 5th June.

Our debaters are Ganeshmoorthy Chandrasekaran, Max Koslowski, Thomas Shortridge and Masrur-ul Joarder.

Water Music? No, Wagnermusik!

Last Saturday evening (May 30) I went to the Verbruggen Hall at the Conservatorium of Music. One of my former students was going to play with the SYO (Sydney Youth Orchestra) so I fought my way from Wynyard through the pram-pushing crowds of Vivid! Sagar (HSC 2014) met me at the entrance and he looked very elegant and grown up. Another member of the orchestra joined us when she heard us speaking German – she had learned German through the Open High School – and her teacher was the mother of one of my current students.

The triangle clanged, the members of the audience went into the auditorium, the large orchestra was on stage tuning instruments and there was a general hum of anticipation. Minutes ticked away – no Concert Master, no Conductor. After some more time had passed someone came out with a microphone in his hand and informed us that one of the sprinklers in the instruments room had come on, was damaging the pianos and sheet music and had to be dealt with. Half the orchestra jumped up to rescue what could be rescued. The audience speculated on how this might have happened. Then the evacuation siren came on – Whoop! Whoop! – but nobody took it seriously and a few of the musician tried to accompany the single note! The next message was that the fires had to check the building to ensure that the water had not caused any electrical damage and they appeared to great applause from the spectators.

An hour after the advertised starting time everyone was back on the stage and the concert commenced. The first piece by Lee Bracegirdle Concerto for Violin and Orchestra was especially written for the SYO and it was an accomplished performance. The second piece "Der Ring ohne Worte" (a chocolate bar for the junior student who can translate this!) had all the drama one expects of Richard Wagner and the youthful enthusiasm of the musicians was palpable – they were brilliant. Sustained applause rewarded them at the end and hadn't it been for the delayed start, we might have gotten an encore! (And no – no Händel was on the program!)

2015 National Chinese Eisteddfod

After three months' preparation and hard training, our boys once again put on their best performance at the annual National Chinese Eisteddfod. Our students were highly praised by the judges and the audience.

The 2015 Chinese Eisteddfod attracted nearly 3000 candidates. This annual event was a poetry and prose-recital competition that provided students with the opportunity to use their acquired Chinese language skills to interpret and perform some of the well-known classic and modern poems and proeses.

Congratulations to the 13 boys from Years 9 and 10, James Fang, Jack Jiang, Oscar Wu, Royce Xiao, Michael Pak, Chris Chang, Daniel Hu, James Jiang, Flidon Wang, David Wu, Jeffrey Yang, Ruiling Zhang and Samuel Zheng, who won 2nd prize in the 13-15 year old group competition. Well done boys!

In the individuals, Daniel Hu came 1st in 13-15 year old.

Congratulations to all boys who took part in this event for your dedication and achievement. I hope the experience that you gain through these eisteddfods will benefit you in future learning and performance.

Huge thanks to parents who gave immense encouragement and support to our boys. It was great to see families being so involved. I am so proud of our boys, not only because of their language abilities, intelligence, effort and awards, but also the honour they have brought to Sydney Boys High.

Willa Zhang (Chinese Teacher)

Chinese Eisteddfod: My Experience

On May the 30th, the dreaded yet anticipated day finally dawned upon me. It was the Annual National Chinese Eisteddfod Competition, a Chinese poetry recital. For the past few weeks I had been going to rehearsals on a routine basis to prepare myself for this highly prestigious event. I couldn't wait for my performance and I was also curious to see how the other Chinese background speakers would perform. Hopefully I can learn from the others how to improve my Chinese ability. To be frank, I wasn't confident at all about my poem: '父母心' but after much reassurance from my parents, I finally decided to give it my best shot, and regardless of the result, I will still go away having learnt priceless lessons from the judges' advice.

Honestly, I felt really disadvantaged going into the competition. This is because I am of Shanghainese background, thus my Mandarin is not fluent compared to native Beijing speakers. This proved to be a difficult obstacle to get around as I would often mispronounce a word, and then feel the shame burning on my face. It wasn't a pleasant feeling seeing everyone chuckling at my pronunciation. However being enriched with the philosophy of Confucius, "Our greatest glory is not in never falling but in rising every time we fall", I didn't give up and mentally made a note to myself- I may not be gifted with talent or brains, but that doesn't mean I can't strive for success.

