Editorial Note

The long delay in production of the 1993 edition of The Record is greatly regretted by all concerned. The fact that it now appears, if somewhat late, is due to the commitment of all members of the School Council, and the energetic support of the Principal, for the continued accurate documentation of the activities of the boys, staff, parents, and supporters of the School.

It is regretted that some of the copy which would have been expected to appear has been lost, or was never submitted, but in the end it was thought better to publish what was in hand, and hope that the gaps may be filled in later editions. On this theme it will be noted that photographs of the summer sporting season of 1992, which were omitted from the last edition of The Record, appear here, along with a Representatives photograph and the report of the 108th Prize Giving, which were omitted from the 1991 edition.

I am greatly indebted to the Editorial Committee, and to Mr M.Selway, for their invaluable contributions.

A.M.Gainford, Editor.

SPEECH NIGHT and 110th ANNUAL PRIZE-GIVING

Tuesday, 1st March, 1994

Occasional Address by Mr John Wickham, BA DipEd (WA), BEd (NE)
Headmaster, The Kings School

Principal's Address

It is with great pleasure that I add my personal welcome to our Guest of Honour Mr Jon Wickham, Headmaster of The King's School and to Mrs Wickham. Mr Wickham is an educational leader who has a clear personal vision of what his school should be trying to do and a strong personal determination to make it happen. Whatever judgment history comes to make on the Wickham era at King's, I am certain that it will be most favourable and will acknowledge that his philosophy of education was the correct one for the times. Whatever else his school is respected for – and there are many reasons to respect The King's School – one has to acknowledge its commitment to the arts under Jon Wickham. I have little doubt that King's is the leading school in theatre arts in this state and quite probably in this country, thanks to Jon's foresight. I suggest to all of you that you consider attending a performance in The King's Theatre. You will be stunned at the quality of the productions. Education at King's is being redefined. What happens in The King's Theatre is part of that redefinition. What happens in The King's Theatre is education in the fullest and richest sense of the word.

Having mentioned theatre, I should add that King's are not bad at a few other things, either, such as rowing and rifle shooting and academic endeavour. King's win in the 1993 Head of the River was equal to the finest sporting achievement that I have witnessed in a lifetime of watching sport.

I welcome also Mr Donald Goodsir, Director of Schools for Woollahra, and Mrs Goodsir. As always, Mr Goodsir, you are most welcome at the school. You have an awareness of the unique character of this school and a good understanding of the way the school community functions. Your continuing support of the school's endeavours is much appreciated.

I welcome the heads of the organisations of the School Family of Sydney High School: Mr Phillip Lambert, Chairman of the School Council and Mrs Lambert; Mr Phillip Whyte, President of the P&C and Mrs Whyte; Mr Robert Mitchell, Chairman of the Sydney High School Foundation, and Mrs Mitchell; and Mr Ken Baret, President of The High Club and Mrs Baret. I have to hand an apology from Major-General Jim Norrie, President of the Old Boys' Union and Mrs Norrie. General Norrie has had a long-standing engagement to celebrate the birthday of the Australian Army. He sends his best wishes.

A special welcome to two past Headmasters of the school, Mr Ken Andrews and Mr Bob Outterside. Your attendance tonight, gentlemen, is most appreciated.

I can report a very successful year for Sydney High School in 1993. The Class of 93 achieved well academically and twenty-eight of them gained a position within the top thousand in the state. The great majority came within the top 30% of the state.

- Ron Granot was 1st in 3 Unit French and achieved a score of 100 in his HSC.
- Fabian Huppauw was 1st in 3 Unit German
- Brian David was 1st in 3 Unit Hebrew
- John Yang was 1st in 2 Unit Classical Greek
- Timothy Smythe was 2nd in 3 Unit Classical Greek
- Corin Bone was 2nd in 2 Unit Course 1 Music
- Ron Granot was 3rd in 4 Unit Mathematics and 8th in the Australian Mathematics Competition, Senior Division
- David Poynting and Adrian See were equal 3rd in 2 Unit Industrial Technology
- Joshua Kaye was 3rd in 3 Unit Classical Greek
- Timothy Smythe was 4th in 3 Unit Latin
- Ron Granot was equal 4th in 2 Unit Chemistry
- David Wong was 6th in 3 Unit Business Studies
- Lenny Roth was 6th in 2 Unit Economics

Our Year 10 debating team of Jeremy Heimans, Cameron McKnight, Emil Stern and James Slezak won the state championship.

Cameron McKnight won an essay writing competition run by the Australian Historical Society.

Christopher Rodley, then of Year 10, was adjudged the ICI Young Playwright of the Year and his play was given a dramatised reading by the company at The Wharf Theatre. The play is shortly to be produced by the Australian Youth Theatre. In the same competition Andrew Ivanov and Emil Stern also achieved placings.

In Music, Matthew Cate represented NSW as a member of the Talent Development Project, a group of outstanding young performers who receive intensive tutoring from top names in show business. Gregory Flynn was successful in his application to attend the National Music Camp. Jonathan Corea, even now only in Year 10, worked as Assistant Musical Director in a professional production of Amadeus.

In Visual Arts seven boys had their works held back for possible inclusion in Artexpress and three boys – David Chapman, Bearin Houghton and Scott Arbib – were successful in having their works included in this prestigious exhibition of the best HSC art works.

Three students – David Chapman, Adrian See and David Poynting – had their major works held back for possible inclusion in the prestigious Intech exhibition of Industrial Technology major works.

The First Grade Soccer team won the GPS Premiership and the Independent Schools Cup and reached the semi-finals of the Commonwealth Bank Cup. Eight boys were selected in the Combined Independent Schools side and eight in the Combined GPS side.

The First Grade Cricket team won the Five Highs Carnival in Adelaide and competed successfully against Melbourne High for the Cec Rubie Trophy.

In water polo, Ryan Moar achieved CHS selection and Australian Under 20 selection.

In basketball, our First Grade won both the Raschke Cup and the Knox Invitation Tournament. They are undefeated in the 1994 competition.

Our 1st VIII won the School 1st VIII at the Riverview Gold Cup regatta.

In rugby, we had nine GPS representatives. Seven were selected to play for NSW (Caerl Murray, Jason Jones-Hughes, Mark Stcherbina, Sam Taumoepeau, Luke Mann, Clinton Allardice and Matthew McKay). Three were selected to represent Australia (Caerl Murray, Mark Stcherbina and Luke Mann). Our First XV came a most creditable second in the GPS competition.

Let me turn now to another success story within the school: our tutor programs. The part time employment of Mr Stephen Jubb to supplement the work of the Music staff has been an unqualified success and is continuing this year. Mr Neil Whitfield is employed on a casual basis to run workshops for our very talented writers. By the middle of this year we should have at least thirty boys participating in talented writers programs. There are other programs in Visual Arts. These additional programs come at no additional expense to the boys' families. Talented musicians and writers and artists gain the benefit of specialised tuition at no expense additional to their school fees.

I can report that the Development Application for the UTS Union/Sydney High School Sports Centre went through council last night and construction should begin soon. It has always been our intention that the Girls' School should have access this important new facility. There should be announcements soon about other interesting enhancements of the school's sporting facilities, possibly not far from the school fence.

Relationships between this school and UTS have strengthened during the year, as have the links with the University of NSW where Professor John Niland, an ex student of my old school, Lismore High, is the Vice-Chancellor. It is important that an academically selective school should develop and sustain good relationships with tertiary institutions.

Our next major building project should be the one that the parent group has spoken strongly in favour of – a Senior Study Centre. We have a ready made site on top of the McDonald Wing that will give us 485 square metres of floor space, enough to fit half the senior school. We will need to make a detailed submission to the Minister through the Department of School Education by about 1 May this year if we hope to gain approval for the 1994-1995 financial year. We will need to put up about $250,000 and to seek matching funding. I am pleased to report that the preparatory work for this project is on schedule.

The rationale for the study centre is as follows: a selective school is primarily about academic pursuit. Academic work involves reflection. We have recognised the need to give our boys a place to reflect. They have a reason to reflect because they want success at the HSC. They will have more things to reflect on as we continue to increase spending on information resources. They will increasingly gain time to reflect as teaching methods inevitably become more flexible. It will not be long before even Year 7 boys will have access to sources of information currently available only to some academics.

The school continues to monitor developments in technology and to assess their potential impact on teaching and learning. We hope soon to be part of Telecom's fibre optic cable trial in the Centennial Park area.

I give a special thank you to the staff, teaching and administrative. I thank also the elements of the School Family who have continued to support the school and to safeguard its interests. I thank the parents for their support and their loyalty to the school. And I thank the boys, a wonderful and talented and diverse lot whose courtesy and good humour are a constant source of reassurance.

Let me conclude by giving you an instance of what it's all about at Sydney High.

Last Sunday our rifle shooting committee ran a Sydney High Shoot at Malabar. Seventy-one shooters entered from rifle clubs all over. The day was highly successful and raised $1500 towards the cost of sending our team to Bisley in June. The team itself did not compete because they had to mark targets all day. They were assisted, however, by a number of Year 7 boys who have been at the school for only a few weeks. These young fellows worked hard all day without complaint. They were very tired by four o'clock. They were as good natured and as good spirited at the end of the day as they had been at the beginning of the day. The job was there to be done and they did it willingly and cheerfully and thereby provided all of us with a splendid example.

I must mention in passing that the school's rifle shooting day enjoyed the attendance of Mr John Jobling MLC, an Old Boy and Mr Lloyd Coleman MLC, an Old Boy of King's. Indeed, Mr Coleman's support was so strong that he was accused of switching his allegiance. He remarked to me that he would prefer that the matter did not reach the ears of Mr Wickham. "He'd be a fine one to tell", I replied, "he's the guest of honour at the Sydney High speech night next week!"

We at Sydney High School face a challenging and exciting and demanding year in 1994. There is a role for all of us and we will all share in the challenge and the excitement and the demands. There is a strong momentum building that should see us achieve all the things that we want to achieve.

For motivation and example we need only think of those fine young men of Year 7 who were marking targets last Sunday, so early in their time at High. The future of the school is assured while young men of that calibre are picking up its tradition. We must do the best we can for them.