In preparation, I tried to understand and relate to the poem I was reciting. My poem, in brief, talks about the greatness of our parents and their undying love for us. I felt I could really relate to this poem. For the past few years I had been watching Chinese TV programs and one of them was called 'China Dream Show'. One of the contestants on this variety show was a 60 year old father who carries his disabled son to high school every day. His son weighs more than 100 kg and the walk to school takes at least two hours. They live in a rural village in China, in which they have to cross valleys and mountains battling icy weather to get to a run-down school with only two classrooms.

It is this unselfishness and determination of this father to make sure his son gets the best education he can that really had an extensive impact on me. Even though I haven't personally experienced these shocking events, I started to dwell upon the love my own parents give me, realising how ungrateful I was. I intertwined all these feelings together when I read my poem in front of the judges. Happiness, guilt and regret inundated me, and I tried to give my very own interpretation of the poem to the judges. It paid off, and indeed I achieved first place in my individual competition.

Overall, I am truly thankful and honoured to be part of this competition. It not only taught me basic moral values, yet it also brought me together with some special friends. It was a great social event, where I met many new faces and together we linked our hands with our love for this rich language passed on by the ancestors. The eisteddfod not only gave me the opportunity to improve my public speaking ability, but it also gave me deep insight into the beauty of Chinese history. China's history spans over thousands and thousands of years, in which one integral part of its illustrious heritage was the poetry written by the famous poets (i.e. Li Bai). Last but not least a special mention must go to Ms Zhang and my fellow group members as without their guidance and support, I would not have achieved the results I did. Thank you! On a final note, I hope everyone can think about participating in this competition. I'll leave you with this quote:

"Genius is 1% inspiration and 99% perspiration."

Booking interviews with your son's teachers

This year we will again use a web based electronic scheduling system for arranging interviews. This produces better results for all participants, especially more compact time schedules for both parents and teachers. The system works as follows –

- On Tuesday 9 June all parents of boys in Years 9 and 12 will be sent by email details of the scheduling system and a unique code to be entered at www.edval.com.au/book.
- On Thursday 11 June all parents of boys in Year 7 and 11 will be sent by email details of the scheduling system and a unique code to be entered at www.edval.com.au/book.
- On Tuesday 16 June all parents of boys in Years 8 and 10 will be sent by email details of the scheduling system and a unique code to be entered at www.edval.com.au/book.
- This email will be sent to the address currently held by the school. If you have not received this email by the following day (10, 12 or 17 June) or, if your email address has changed from what had been previously advised to the school, you should notify the school at ptnight@sbhs.nsw.edu.au advising of this. Please indicate your son's name and roll class or date of birth so that the information can be forwarded to you.
- On the Edval website you will see your son's teachers listed and you will be able to select those with whom you require an interview. (If you hover over a teacher's name, the subject involved will be shown.) At the same time you can indicate your availability between 3:00 pm and 7:00 pm.
- Once the majority of parents have requested interviews, the overall schedule will be generated by the school and your individual schedule should be available for you to download and print from two days before the interviews.
- Periods will be shortened on the days of the interviews. Boys from all Years will be dismissed from class at 2:40pm each day. School Special buses will run to normal schedules and there will be supervision available in the Junior Quad of boys waiting for these buses.
- Interviews should not exceed five minutes' duration. If there is insufficient time, a further appointment may be made for a later date, or contact by telephone arranged.

Years 9 and 10: Invitation - Southern India and Sri Lanka trip - World Challenge information night

Dear Parents,

World Challenge presents the Sydney Boys High School educational expedition to Southern India and Sri Lanka in 2016

Sydney Boys High School is delighted to announce that we are launching a very exciting program offering students an experiential learning opportunity travelling through Southern India and Sri Lanka in December 2016. Students will gain invaluable skills that they will use in their senior schooling, university and work lives. Thanks to the innovative nature of the trip they will also be sure to develop confidence, resilience and leadership skills over the course of the program.

This program will be managed by World Challenge, a pioneering educational organisation with 28 years of experience in delivering personal development expeditions for students. The expedition to Southern India and Sri Lanka will be preceded by a training and preparation program during which students play a major role in planning their itinerary, which will include project work in a local community and a challenging trek. Students are also supported in setting and achieving individual and team fundraising goals to help cover the cost of the expedition program. On average, students raise over half of the total program cost.