Prefects' Induction

Principal's Address

Mr Gainford put it to me a few weeks back that we needed to arrange a guest speaker for today's ceremony and I put my mind to thinking of someone who might be invited. Then it occurred to me that other people were having all the fun and that it was time for me to do something as significant as to present the badges of office to the incoming School Prefects and their executive. So here I am. And I am very proud to be here.

I want to draw a parallel between my role and that of Prefect and Prefect Executive. I have always believed that the true leadership role of the Head of a School should be that of a 'Leader of Leaders'. A school's success is to a significant extent a function of the efforts of the staff, individually and collectively. The Principal's role is generally and inevitably a public role. The roles of the teachers and ancillary staff are frequently not so public.

To the Prefects and their Executive and to the whole school I say, you are surrounded by examples of excellence in leadership among the staff of the school. It is frequently neither public nor publicised, but it is leadership that provides you with a splendid example. Let me illustrate. Please do not take this as a definitive list.

Mrs Cripps, our Head Clerical Assistant, is presiding over the introduction of a computer system that will enable the school to manage its finances with great efficiency. It will be one of the milestones in the history of the school. Mrs Cripps' leadership is characterised, as always, by determination, patience and quiet persuasion.

Mr Patterson, our General Assistant, has done an amazing amount of good for the school in his short time here. His good nature, his commitment to hard work, his unfailing goodwill are a fine example to you all. In his unassuming way, he is a leader whose demeanour you would do well to note. I ask that you insist that the boys support his concern for the school environment. He is determined to make the school an environmental showpiece.

Mr Hutcheson has played a leadership role in the successful introduction of Business Studies and Computer Studies into the Senior School. With Mr Woolnough and other members of the school's Computer Committee, he is presiding over a three year program of computer purchasing, likely to be nearly half a million dollars by the end of 1995, that will make Sydney Boys' High School a national leader in computer education. These people are true leaders. The Computer Committee are visionary and they are also prepared to do the hard work to make their vision a reality.

I commend to you the leadership in teaching of Mr Van Opstal. His dedication to the task, his insistence on the highest standards of scholarship in Mathematics, are a daily example of excellence that you would do well to emulate.

Mr Walker, Ms Hardy, Ms McKellar-White, Mr Balos, Ms Zersvadze, Ms Tuthill, Mr Hassall, Mr Jubb, Mr Coan provided a magnificent example of educational leadership in their production of Kiss Me, Kate. It was a lovely combined effort by students, staff and parents.

Mr Judge has made an immediate impact on the musical and sporting life of the school. His recent organisation of a school band tour to the South Coast provided the musicians and their audiences with wonderful and memorable opportunities. A good school is all about opportunities for its members.

Mr Selway deserves recognition for his leadership in debating. His Year 10 team, as I speak, is contesting the state final of the Commonwealth Bank Cup. It may or may not be possible for the result to be announced before the end of this assembly.

Mr Watson deserves mention for his excellent example in cricket. You should look also at his superb photographs near the Mathematics staffroom. Mr Watson was an exhibitor at the School's Art & Craft Show last weekend and I took pleasure in acquiring two of his photographs for the school's art collection.

Ms Swaddling deserves special mention for her leadership role as an Advanced Skills Teacher. She has the particular role of study skills programs and her work so far has been characterised by thoroughness and professional expertise.

Ms Barda has taken over the role of Year Adviser in Year 11. She took it upon herself to organise the farewell luncheon for Year 12, an event which was both dignified and enjoyable. Mr Boros has done a first class job as Year Adviser for Year 12. And so on. I repeat that I could go on for a long time about the wonderful leadership shown by members of staff.

Let me draw some conclusions from the things I have mentioned.

First, as Prefects you have been acknowledged as leaders. I would urge you, however, to consider yourselves as leaders of leaders. Just as there are many examples of leadership among the staff, there are many examples of leadership among the boys of the school. Look for the leadership examples and acknowledge them. Let the boys know that you know what's going on in the school.

Secondly, the examples of staff leadership that I have given you are characterised by humility and unselfishness. You would do well to note that most achievers are quiet achievers.

Thirdly, the school is a better place for their contribution. I urge you to take a similar approach. The school is a product of its history. You owe a lot to people who have gone before. You have an obligation to make a contribution while you are here. You should aim to make the school a better place.

Fourthly, the quiet achievers I have mentioned have provided rich and varied opportunities for other people. The effectiveness of a school can be judged in large part by the opportunities it provides for its members. I urge you all, in your leadership role, to look for ways in which you can provide opportunities for your fellow students. This can be something as simple as taking the time to talk with younger students, individually or in groups, about anything at all. Just the fact of your talking to them will give them an opportunity to be acknowledged by one of their leaders. What you do, how you conduct yourselves, will be noticed by them.

Not everything you do will be popular. Leadership based on popularity alone will soon be recognised as superficial and third rate. Good leadership has to be firm but it has also to be fair and reasonable. Students will accept your judgment if you are fair and reasonable in your dealings with them. If you try to be domineering, you will lose their respect and your credibility will disappear.

You have my strong support. I look forward to regular meetings with your executive: David Eyers, Evan Jones and Travis Dunn. I am sure they will keep me honest. I, in turn, will try to ensure that they earn their money, so to speak. Life as a Prefect of Sydney High School is surely not meant to be easy.

Mr Baldock has asked me to assure you of his strong backing. I welcome Mr Baldock's expression of support and I repeat my gratitude for the example of strong and purposeful leadership that he himself has given. I urge you to seek his advice and counsel.

You are a fine group of young men, well worthy of the confidence that the school has shown in you. Your families can feel justifiably proud of you.

On behalf of the School Family, I congratulate you and wish you well in your leadership role.

School Notes 1992

Glittering Prizes - Friends of the School were delighted to read in the "Herald" of 4th March of the academic achievements of recent Old Boys Dean Travers, Nigel Kaye, and Anthony Joshua, all students at the University of New South Wales. Anthony won the prize for Medical Biology I, whilst Nigel, in second year Engineering, won the prizes for Mechanics of Solids, Thermodynamics, and General Proficiency. Dean, who was in final year Electrical Engineering, won the prize for Photovoltaics, and shared the University Medal.

Evil Be - Recent Old Boy Russell Ward (1988) was lately elected to the editorial committee of "Honi Soit", the student newspaper of the University of Sydney. Meanwhile, at the University of New South Wales, Yaron Finkelstein (also 1988) has been elected Editor for 1993 of the counterpart publication, "Tharunka".

Higher Studies - Adam Magro, recent Captain of the School, and Ben Lexsen Scholarship winner, has won a place at the Institute of Sport in Rugby football.

Federal Scholars - The Federal Minister for Education was pleased to award five hundred prizes this year, each worth $2000, to high school leavers throughout Australia. Amongst the one hundred and forty-eight recipients in New South Wales were Anthony Abrahams, Shee-Chuen Chen, Tony Cheng, Steven Gan, Tamir Maltz, and Tommy Ng.

In The Limelight - Rising young playwright Mark Swivel (Year 12 1983) was interviewed on the 2BL Breakfast program on 3rd June about the opening that week of his play "Gulf" (a comedy of the nineties) at the Bondi Pavilion for a three week run.

On The Ball - In late May Richard Ball (Year 12 1991) was selected in the NSW Under 19 Rugby Team, and Adam Magro (Year 12 1988) was named in the Sydney Under 21 Team.

War And Peace - In Mid-April the second large contingent of Australian soldiers to join the United Nations Peace Keeping Force in Cambodia included Lieutenant Robert Gunn (Year 12 1988), former Cadet Under Officer in the High Cadet Unit, now serving in the Signal Corps.

London Blues - James Holbeck, recently awarded a rare CHS Rugby Blue, toured the UK with the CHS First XV during December. His selection for CHS was possible due to his age making him just eleven days too old to play for the School in GPS competition.

School Notes 1993

Numbers Man - The School's new Deputy, Mr Wayne Baldock, reports that this year 71.1 members of staff ministered to 1069 boys. This is a ratio of 15.035 boys per teacher.

Big And Wet - Sydney High, CIS, CHS, and State Schoolboys Waterpolo representative Ryan Maor, whilst still in Year 12, has been selected in Sydney University First Grade, and is playing in the National League. This involves regular trips to away games in other capitals.

Old Boys I - In April Andrew Black (1988) graduated from the University of New South Wales with First Class Honours in Chemistry. He will be taking up a scholarship to undertake a PhD at Harvard.

Gone For Good - Whilst many rooms have changed their usage over the years, the former box office, known to many as the dog-box, situated in the foyer near the Deputy's office, has perhaps had the most chequered career. Recently it served as possibly the smallest clinic in the world, but this year it was decided that its presence merely encouraged malingerers, and so it was summarily demolished, greatly improving the appearance of that part of the building.

Soon To Return? - Also gone from the room-list is the prefects' room, taken over as a classroom last year, and this year turned into a new and improved High Store. The prefects now meet in the bottom of the stairwell near Room 1, but it is hoped that after the refurbishments currently under way some slightly more salubrious accommodation can be found.

Victim Of Progress - The language laboratory, once the envy of less fortunate schools, was dismantled this year, apparently no longer considered necessary in the teaching of LOTE (Languages other than English).

Spectacular Success - One of the star performers at this year's Schools Spectacular was guitarist Matthew Cate, who had earlier represented NSW schools at the ARTEXPRESS Exhibition in San Francisco, which marked the 25th anniversary of the sister-city relationship linking Sydney and San Francisco.

Old Boys II - In March Joe Isaacs (1992) was selected in the New South Wales Under 21 Athletics squad to tour Europe in August. His events are Javelin and Triple Jump.

Flagship Of Education - Regular readers will be pleased to hear that two splendid new flagpoles have been erected outside the McDonald Wing, near the Bear Pit, where a rather pathetic example once stood. As part of the refurbishment of this historic part of the grounds, the area has been flagged, and the Australian and School flags are regularly raised and lowered by a roster of cadets. On a sadder note, one of the two angled flagpoles in the courtyard of the main building has fallen down.

Spouting Forth - During fourth term the fountain in the main courtyard was brought back into commission, and after a lick of paint and a new pump, again enlivens this attractive part of the grounds.

Short Service Commission - As a result of the Headmaster's decision to shorten the period of probation served by Acting Prefects, the period of service of the 84th prefects was curtailed to just over two hundred days. They were ceremonially installed in office in early March, and ceremoniously replaced by the installation of the 85th Prefecture in mid October.

Two Hats - For the first time in recent memory at least, the positions of Chairman of the School Union and Captain of the School are held by the same boy, David Eysers. This is very welcome, as he has the task before him in respect of the Union, which currently staggers along, apparently on its last legs. David is working closely with the Principal and Mr Selway, Master Assisting the Union, to redefine the role of this venerable body.

Out Of Sight - It is sad to note that "Tambourine Girl" still resides in the wood store, though thankfully standing up. She is in need of expert repair works to her marble base, after which she would be very much at home in the refurbished courtyard, perhaps within earshot of the fountain.

Demonstrations - As a result of analysis of future teaching space needs by the science department, the two Demonstration Rooms are undergoing changes. Room 24 is no longer tiered, and can be used as a standard classroom, although it still includes a demonstration bench. Room 25 will be joined with part of the former High Store to become a full laboratory, and the Science staffroom will also be extended.

Meanwhile... - Laboratories 25 and 26 will be refurbished, and given a modern laboratory layout. Also included will be a student independent research area, accessible from the corridor.

Under The Carpet - The long-awaited carpeting of the School has at last taken place, greatly reducing noise (and stress) levels throughout, especially in the old building.

Ready And Willing (Old Boys III) - Tommy Ng (1992), having just completed his first year of Commerce/Law at the University of New South Wales with great distinction, is taking a year's leave to train as an officer in the Ready Reserve. A month at Kapooka will be followed by six months at Duntroon, then a posting to the Ready Reserve Battalion. Upon returning to UNSW he will receive an Army scholarship to complete his degree, and probably a posting in a Ready Reserve Unit.

Old Boys IV - Joseph Waugh (1987) has been awarded First Class Honours in Law at Sydney University. He now awaits anxiously the result of the ballot for places at the College of Law.

Scholarly Start Mr Watson, the Careers Master, is delighted to report that three members of Year 12 this year have secured University of New South Wales Co-op Scholarships: Joel Cohen and Zev Friedman in Business Information Technology, and David Pointing in Materials Science. The photograph shows Zev Friedman receiving his award.

Memorable Reunion On 24th July the members of the senior Rugby sides of 1971, 1972, and 1973 held a reunion in the Great Hall, which was a huge success. It certainly began on a good note as many of the participants attended McKay Oval during the afternoon where they saw the First XV defeat St Josephs 22-15 in front of a huge crowd.

Careers

Annual Tertiary Awareness Symposium

This event was held High and the Girls' School this year, and was a great success. All New South Wales and ACT universities were represented, as well as the Defence Academy, and a number of TAFE Colleges. The event was held in March, and was an opportunity for Year 12 students from local schools to gain information, and to focus on the future.

Many boys built on this initial contact by arranging interviews with me, by visiting various universities, or by choosing to contact a workplace relevant to their chosen courses or careers.

Guest Speakers

Although there was a smaller number of speakers this year, this program remains a valued part of Careers offerings throughout the year.

Work Experience

This year a total of 227 boys took 243 placements, as follows:

Year 10:	180 took 196 placements,
Year 11:	35 took 35 placements, and
Year 12:	12 took 12 placements.

The majority of placements went to the professions, whereas an interesting numbers chose the arts, and the electrical and building trades. A number of boys gained extra experience with their employers, and some undertook part-time or permanent part-time work. Year ten boys were also required to prepare a CV, and to submit an after-action work experience report.

Scholarships

Several boys won scholarships to assist with their university studies, including three Co-op Scholarships awarded by the University of New South Wales. David Pointing won his scholarship in the field of Materials Science, whilst Zev Friedman (pictured) and Joel Cohen will both study Business Information Technology.

Mr R. Watson, Careers Master.

Sydney High School Cadet Unit

The Cadet Unit has had another very successful year, beginning in first term with intensive weekly elementary training for recruits, and advanced skills training for the senior cadets. This phase was completed by the Annual Bivouac, a camp of two nights duration, held in the Marra Marra National Park, north of Galston, on the first weekend of second term. The remainder of second term was devoted to preparation for the Annual Camp.

The Unit conducted its 1993 Annual Camp in the crown land on Fagan's Ridge (near Galston) from Saturday 19 JUN 93 to Friday 25 JUN 93. A small advance party under command of Lt Ian Barratt moved into the area on the morning of 18 JUN 93 having drawn stores and rations from 21 Supply Battalion at Moorebank.

Lt Barratt was assisted by Lt Warren Cree (of SGS Cadet Corps) and Mr Sean Creer (formerly of 20 RCU), and had the use of a hired truck and an Army truck, provided by our foster unit (BASC Randwick), for the transport of stores and rations. The Army provided the loan of stores, and we were permitted to purchase seven days' rations, including the usual two days' of one-man one-day rations, which are always the cadets' favourite (apart from the Unit Barbecue).

The under-officers (Ben Gunsberger and Serdar Bolen) performed their duties very well, especially CUO Gunsberger who had the dual role of platoon commander and Senior Under Officer. Each had the opportunity to plan and conduct a major exercise (as did several Senior NCOs), all of which were successfully completed. These included lantern stalks, bullring testing, navigation exercises, overnight treks, an obstacle course, and a tactical exercise.

The senior NCOs (WO2 Sam Haeata, Ssgt Luke Bannister, and Sgts Luc Farago, Ross Cable, Joe Suttie, Matt Alexander and Mark Whitworth) proved to be highly effective. Sam Haeata was a fine CSM, leading by quiet example, and the platoon sergeants, Farago and Cable, organised their platoons very well. In particular Sgt Farago demonstrated very effective leadership when his platoon commander was injured in difficult terrain. He organised his evacuation, and later took command of the platoon on two other occasions as it moved through very difficult country. Ssgt Luke Bannister was again the senior boy in the Quartermaster's Store, assisted only by Cpl Ben Ng, and their work was of a high standard throughout.

The junior NCOs are a strong group, the best of whom are Cpl Ben Ng and Cpl Phillip Wong. All however led their sections effectively, and a high standard of campcraft was achieved.

The standard of training exercises was very high, reflecting good planning and effective preparation of orders on the part of the senior boys. The cadets seemed pleased with each phase of camp, especially the treks, where they spent thirty-six hours under the sole supervision (apparently) of their platoon staff.

At the Unit barbecue on the last night of camp the following awards were made:

Platoon Commanders' Awards for Efficiency:

1 Platoon:	Cdt Adam Gosling
2 Platoon:	Cdt Boris Gordon
Most Improved Cadet:	Cdt Arto Hakkinen
Most Efficient Junior NCO:	Cpl Benjamin Ng
Most Efficient Senior NCO:	WO2 Sam Haeata
Most Efficient Platoon in Camp:	1 Platoon (CUO Gunsberger)

There were no serious logistical difficulties. The support provided by the School for purchase of rations was again both timely and vital. Annual Camp 1993 was a great success, but a different site must be found, possibly in the Southern Highlands, for next year's Annual Camp.

Since camp, the unit has concentrated on weapons training, developing skills in both rifle drill, and the safe delivery of aimed fire. Range practices were held on both the School smallbore range and the Malabar Range, in both instances with the welcome assistance of the Rifle Club. Several cadets are achieving very high scores, particularly at full bore.

During the July holidays three cadets attended, and two (CUO Serdar Bolen and Cpl Ben Ng) qualified at the Adventure Training Award assessment held at Singleton. In the September holidays a group of senior cadets conducted a short bivouac in the Blue Mountains near Linden, to prepare for the promotion courses held in December in conjunction with Sydney Grammar School Cadet Corps.

The other important activity during Fourth Term

was the recruiting of new members, mainly from Year 7.

The Cadet Unit continues to provide very effective training for all its members. Every boy who joins Cadets gains from it, initially in areas of personal presentation, self-discipline, and elementary knowledge of military arts, including campcraft, mapreading and navigation. Those who seek promotion grow markedly in confidence and personal stature, and those who serve in Years 11 and 12 gain invaluable experience in planning, organising and conducting activities. Without exception the Under Officers of this Unit are outstanding and accomplished young men.

Finally the thanks of all who served this year go to the Officers, Under Officers and NCOs, and to the school family, for their vital contributions.

Drama

This marked the third year of Sydney High commitment to Drama within the curriculum. With large Year 9 and 10 classes, taught by Mr John Walker, Sydney High was represented in many drama events.

Representing Sydney High at the Metropolitan East Regional Drama Camp were Steven Brandon, Andrew Ivanov and Pascal Rueger. The boys attended a three day camp at the Collaroy Centre in Collaroy where they participated in voice and movement workshops, saw performances by Death Defying Theatre, Fungo Chutney and were involved in a Theatresports program. Damien James was chosen to go to the State Drama Camp for five days.

Steven Brandon and Steven Laurent were selected to perform in the Metropolitan East Festival of Drama. The Festival of Drama is a celebration of drama in education, showcasing the diversity and quality of drama programs offered in primary and secondary schools. Steven and Steven played Laura and Graham, two art eccentrics in "Oh" by N.F. Simpson.

This year Sydney High received three places in the ICI Young Playwright of the Year Awards – an achievement unparalleled by any other school. Christopher Rodley of Year 10 won first prize for his script depicting the life of the famous author James Joyce, his prize consisted of a staged reading of his play at the Sydney Theatre Company and $2000. Emil Stern, Year 10, was awarded second prize consisting of a day long workshop of his play. Andrew Ivanov, Year 9, received third prize and honorary membership of the Australian National Playwrights Centre.

Duke of Edinburgh Award

Background

Over the past few years a small group under the guidance of Mr Ralph Watson have joined with the larger Girls' School group taking part in the Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme. This involves various community activities, and a graded series of expeditions, leading to awards at three levels, bronze, silver and gold.

The accompanying photograph shows a group of boys during a walk along the Six Foot Track in the Blue Mountains. The boys involved warmly thank Mr Watson and Mrs Morrison from across the Flat for their assistance and support.

In 1994 the High group will be going it alone, and are hoping for continued success in this worthwhile activity.

December. A group of boys and girls from the two schools walked the fifty-two kilometres from Yarramalong to Patonga Bay, and included Adam Gosling, Jonathan Matrai and Gary Hastings.