You can find more specific information about the trip below. However, if you are interested I would like to invite you and your son to a presentation delivered by a member of the World Challenge team who will discuss the benefits of the program, the fundraising support and safety they provide as well as give you some more details on this potentially life-changing experience for your son.

Date: 17 June 2015
Time: 6:30pm – 7:15pm
Venue: Great Hall SBHS

To learn more about World Challenge please visit www.worldchallenge.com.au.

Please RSVP via email to JonesN@sbhs.nsw.edu.au by 5pm Friday 11 June including details of the name of the student and how many guests will be attending.

Yours sincerely,

Nick Jones

Expedition to Southern India and Sri Lanka

This World Challenge program will be an exciting opportunity for a team of students to research, fund and lead their own 28 day expedition to the fascinating countries of India and Sri Lanka.

The expedition will be preceded by 19 months of training and preparation. During this time, team members will learn a great deal about their destinations and research the itinerary options with the support of their Program Facilitator and Customer Support Adviser from World Challenge.

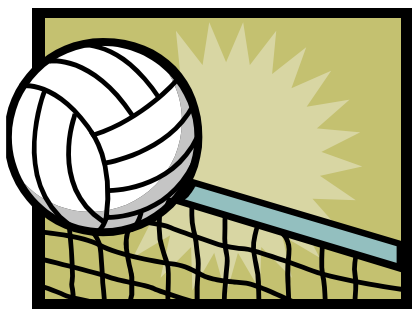

This team involvement will continue during the expedition itself when they will take on responsibility for leading the team, managing the budget, liaising with local guides and successfully achieving their objectives with the guidance of a World Challenge Leader. The whole program will teach and develop essential transferable life skills including financial management, leadership, teamwork, communication, organisation and decision making.

The expedition in India takes place in the states of Kerala and Tamil Nadu. The environment is hugely diverse: the Western Ghats are mountains up to 2890m, covered in tea and spice plantations, forests and limestone and granite cliffs. On the coast, Kerala is much hotter with coconut and banana palms everywhere, peaceful backwaters and incredible birdlife. The main trekking area is through the Cardamom Hills in the area around Munnar. There is amazing biodiversity in this area and the team can trek through tea plantations and wonderful green scenery down to a beautiful lake on the valley floor. The students can experience a fantastic adventure and immerse themselves in the diverse culture of vibrant Southern India.

While in Sri Lanka the community engagement phase is the main focus of the expedition. Teams will work with local villages and schools and help them with a wide variety of project work which may include tasks such as helping to renovate community buildings. The students will live and work alongside locals during their project and get to learn about the areas they are visiting.

You are spoilt for choice when it comes to the 'Rest and Relaxation' phase of the expedition. There's the option to visit a local elephant sanctuary, relax on one of the beautiful beaches on the south coast, climb the 5500 stairs of Adam's Peak in time for the sunrise or even go on a jeep safari in a national park! For those seeking out a bit of an adrenaline kick the white water rafting available in Sri Lanka will provide the taste of adventure they're searching for.

Team of the Week 15A XV

This week in 15 As rugby was a breakthrough. Leading up to High v Scots was intense, and we focused on fundamentals like tackling and defensive line-speed. This was the focal point of our game, leading us to scoring two run away tries from turnovers and counterattacks. At half time we were getting tired, but pulled through to achieve a 32 – 7 win. Special mention to Sam Merrick and Sidney Pham who both had an extremely good game, making great tackles and runs. The Scots game has given our team enough to work on in preparation for the big, upcoming match against Armidale.

media in today’s legal environment”

Wednesday

17th June 2015

7:30 pm – 9:00 pm
SGHS Campbell Hall

All parents & carers are welcome to hear & meet our distinguished speaker.

Supper provided

We are all conscious of the increasing impact that the various forms of media are having on our children’s education and leisure time. But are there consequences? Come and hear and meet the person who can answer your questions on this important topic.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Professor David Weisbrot is the recently appointed Chair of the Australian Press Council. He is also Emeritus Professor of Law and Honorary Professor of Medicine at the University of Sydney. He is a Fellow of the Australian Academy of Law. Prof Weisbrot was President of the Australian Law Reform Commission (ALRC) from 1999-2009 and so is the longest serving President in the ALRC’s history. He has written or edited ten books, including So You Want to be a Lawyer? as well as over 200 official reports, journal articles and conference papers. His daughter Ella Weisbrot was Vice Captain at SGHS in 2008.