The weather was unkind to us on the first day with rain making it unpleasant and cold and very wet. The rain attracted leeches as big as your finger and it was a major task flicking them out of our boots. For the next three days we experienced fine weather and saw great views of beautiful countryside, but most of all we had fun. The expedition was very well organised and well run by our supervisors, Mrs Morrison and Mr Hendricks. Overall this was an excellent expedition which we all enjoyed very much.

Gary Hastings, Group Leader.

Music

Senior Concert Band

The Departure of Ms Felecia Chadwick to the University of Newcastle left the Senior Concert Band in the hands of Mr Stephen Jubb. Under the direction of Mr Jubb, we gained many performances, because of the new standard to which Mr Jubb raised the band. We were invited to record the soundtrack to a new film being made by the ABC called Dallas Dolls. The recording was made with the chamber choir in Centennial Park, the noise of the birds being an endless distraction. We were also used as extras in the shooting of the film. The film has not yet been released in Australia.

Another feature of the year was the workshop with Russel Hammond one weekend at the school. Russel is a notable wind orchestra conductor in Australia and around the world. I had the pleasure of meeting Mr Hammond again in January this year at an Australian Winds Music Camp.

Musicales were another success with one performance ending in two encores.

The temporary departure of Mr Jubb to America with the Trinity Grammar School band left us under the direction of Ms Debra Gilmore, the school's new arrival. Ms Gilmore took the band in performances at the Twilight Regatta as well as Orientation Day.

In 1994 we look forward to another great year under the direction of Mr Jubb, beginning with a music camp, which will help us greatly, as well as the prospect of an intrastate tour.

Many thanks are offered to Steve Jubb who has donated many hours of his time to the Band, as well as to the music staff and music council.

Gareth Tilley

Choir

This year has seen the Choir involved in a new and exciting venture – film! In May we were cast in the ABC/BBC production of Dallas Dolls along with a Sydney High Band and soccer team. We spent a day on the set at Little Bay and a half day recording the sound at Centennial Park.

We discovered the world of the big screen to be less than glamorous, especially as we had to sing Yankee Doodle Dandy time after time until we finally shot the sequence, which will probably last no more than ten seconds.

The Choir also provided the usual performances at school assemblies and special events, the highlights being the Musicales concert, and the Twilight Regatta. Many of our members continue to excel in other vocal pursuits, including the School musical production, the Met East Choir, the Sydney Schools Singers, and the Australian Opera.

I would like to thank Mrs Hardy for her devotion to the Choir, and I look forward keenly to 1994.

Benjamin Hart, Senior Chorister.

Intermediate Concert Band

The Intermediate Band this year was a great success. At the beginning of the year we were sloppy in our music, but as the year passed by we picked up our act and turned out to be exceptional for intermediate band level. We achieved Steve Jubb's dream of being able to play softly and in tune.

Of all the intermediate bands that Steve conducts he says that the Sydney Boys' High School Intermediate Band is the best and most improved intermediate band.

We all enjoyed our performances at the two musicales this year, especially when we were rewarded by thunderous applause from the audience. These musical evenings were great fun for all the band members. Other performances included two bear pit concerts and a very successful band night.

It is with some regret but great anticipation that other intermediate members of the band and I leave for the senior band, but I am confident of future success for the intermediate band because I know that it will prosper in the capable hands of the new conductor Ms D. Gilmore, and my brother Andrew.

I thank Steve Jubb for conducting the intermediate band in 1993 and teaching all of the players so much.

Marc Bennie

Kiss Me Kate

Tuesday 31 August, Wednesday 1st September, Friday 3rd September, Saturday 4th September and Monday 6th September (matinee).

A school year is not complete without a musical, thus 1992 was an unfulfilled year. This made 1993 that much better when it was decided in May that the school would put on another musical. The school decided to give the traditional Gilbert and Sullivan musicals a rest and go for the more upbeat style of Cole Porter and thus the school chose Kiss Me Kate.

The story is of Fred Graham, an actor and producer, and his ex-wife, actress Lilli Vanessi. They are the stars of a touring production of Shakespeare's The Taming of the Shrew. Their relationship is far from amicable, and their off-stage fights often carry over into their on-stage performance, The Shrew being a most appropriate vehicle for such shenanigans. Lilli has a new suitor, and Fred has his eye on the young ingenue Lois Lane, who is herself being courted by luckless gambler Bill Calhoun; yet there are signs that the fire has not completely gone out between Fred and Lilli. Add to this a couple of comical gangsters, some wonderful music and dancing and you have a great musical.

With the departure of Mr Humphrey Charles and Ms Marcia Shepherd, the head of Drama, Mr John Walker, gracefully accepted the role of Director. Another newcomer to the musical was Mr Stephen Jubb who took on the role of Musical Director. With two children in the show, a dedicated mother, Mrs Robyn Gunsberger, offered her services and took on the important role of Costumes and Props.

The choice for Fred Graham was obvious, Ben Hart, who had a lead role in HMS Pinafore and had the singing and acting ability needed to suit the part. Zoe Dimakis and Elizabeth Mackay were well chosen for the two leading female roles. In fact, originally Elizabeth was cast as Lilli and Zoe as Lois, but due to their vocal ranges their roles were reversed, much to the confusion of the cast and crew. It was a change of scene for Laird Abernethy who was snatched off the football field and thrown onto the stage wearing a bow tie and boater as the compulsive gambler Bill Calhoun, and boy did he love every minute of it!

Two of the best songs however, were stolen by the servants Hattie (Imogen Cassidy) and Paul (Evan Tapping) who each lead the chorus in Another Openin', Another Show and Too Darn Hot respectively. Ben Lasky, David Eysers and Daniel Kirkwood brought the 'on-stage' scenes alive with their great vocal and acting talents in the respective roles of Baptista, Gremio and Hortensio. The comic relief was provided by Sam Grunhard and Pascal Rueger as the bumbling gangsters, who seemed to be the cause of many catastrophes. Other principal members included Atilla Orel, Sam Bray, Steven Brandon and Michael Grant.

Not to be forgotten were the very supportive chorus, (who incidentally only forgot to come on stage once!) which comprised eighteen girls, three boys and twelve dancers whose dances were choreographed by the very talented Alexi Warn, a Year 12 student at Sydney Girls' High. Mr Jubb and the orchestra provided the musical with a great soundtrack and special congratulations go to Jonathan Corea for being a very skillful repetiteur. The back-stage crew made up of thirty-six people gave up many hours of their time to see that the show ran smoothly and did a great job. Of course, no show would be complete without a great set, designed and painted by the art department - Mr Guiles Balos and Mrs Freya McKellar-White deserve a great thank you.

Due to the four nights of performances being such a success, the cast and crew were called back for an encore matinee performance. Kiss Me Kate was a great show, bringing back hope for future productions.

Debating

First Grade Debating

The season opened well with the first debate of the season against Joeys taking place whilst Sydney was in Olympic bid mode. So, it was only natural that our first topic was about the IOC. Debating the negative required us to prove that the Olympic bid process was corrupt, which we did successfully, winning the debate. The Scots debate about the minutiae of state politics, which we also won, was distinguished only by its staging in a vast, echoey and mostly empty auditorium. We and the other debaters stood on a high stage and spent most of the time attempting to make out the faces of our audience in the far distance.

We were defeated by Grammar in a debate about politicians, and whether or not they had visions for the future of our nation. Our necessary cynicism about politicians' motives was beaten by Grammar's good faith arguments and technical reasons that nobody but the adjudicator could understand. At Newington we were greeted with the controversial topic of the judiciary and how out of touch it is with modern society, particularly in regard to crimes against women. We had the noble task of defending the independence of the judiciary from some bizarre suggestions from the other side, such as compulsory education on 'acceptable behaviour' for all the nation's judges. We obviously did this well enough to convince our constitutional lawyer adjudicator who awarded us the debate.

Our wins were offset by the next few losses. Firstly, at the hands of the amazing St. Ignatius team - the smooth well-oiled debating machine that outmanoeuvred us in a classic debating topic about economic development versus environmental development. A lengthy opening statement involving Kermit the Frog from our first speaker was more than enough fodder for the sarcastic wit of the other side to overtake us. The last debate with Kings was a narrow defeat in yet another topic about women's issues and whether or not feminism had been successful. Kings managed to convince the adjudicator that it hasn't been.

Third Grade Debating

The 1993 Third Grade debating season was many things to very few people. Fraught with the prejudices of politically incorrect adjudicators, the head-hunting precedences of "more important" teams and the inadequacies of lesser schools, we were only left with our strained enthusiasm to keep us going in what was a wasteland of delusion and bureaucracy.

After an early - and very temporary! - losing streak through our first three debates, we reshuffled the team and put our own heads down - it was clear that the only way to win was to defeat the other team by such a colossal margin and intimidate the adjudicator by the irresistible force that was Third Grade - so we did. Winning our next two against St Ignatius and Shore, the mighty Thirds were denied the opportunity to obliterate Kings and level the season, only being able to draw the superficial gratification of having fun from our own experiences.

Throughout the season we found ourselves struggling under the moral weight of issues ranging from endangered Olympic ideals through the judiciary's ailing integrity, to the cliched favourite: the environment.

Third Grade, 1993, consisted of:

Arzan Tarapore (1st speaker): Starting as a mediocre debater he progressed to a fanatical fighter for justice with an intensity unmatched in the preroom. Yet Arzan never lost his humility and met defeat with dignity knowing in his heart where justice lay.

G. Sivaraman (2nd speaker): Not renowned for his solemn side, he added an air of informality to the prep room. He attacked the other side as well as he could with the examples he was left with, and his convincing knowledge (or imagination) of Sri Lankan affairs kept the adjudicators stupefied.

Richard Chia (3rd speaker): The team philosopher, he never failed to smother the opposition's remnants of diminishing self-esteem. His masterful command of the abstract and persistent use of warped analogues kept everyone guessing.

Special thanks go to Mrs Noller and Richard Pearshouse for their time and dedication to furthering the interests of senior debating.

Year Nine Debating

The year nine season started with the usual meetings and Thursday afternoon training sessions. We give much thanks to the dedicated support we received from our team manager Ms Wood and our coach Peter Cumines, an Old Boy of Sydney High. We couldn't have completed the season if it weren't for the dedication of Ms Wood, who was there every Friday night and Thursday afternoon.

The commitment our boys put in was marvellous and memories will be with us forever. Even though the 'A' team had mixed successes, we still had a good season of honest debating. It was especially tough with the new concept of only having forty minutes to prepare before the debate. The 'B' team came to grips with his early on and this resulted in an almost undefeated season.

The 'A' team consisted of Prashant Khera, Sherman Lai and Andrew Goodwin. Andrew won the Debating Prize. The 'B' team consisted of the 'encyclopaedia man', Peter Nicholas, Ivan Leong and Alexander Daniel. An on and off 'C' team consisted of Daniel Morris, Daniel Macarthur, David Gertler, Felix Warmuth and Alan Copeland. These last five interchanged throughout the year.

There were many memories, some victorious and some outright silly. You wouldn't believe this! One night at Scots, the 'A' team read the topic board incorrectly and prepared the wrong side of the case! Eventually, the trio were given an extra five minutes preparation and told to do their best.

As well as Ms Wood and Mr Cumines we would like to thank the parents for their time, support and transportation. We thank the schools for their support in order to uphold the GPS tradition of Debating.

Year Eight Debating

This year has been good for the Year Eight debaters. There has certainly been an improvement since Year Seven, when we had only one win. This Year the 'A' team went on to win all the social debates, but unfortunately only one of the GPS debates, against Scots. One of the highlights of the year was the debate against St Joseph's, 'That Santa is alive and well', which had them literally rolling in the aisles. The 'B' team also did well.

The Year Eight boys who took part in debates during the GPS competition in 1993 were Gareth Tilley, Chevy Devudu, Vladimir Lasky, Harris Vaegan-Lloyd, Damon Smith, Garth Srinivas, Chadi Ayoub, Daniel Sleeman, Mark Schiralli, Przemek Zajic and myself. Despite our losses we intend to keep on improving, and it is to be hoped that next year we'll knock 'em flat!

A Solution

A day will come when the deed is done
and not a soul alive will there be.

Minutes before a monstrous roar
and a flash few failed to see.

A ripple began,
quickly it ran
and drowned all spectators in rubble.

The Earth bare,
no human care
and free from all its trouble.

This day will come
our blood will run
and death will clean like a suction.

Without the resolution to make use of the solution:
Total diversion to global human ....

(PEACE?)

The Seige Perilous

Dancing through a melody of light,
Perchance that life may come their way,
Weaving through dawn to the beacon of night,
Chasing mortality tainted fey.

Whereupon a golden lamp may harken wild,
To the desperate hearts of all who fail.
Trusted to an age-grown child,
Searching ever for the whim of a grail.

And now as the plight hastens,
And horses' hooves thunder onward.
The noble battle forth against Saracens,
And ever swords serve as raison d'être.

Never may diamond chasten the eye,
No wings of fire ever set sail.
The pure of blood and righteous of lie,
May succeed in finding the holy grail.

Untitled II

Voices singing, there were sweet male tones soaring and descending in impossibly poignant harmonies. Glen paused in the corridor. Was it a requiem? He didn't know, knew nothing of music. Mournful and at the same time heartbreakingly melodious. It was as if the singers, whoever they were, were reaching out to the oneness of the cosmos. Glen paused because, despite what he would have his friends believe, his life was not one full of poetry. Especially not now.

It might have been the school choir, but he could not remember them ever sounding like this. The different shades, blending so well, how could they mesh so fluently?

"Hey Glen, lighten up man."

Man. Glen looked up from the floor, wondering if his face really showed that much emotion. Nick Roule smiled back at him. He didn't know him well, just another face in the form, but he still cared enough to say "Hi" and try to cheer someone up. No, that wasn't it. There was no compassion there. Nick was one of the ones responsible for Eric's death, wasn't he? Not that he knew it, of course, or even felt at all guilty. Totally blameless. Mea culpa mea culpa mea maxima culpa. Soon, however, he might perhaps be forced to wake up, along with the rest of the school.

Angry in spite of himself, Glen would have liked to have said nothing in reply, but instead to stare until he left, uncomfortable with his self-directed extroversion. But that was not worth the energy. Nick would simply think him an arrogant dick.

Rightly so, perhaps.

Glen muttered a response, no more than a few awkward words and chuckled, as uncomfortable as he wanted this other boy to feel. Still, it was enough to placate Nick, who then kept walking down the corridor.

No more music. Nick had now turned the corner and was out of sight. Ape.

Insecurity always produced a twinge of elitism.

Master's Report

SCHOOL ATHLETICS CARNIVAL

The School Athletics Carnival was held on Wednesday April 21 and Thursday April 22. The weather was fine and many students turned out to show their abilities. The results indicate that our strength this year would be in sprints and relays. Harry Stanley and Tony Hannon deserve most credit for this due to their early season work with the senior rugby squad.

House Point Score

1st:	Rubie	672
2nd:	Fairland	667
3rd:	Eddie	628

Age Champions:

12 Years:	David Fischer
13 Years:	Ashley Walton
14 Years:	Grant Houldsworth
15 Years:	Benjamin Khan
16 Years:	Alexander Tunggal
17 Years:	James Aschner

Results:

Brett Bannerman equalled the 17+ Years High Jump Record of 1.88 m set in 1936 by J.Wall. Brett at subsequent carnivals gradually raised the record to 1.91m. Kamil Unver equalled the 16years 100m record of 11.2 sec at an Invitational Carnival.

EASTERN SUBURBS ZONE CARNIVAL

The Zone Carnival was held on Tuesday 20th July and Wednesday 21st July at the Sydney Athletic Field. 1993 was High's turn to organise this carnival and we were determined to put in an outstanding performance.

A strong team was selected.

School Championship Point Score

Sydney Boys' finished FIRST with 396 points, however after applying the formula to compensate for school size we finished second behind Matraville High. This was an outstanding effort as we can only enter half the events. Another pleasing feature was winning all six relays and the 800 metres in each age group.

Age Championship

Grant Houldsworth won the 14 years division and Alex Tunggal won the 16 years division.

Results:

The following boys were event winners:

12 Years

A.Legg - 800m
D.Fischer, J.Tan, M.Yap & - 4x100m Relay

13Years

M.Bennie - 800m

C.Murray - 100m
A.Tzannes - Long Jump
A.Tzannes, R.Sheriff, C.Murray, B.Smith - 4x100m Relay

A large number of boys were selected to represent Eastern Suburbs Zone at the Metropolitan East Regional Carnival in August at the Sydney Athletics Field.

METROPOLITAN EAST REGION CARNIVAL

This carnival was held at the Sydney Athletics Field on Monday 9th August and Tuesday 10th August. The following boys were selected to represent the Metropolitan East Region at the Combined High Schools Championships at Narrabeen on 9th, 10th and 11th September.

I.Byrne - 16 Years Discus, A.Ussher-Clarke - 12 Years 80m Hurdles, D.Rabin - 13 Years 100metres, G.Houldsworth - 14 Years High Jump, B.Khan - 15 Years 100 & 200 m, S.Croft - 15 Years 1500 m, A.Stanley - 15 Years Triple Jump, A.Deen - 16 Years 100 & 200 m, A.Tunggal - 16 Years Long Jump, B.Bannerman - 17 Years High Jump, J.Aschner - 17 Years 400 m, S.Mohideen - 17 Years 800 m, C.Murray - 17 Years 100 & 200 m.
K. Unver, M.Webb, P.Tan, A.Wong, S.Blacker, J.Reynaldo, A. Knittel were selected in relay teams.
Brett Bannerman set a new Regional Record of 1.91m for the 17 Years High Jump.

COMBINED HIGH SCHOOLS CARNIVAL

Four relay teams were selected to represent Metropolitan East Region at the C H S Carnival. Unfortunately the 17 years team due to injuries and GPS Rugby and Soccer commitments were unable to compete. This was disappointing as they were capable of winning a medal. The other teams (14, 15 & 16 years) performed creditably.

A.Tunggal won the Bronze Medallion for the Long Jump.

Rugby Master's Report

The 1993 season was a successful one for most of our teams - all bar one recording at least one victory, and the First XV only one defeat. Coaches and players in every grade developed their skills, and the support provided by parents and Old Boys was outstanding.

Very early in the season eight boys underwent training as junior referees under the instruction of Mr Peter Meagher, all of whom received their qualification, and several of whom controlled matches during the season. These and other boys, and a very experienced group of adult referees, gave sterling service through seven home fixtures, as did the appointed referees for the competition matches.

The annual matches against Scots Bathurst were played at McKay this year, and the fixtures against The Armidale School were played away, TAS proving to be very accommodating hosts. These two fixtures have been highly successful in recent years, and this season was no exception. We look forward to hosting Armidale next season, and to visiting Bathurst.

Whilst the 13s had a difficult season of building skills and taking hard knocks, the 14s were able to be more competitive. The 14As had six wins and a draw, and scored in every match except one. The 15As also had their share of success, including winning three matches in the Buchan Shield Knock-out, eventually losing in an away match against Blacktown. The 16As and Bs both beat Newington in an otherwise largely unrewarded season, but provided several players for the open sides when required.

We began the season with four open teams, but unfortunately some players withdrew in Third Term, causing the Fourth XV to be abandoned. The Second XV began well with two victories but, despite going very close repeatedly, finished without further wins.

Ultimately the season will be remembered for the success of the First XV, who swept all before them in the trial matches, and were widely reported as heading for a competition win. Their preparation for the competition matches was completed by a New Zealand tour which put the edge on match fitness.

The matches against St Joseph's and Scots

(Rounds I and III), both played at home, were watched by huge crowds, and curiously resulted in numerically similar scores, the first in favour of High, and the second Scots. Though none of the matches was easy, these two are remembered as the highlights of a great season. The team finished a clear second in the competition, two points behind Scots and two ahead of St Joseph's.

Representative honours were earned by the following players (note that two separate Australian Schoolboys teams were selected during the season):

Caerl Murray - Australia I, GPS 1sts, NSW 1sts, Australia II

Marc Stcherbina - Australia I, GPS 2nds, NSW 1sts, Australia II

Luke Mann - Australia I, GPS 2nds, NSW 1sts

Sam Taumoepeau - GPS 1sts, NSW 1sts

Matthew McKay - GPS 1sts, NSW 2nds

Jason Jones-Hughes - GPS 2nds, NSW 2nds

Clinton Allardice - GPS 3rds, NSW 2nds

Evan Jones - GPS 2nds

Grant Cummins - GPS 3rds

I would like to thank all players, coaches and supporters for a very fine season, and look forward keenly to the 1994 season.

A.M Gainford, Rugby Master.

First Fifteen

This year's First XV was blessed with two exuberant leaders in Sam Taumoepeau, Captain of the side, and the young Vice-Captain, Marc Stcherbina. With them were talented players who loved to play slightly outrageous, attacking, rugby in every game. Thus, the 1993 side will be remembered for its explosive running style. It will be remembered for its hardness as well, because it won many games from behind. The highlight of the season was the win against Joeys after giving them a 0 - 15 start.

Much of this explosive running was possible because the pack was quick and hard. Luke Mann, loose-head prop, was a powerful and talented player. Matt McKay, the lightest tight-head prop in the GPS, was one of the best. Ben McKay, a fine hooker, served accurate ball in line-outs, to the unerring jumps of Slamming Sam Makhoul and Clinton Allardice. Probably Clinton has never dropped a ball in his life. Nobody outjumped him in any game. The back row of Luke Mussett, Darren Shaw, and Sam Taumoepeau, was as fast as a trio of wingers. Luke Mussett only played one GPS game, played it in fine style against Joeys wondering why he was feeling so sick. It was glandular fever. Ben Smailes came up from the seconds for the game against Grammar, played well and could be thought unlucky to be displaced for the rest of the season. However, Guy de Merindol, just recovering from a wrecked knee, took Luke's place. He got fit in a hurry, played fine rugby, and kicked goals.

The backs matched the forwards with talents of their own. Evan Jones, who worked so hard at becoming a fine half-back, served lightning ball but balanced this with shrewd, penetrative attacks. At five-eight, Marc Stcherbina was unflappable, almost unstoppable. The centres, Caerl Murray and Jason Jones-Hughes, were the shock troops up the middle. They worked close to the opponents' defences sniffing out gaps before they could be closed. Grant Cummins was the ideal fullback never out of position, safely parked back in defence, but sneaky in attack. On left wing was Rudi Sheriff who is one of the best finishers you will ever see. On the right wing Brent Smith was the complete footballer.

During the whole season this team scored 421 points to 100 against them in twelve games. In the GPS season alone the team scored 165 points to 69. It lost one game all year, to Scots, the GPS Champions, who must be congratulated in winning in their Centenary year. High came second, but nobody can deny that they provided many thrilling moments for the crowds. The game against Joeys will remain in the memories of those who were there as one of the most stirring ever played on McKay. It featured a startling comeback, high quality rugby, and riveting closeness in front of a large crowd of aficionados.

This was an exciting and fulfilling season. The team played adventurous rugby never losing sight of the fun of the open game, the unexpected, for both player and spectator. They were a happy group, hard working, committed. Thanks go to Harry Stanley and Bob Jinman for the speed and fitness training, and for the mental toughness displayed by the team. Physiotherapists, Helen Mussett and Tony Wilkes, provided constant attention to injuries and advice. Ken Robinson, once more, was the father figure of the side, the best kind of manager one can have. He is efficient, hard-working, and caring.

Members of the team were valued by selectors at all three levels: GPS, State, and National. Nine were picked for the GPS teams and reserves. Caerl Murray, Sam Taumoepeau, and Matt McKay (as hooker) were picked in the GPS First XV. Jason Jones-Hughes, Marc Stcherbina, Evan Jones, and Luke Mann played in the Second XV, while Clinton Allardice and Grant Cummins got games in the Third XV. At State level seven were selected for the trip to Darwin for the National Championships. Sam Taumoepeau captained the unbeaten NSW First XV containing Luke Mann, Caerl Murray, and Marc Stcherbina. In the NSW Second XV, Matt McKay was again selected as a hooker. Jason Jones-Hughes, and Clinton Allardice were also in that team. The Australian side was selected twice this year. In the side which played Scotland, Luke Mann, Marc Stcherbina, and Caerl Murray were honoured by selection. After the Darwin Tournament was over another Australian team was selected for the trip to New Zealand. Luke Mann and Sam Taumoepeau were unlucky to miss out. Marc Stcherbina and Caerl Murray were again favoured by selection. This paragraph speaks for itself about the talented group that made up this year's First XV. Their dedication is shown in their decision to support Sunday morning off-season fitness work with Bob Jinman. Not all Rugby Players are sane.

A.M.Hannon, Coach.

16B Fifteen

What a year! It was a year with many highs and lows. It was the year that we, the 1993 16Bs broke the drought that 16Bs have been in for so long by claiming what could only be called a crushing victory over Newington 7-5.

The season looked grim at the beginning; no coach and only a handful of die-hard players mainly from the previous season's mighty 15Cs. The pre-season was the usual story of muddled up teams and close losses, mixed in with the odd victory against not so great competition, but by the end of this we knew what lay ahead and how dire the struggle would be.

The team at that stage was: 1 Jonathan Katz-Szulevicz, 2 Frank Roberts, 3 a fine player whose name escapes me, 4 John Pardy, 5 Peter Drinkwater, 6 Paul Gaetjens, 7 another fine player, 8 Guy Hickson, 9 James Evans, 10 Seamus O'Brian, 11 Tim Hughes, 12 Daniel Beaver, 13 Sebastian Czernuszyn, 13 Steve Williams, 14 James Slezak, 15 Ben Cameron.

The GPS season came and still no coach. It was now that the positional changes took place. Sebastian Czernuszyn went from outside centre to open side flanker - a more natural position for him, and Seamus O'Brian went from five-eighth to blind side flanker - a more natural position for him.

St Joseph's College - what a way to open the GPS season. We were simply outclassed by a very well-drilled forward pack and run all over the field by a creative backline. The final score was 0-40. Our first set back for the season - the guts and spirit of the team, Frank Roberts (also the captain) was pinched by the A's and so a somewhat directionless B's took on a very big Grammar School and narrowly lost 3-17. Scots College: little good came out of this game except our new hooker from the A's Liam Paton was finally settling in, final score 0-60.

We were nothing short of brilliant against Newington. We scored early thanks to an ingenious intercept by flying winger Serdar Bolen, and never let them back into the game. This stunned Newington who had beaten the same Scots team we played by more than sixty points. And so the final score was (drum roll please) 7-5. We were on a roll. We had just won a game and scored a coach - the experienced old boy and new teacher at High - Mr. Botella, but the roll on could not carry us to a victory and we were beaten by St Ignatius College 7-21.

We went to Shore full of confidence. We knew that we could win and assisted by some greatly appreciated guest stars, we should win. Unfortunately the lack of cohesion of the whole team led to a defeat 0-20. Kings, what a school! We were all hoping to end the season on a high note, but it was not to be and we were beaten fair and square.

I would like to sincerely thank Mr Botella (our coach), Mr Dixon (the A's coach who always found the time to coach those of us who turned up to training), Dr Robinson (who helped out on many occasions), and all the A's (who played for us), and the many guest stars: Matt Ware, Sam Bray (what a legend), Van Gencur, Todd Ollivier, Chris Daish, Michael Greenwood, Matt Wadey, Johnny Stavrou, Danny and Grant Bowmer who all helped in many different ways. Thanks heaps.

Sebastian Czernuszyn, Captain.

15A Fifteen

Nineteen ninety-three was a good year for the 15A's. The Season started very well with 41-0 victory over Randwick Boys' High. Players from the B's and C's contributed to this win. Our next game was the first round of the Buchan Shield against Wooloware High, we won very convincingly, 77-0. Next we came up against the Waverly College, a team who thrashed us in 1992, but this year was different. We were a better team, by narrowly went down 12-15. The rest of our trial games were very successful, we beat North Sydney Boys' 79-0, Scots Bathurst 10-5, The Armidale School 12-5 and Cranbrook 17-5. During the second term we also played Buchan Shield games against Peakhurst High, winning 44-0 and Blakehurst High, winning 50-7.

Our first GPS game against St Josephs was a hard game, and although we lost 3-17, we played very well, our scrums and line-outs proving dominant. After this good start we had run, losing to Grammar 0-26 and Scots 0-7. We were also knocked out of the Buchan Shield in the quarter finals, after travelling to Blacktown High and losing 0-10.

This bad form was turned around with a well earned 6-5 win over Newington College. This win was the first GPS win for many people in the team. Our next game was against St Ignatius, and although we lost 0-26 the score did not reflect our standard of play. This same 0-26 came back to haunt us the next week at Shore, a tough game in tough conditions. Our last game, against Kings was a tryless game, with penalty goals proving the difference between two very equal teams. The final result was a 0-12 loss.

During the season our coach, Mr Storey, awarded points for best and fairest after each game. Consistent good form saw No. 8 Chris Daish win the final tally. On behalf of all the players, I would like to thank Mr Storey for a very enjoyable season and great coaching. I also want to thank Michael O'Connor and Mr Aldous for helping to coach the team.

14B Fifteen

Sadly for the 14Bs rugby team, the season was not a particularly good one. During the pre-season and GPS competitions, we won only one game, against Scots Bathurst.

During the season we had a few outstanding games from certain players such as Adam Papageourgiou (Five-Eighth), Matthew Ekstein (Wing), Anthony O'Rourke (Prop), Asher Curtis (Prop/Hooker), Daniel Jones (Wing) and a few other outstanding players.

The mighty 14Bs could almost say they were preparing for the 1994 season and they were just putting the opposition into a false state of expectancy. But overall, the 1993 rugby season was generally enjoyed by the 14Bs rugby team proven by the fact that after nearly every game, the team came off the field, without a drop of sweat on them, but all with smiles from ear to ear.

Soccer Master's Report

The 1993 First Grade Soccer Team earned the following honours:

GPS Premiers
CIS Cup Winners
Commonwealth Bank Cup Semi-Finalists

CIS Representatives:      GPS Representatives:

Adam Pold
Jimmy Aschner
Sohail Mohideen
Paul Jones
Fabian Huppau

Adam Pold

Sohail Mohideen
Jeremy Wong

Adam Deutsch
Matthew Croll

The success of this team was unprecedented. This was the crest of the wave which brought together a group of gifted athletes, the first group at the School to play soccer at all levels from Year 7 to Year 12. Their success speaks for itself! Sydney High is now established as one of the top soccer schools in New South Wales.

The First Grade was a special team who through talent and hard work got what it deserved. They showed that a belief in their own ability and a determination to overcome adversity would see them come out on top. The players themselves can tell their own story, but several incidents stand out in my mind.

- Winning 5-4 at Blakehurst, with Blakehurst hitting the post or bar five times!
- Jimmy Aschner being sent off (again) and thus missing the vital Newington match.
- Losing 0-1 to Newington in the dying minutes.
- Phil Heads scoring the eighth goal against Shore (but by then the guy with video camera had gone.)
- Hearing that Grammar had beaten Newington 4-3.
- Most satisfying performance: beating Waverley 3-0 in a CIS match, during which the players did exactly what I had told them to do.

Soccer owes a debt of gratitude to the parents. Their presence each week on the sideline is greatly appreciated by the boys, as is their work in providing terrific afternoon teas.

I am indebted to the Principal Mr Richard Stratford and the Sportsmaster Mr Jim Barnett for all the support they have given to soccer throughout the year.

Tom Dolan, Soccer Master.

First Grade Soccer

Winning Everything Is The Only Thing

Very rarely does a team come together such as the one which graced the number five pitch at McKay during the 1996 winter season, a squad that during the year displayed the rare qualities of size, skill, aggression and real footballing class that is seldom seen in the GPS competition.

In the lead up to the trials Mr Dolan sent several players to trial for the combined Independent Schools team, a representative team made up of CAS, GPS and ISA schools. Jimmy Aschner, Paul Jones, Fabian Huppau, Sohail Mohideen, and Adam Pold all gained selection and went on to compete in the State carnival.

The first test for the team came against renowned CAS soccer school Waverley College, a narrow victory the result in a hard-fought encounter at Queens Park. We waltzed through the rest of the trials and thus far the only goals Adam Pold had conceded were on the training park.

The First Grade team not only compete in the GPS competition, but also Independent Schools Cup and the Commonwealth Bank Cup

The GPS Season

Versus St. Josephs at Mackay

Our first match of the season took place on a brilliant day against what was expected to be a strong Joey's team. Our midfield dominated from the kick off and it was only rare that Joey's had possession in our half. It was hard to single out any individual performances as it was such a team effort. The final result was a 7-0 drubbing of the boys from Hunters Hill.

Versus Shore at Shore

In previous years, Shore had provided little trouble to Sydney High first grade teams. The 1993 season was to be no different as we routed the Shore team with a final score line of 9-0. Just about everybody in the team scored or at least had a chance to score, Adam Pold missing from a penalty shot. The highlight of the game was when centre back Phil Heads was given the opportunity to put Sydney High up to a nine goal lead from yet another penalty, a cracking shot was miraculously tipped onto the bar only to rebound on to the head of Phil following it in ... the ensuing lap of honour was arguably the fastest he ran all year. But the goal evaded all media attention and nowadays Phil himself is the only one who remembers it.

Versus St. Ignatius at Mackay

Riverview started well and shocked us early drawing a couple of brilliant saves from Adam Pold and hitting the crossbar. After soaking up the pressure in the opening ten minutes, Pete Rickwood broke away down the right flank and snuck into Riverview's penalty area to crack one past the keeper. Their defence crumbled after that and the final score was 5-0.

Versus Scots at Mackay

A huge crowd assembled for the clash between two title contenders. Scots were coming off a defeat at the hands of Newington and desperately needed a win to stay in the hunt. They stunned the parochial High supporters with an early goal. But within minutes Sohail Mohideen replied, whipping a freakish corner that deceived the Scots goal keeper and finished in the back of the net. With the scores locked at one all Jimmy Aschner broke away and chipped the ball to Paul Jones, who emphatically nodded home what turned out to be the winner.

Versus Newington at Mackay

After disposing of Scots, Newington were the only team left who could threaten our title aspirations. Though we were facing them at home, we were a vastly understrength team. Jimmy Aschner was suspended after being sent off against Scots, Fabian was still out, Danny Rickwood was still recovering after the Commonwealth Bank Cup quarter final. The Newington goal was scored in the dying moments after a mindless clearance up field was misjudged by the High defence and a Newington player broke away down the left flank and calmly slotted the ball past Adam Pold in goal. Final score was 0-1.

Versus Grammar at Weigall

A dour affair on a wet and slow Weigall pitch. Grammar played with a negative style and it influenced our game. Without a couple of our stars we beat them convincingly allowing them only a handful of attacking opportunities throughout the entire match. Adam Deutsch put in a strong performance from the mid field.

Versus Kings at Kings

Kings were not expected to worry us and in the end they did not. This game was more memorable for the fact that we had a correspondent, Andrew Brandon, at the Newington-Grammar fixture with a mobile phone, ringing through scores. A draw or loss by Newington would see us crowned as the GPS Premiers. Jono Tillsley in front of the Kings coach scored two absolute crackers which put him in the GPS first team. The highlight of this day was of course the celebration party afterwards. Now we had only the Independent Schools Cup game left on our schedule. The final score was 4-0

Commonwealth Bank Cup

The Commonwealth Bank Cup is the true test of just how good a schoolboy side is, bringing together schools from across the state. In previous years, Sydney High had never progressed past the fourth round. This was due to having to qualify through the hardest group of teams in the state, coming up against schools from the soccer strong areas of St. George and Hurstville.

Our Commonwealth Bank Cup campaign began against local rivals Randwick Boys' High School, whom we narrowly defeated 1-0 thanks to a tap in goal by Ricky Chong. Our next game brought us face to face with Dulwich Hill, a renowned CHS soccer school. As a result of the insistence of their coach we played the game on a rugby league field without "proper lines and boxes". After conceding their second penalty the Dulwich Hill team "spat the dummy", and with the game only twenty minutes old they walked off the field, forfeiting the match.

The next round pitted us against Blakehurst at Blakehurst. The game was a truly epic struggle, worthy of more than the handful of spectators that were lucky enough to watch the game. Up by two goals we let Blakehurst back into the match with a last minute equaliser that pushed the score to three all and the game to extra time. We went behind in the first period of extra time but fought our way back with goals to Jimmy and Sohail to take the game to 5-4. The general consensus at the end of the season was that this was the best match that any of us had played in, and it typified our no nonsense style of play and courageous fighting qualities.

Hurstville were expected to be every bit as good as Blakehurst and we had to also face them on their home ground. With a large group of Hurstville students watching, it was surprising the support we got. The number six was their captain and it was his volley that opened the scoring in the second half. In the end we had their measure and walked away with a 2-1 victory.

That victory put us through our group, the first time this had been achieved by a Sydney High team. Our next task was to overcome one of the other group's winners for the right to go to the quarter finals.

Luckily our next match was at home, our opponents Whitebridge High School, had to make the trip down from Newcastle. With them they not only brought a bus full of supporters, but also cheerleaders. The match was uninspiring – we played below ourselves and gave them much more chance in the game than we should have. The goal that settled it was an own goal from their captain and star player.

This poor form did not change in the semi final against a school from Dubbo. A big High crowd had come to watch at Sydney Athletic Field and were shocked when the referee awarded a controversial penalty against us. Adam Pold was not going to be beaten in front of such a crowd and saved brilliantly. The Dubbo team's tactics seemed to be to spoil rather than play football. Three minutes from the end Jimmy Aschner headed in a cross to deny them of their game plan of forcing extra time and penalties.

So it was down to the top four teams in the state, our opponents Westfields High School, a sports school where the focus is on sports rather than schoolwork (sounds familiar!). Injuries to key players Jono Tillsley, Paul Jones and Danny Rickwood among others meant we were seriously understrength and we were facing a team that boasted plenty of rep players and National League juniors, so we were not given much chance prior to the game. We played the match at Fairfield, and they managed to take the lead in the first half after a goal mouth scramble. We started strongly in the second half having an effort by Jimmy cleared off the line and applying plenty of pressure. Committing players forward in an attempt to equalise they caught us on the counter attack twice and the final score was 0-3. One can only speculate as to how we would have gone with a full strength team. Westfields were the eventual winners after another 3-0 victory in the final.

CIS Cup

The Combined Independent Schools Cup is a knockout competition for schools from the GPS, CAS and the ISA. In the first round we faced Waverley College at Queens Park in a quagmire. It had been raining constantly for several days before the match, and the game was little more than a training exercise, High coming off with a convincing 4-1 victory. This victory set us up for a return match against the strong Scots College side. The game after ninety minutes went straight into a penalty shoot-out, as a result of poor light. Perhaps it shouldn't have gone this far as we squandered many chances to put them away. In any case we snuck through for the semi final match against Trinity Grammar. Trinity are a respected CAS soccer team, but we caught them on a bad day and we humbled them 4-0 to assure us a final berth.

We had never played St. Patricks before so they were somewhat of an unknown quantity. They had come through the other side of the draw against teams such as Newington and Knox. The final at Christie Park attracted large groups of supporters from both sides for our only night match of the season. A penalty in the first half from skipper Jeremy Wong saw us go to the break with a 1-0 lead. Twenty minutes into the second half a St. Patricks defender was sent off for his second bookable offense. Within minutes a break down the right led to a second goal by Jeremy. However St. Patricks did not lie down and forced Adam Pold into making several outstanding saves. The Sydney High defence was as impregnable as it had been all year with solid performances from Alex Lamb, Matt Croll, Philip Heads and Fabian Happauf. In the end the extra man proved too great a hurdle for St. Patricks players and striker Jimmy Aschner scored after a fluent passing move. From the ensuing kick off Jimmy stole the ball and took off on a mesmerising run, beating a number of St. Pats players and letting loose a left foot boomer from outside the area which was too good for the keeper. The final whistle marked the end of what was the most successful season ever for a Sydney High soccer team.

Much of the credit for our success in 1993 most go to Mr. Tom Dolan for his tireless work in managing not only his all conquering first grade team, but also the dozen or so other Sydney High Teams

- the double in 1993 was a fitting reward.

Team Profile

Tom Dolan (Coach): The formidable figurehead of soccer at Sydney High, he is the reason why we are now a force in the GPS. His commitment to his teams is nothing short of phenomenal. Mr Dolan seems to have the ability to get that extra something out of a player, perhaps on account of his half time pep talks.

Adam Pold (Keeper): A tremendously talented goalkeeper who during the year showed a maturity beyond his age. Conceding only two GPS goals assured him of number one spot in the GPS representative teams.

Peter Rickwood (Right Back): Tied down the right flank for the back four, surprising many attackers with his turn of pace. Showed amazing goal scoring prowess during training sessions and astute onlookers often thought his fine touch and deadly shot were wasted in defence. Pete scored an unforgettable goal against St Ignatius.

Alex Lamb (Left Back): The baby of the team, Alex stepped straight from 15As to first grade, where he honed his soccer skills under the tutelage of his older teammates. Played above himself for the whole season and was unlucky not to make a GPS team.

Fabian Huppauf (Centre Back): Missed most of the year due to injury. Selection in the CIS squad showing how good a footballer he really was. Fabian was a constant inspiration to us with his off-field antics.

Danny Rickwood (Sweeper): Played a vital role in the team as a sweeper throughout the year. Danny proved he was much more than a last line of defence. The only thing lacking in his game was a bit of aggression but that should not have been a reason for selectors to leave him out of the GPS representative teams.

Matt Croll (Centre back): Struck terror into the hearts of his opponents with his bone crunching tackles and aerial dominance. Matt was rewarded for a great season with selection in GPS seconds.

Philip Heads (Midfielder): Most improved player of the year, a fourth grader the year before, Phil became a mainstay in the Sydney High defence as a result of injuries to others. The big, solid defender terrorised opponents with his "ball and all" tackles and shocked them even more with an occasional display of skill.

Adam Deutsch (Midfielder): The left ventricle of the Sydney High midfield. Adam often amazed other players with not only his skill, but also his ability not to head the ball. The only deficiency in Adam's play that was noted throughout the year was a seemingly selective deafness manifested whenever a teammate called "pass it". He was selected in the GPS second team.

Jeremy Wong (Midfielder): An inspirational captain both on and off the field. He has the ability to shape the team as a master pizza maker shapes his dough. His Maradonna-esque free kicks caused havoc to opposition defences all year. His speeches at afternoon tea will see him remembered as one of the greatest orators that Sydney High has ever produced. He was selected in the first grade GPS team.

Sohail Mohideen (Midfielder): His wit was as sharp as his ball control. His comebacks as quick as his pace off the mark and his jibes as incisive as his crosses. Few opponents managed to contain him the first time he got the ball let alone for the ninety minutes. He was also selected in the GPS Firsts.

Jimmy Aschner (Striker): Jimmy was the player that proved the difference between Sydney High being a merely good GPS team and being the team we were. With a finishing touch that could only be described as clinical, he paved the way to our school's most successful soccer season ever. Never one to hold back, it has been said that Jimmy could start an argument in an empty house. "Misunderstood" by referees, he was red carded twice during the season. Selected in GPS 1st XI.

Jono Tillsley (Striker): In the air, Jono was the strongest player in the GPS, but it was his sublime touch and thundering shot that surprised many and assured his inclusion in first grade GPS. Jono attracted a lot of attention during the matches, especially from the sideline where learned observers speculated about a possible modeling career.

Paul Jones (Striker): Paul brought that much needed whingeing pom factor to our team, often attracted extra attention from opposition defenders due to this. We proved an enigma in front of goal, though when most needed Paul managed to put them in.

Thank you to the players who made up our reserves bench and filled in on the paddock when needed - Boris Bronfentrinker, Michael Keller, Hubert Truong and Josh Nicholson. A special mention also to Andrew Brandon, our number one supporter who often played chauffeur for the players. Thanks also to the parents who took time out from their weekends to watch us play and organise the afternoon teas.

Philip Heads, Captain.

Second Grade Soccer

The Second Grade side had huge shoes to fill for the 1993 season, attempting to defend the GPS shield won in 1992. There were high expectations amongst the players, and our coach, Old Boy Chris Parry, who had coached two previous second grade sides, also had confidence in us.

Our pre-season performance was a good indication of the potential, skill, and strength present in this side. The first match, against St Pius X, saw High win 4-0 in convincing fashion. The next was a 1-1 draw with Waverley, during which we had one attempted goal disallowed. The fixture against Scots School Bathurst saw first grade given a rest and seconds beating the Scots first grade 11-0.

The last two pre-season games resulted in us winning 2-0 against Armidale, and suffering our first defeat 0-1 at the hands of Cranbrook. Thus after a successful pre-season round we looked forward to the challenge of defending the GPS premiership.

The GPS season started very successfully for us with an excellent display of football resulting in a 3-0 victory over St Joseph's. However, for the next game, against Grammar, we fielded a somewhat depleted side due to a number of injuries in first grade. On a muddy field we lost 0-4 in a second rate performance against a strong Grammar side who went on to win the premiership. After lots of hard work at training and some words from our coach we came back the next week to draw 1-1 with Scots, and were unlucky not to come away with a win.

The next two games saw us go down 0-1 to both Newington and St Ignatius, having to field teams which lacked up to four regular starters. Yet we did not allow these disappointments to sink in, and to the credit of the team, we stuck at it, and against SCEGS we won 2-1 in a most determined effort. Special mention must be made of Zachary Murray-Quist who scored the goal of the season. With two minutes remaining he shot the ball from outside the box, piercing all the defenders and landing it in the top corner.

The GPS season finished off on a high in a 3-1 victory over Kings with a full strength lineup. Second Grade finished fourth on the table after a mixed season. I would like to thank our coach Chris Parry for his effort and dedication, and Mr Dolan for his support.

Player Profiles:

Trent Dickeson: The team's goalkeeper, Trent was also one of the younger members of the team, being only in Year 10. Trent always gave one hundred percent on the field, and kept magnificently all season. Trent will always be remembered for his fashion statement of wearing a raincoat in the game against Scots Bathurst.

Paul Levett: The right back, and one of the fittest players in the team. Paul played consistently well week in week out, failing however to achieve his dream of scoring a goal.

Daniel Butt: Another of the Year 10 members of the team, Daniel joined us after the first two GPS matches, earning a promotion from the 16As. Daniel was a tower of strength at centre back, often putting his body on the line for the team. His strength and speed proved to be essential.

Ben Lasky: As the left back, and a natural right footer, Ben taught himself to play with the left foot. Although not the most stylish of players, Ben always tried, and his enthusiasm at training was an example to us all. a very gutsy performer.

Ben Hart: As the sweeper Ben often found himself in some tricky situations, having to make up for anybody else's mistakes. However Ben handled this pressure very well and was very strong as the last line of defence. Ben's booming clearing kicks were amongst the strongest of the whole competition.

Zachary "The Axe" Murray-Quist: Vice-Captain of the side, Zach played his heart out on the field. Not the most skilful midfielder, he was however the strongest and the meanest. Zach going in for the tackle scared many an opposition player. His greatest moment was his goal against SCEGS.

Boris "Boza" Bronfentrinker: (contributed by H. Truong) "Oh Captain, my Captain", our Rock of Gibraltar centre midfielder. The hard man of the team, Boris was ferocious in defence and damaging in attack. Not one for fairy footwork, Boris preferred the direct route, straight through his opponent not around him. He stepped into first grade whenever needed, and should lead next year's firsts.

Hubert "Hubes" Truong: The most committed player ever to walk onto a soccer field is the only appropriate description for this dynamic midfielder. Hubert was always the player who came off the field with the dirtiest uniform due to his willingness to give everything for the team. A very skilful player, Hubert was regularly called into the firsts when injury struck.

Michael "Snoz" Keller: The speedster of the team, Michael had the ability to outrun any defender in the GPS, and this proved to be a vital part of our team's tactics. Michael did not score many goals, but set up a large number. His ability to smell out a potential goal was uncanny. He also served in the firsts a number of times.

Andrew Schwartz: Andrew was always committed, and his ability to hold the ball was a major asset. Despite his lack of innate speed he really got going in front of the goal when he sensed a chance, and always finished off splendidly.

Ricky Chong: Ricky was one of the most skilful players, and showed great ability in the air, virtually flying in to head the ball. He also showed a great turn of speed, and was a regular replacement in firsts.

I am happy also to mention Josh Nicholson, Peter Ling, Daniel Wong, Abinav Keswani, Joseph Suttie, Patrick Ling, Quang Hua, and Daniel Klarnet who all proved valuable replacements throughout the season.

Boris Bronfentrinker, Captain.

Third Grade Soccer

Third Grade Soccer had a successful season, finishing off the year undefeated. We were slightly lacking in actually scoring goals and in team play, however our strength managed to minimise the effect of these faults.

The team was a very skilled one and almost every player was willing to take on the opposition, and often beat player after player before finally deciding to pass the ball. The team's ability was further complemented by our phenomenal speed, particularly that of Bernard Gabbott. Other players compensated for their lack of speed with strength in the air. Very few balls in the air were won by our opponents. As a result of this air superiority, and our strength in tackling, other teams found it very difficult to get through and test our extraordinary goal keeper.

We completed the season contented, and with great team spirit, and all members are looking forward to next season.

Greg Barker, Captain.

Fourth Grade Soccer

In the past years at High, since soccer became a GPS sport in 1988, there has been a huge tradition established by successive Fourth Grade teams. We were not to let High be disgraced - the GPS set the dates and we met the challenge. The 1993 Fourth Grade was looking to be the best in High's proud history.

During our first game, a trial against Cranbrook, we got off to the start that we strived for, a victory by. It was only by one goal to nil, but it gave the side a lift, which assisted them throughout the season. From there we only got better, notching up wins in all of the remaining games.

The outlook for 1994 was unbelievable as the Fourths was a team of great potential. The menacing Doug Walker is looking at pressing for a position in first or second grade next year. The huge six foot four centre back/sweeper gave the team the courage and heart that it takes to win matches. Doug scored an unbelievable goal late in the season making him the very few players to score while playing in the backs.

Apart from Doug, there are about half a dozen others hoping to secure first or second grade spots next season.

David Parker.

16B Soccer

Nineteen ninety-three was a challenging season for the 16B team. Despite many changes within the team, we still managed to come away with convincing wins.

The highlight of the season was to be our strong win against Scots, with a scoreline of 10-0, and the goals evenly distributed throughout the team.

We relied on our resilient team spirit to carry us through the hard times as well as the good. When morale was down we would often think of the Dolan Cup, and of the possibility of being awarded it, which would motivate us and push us on. We not only challenged other schools for goals, but also other teams within the school.

Finally we wish to say that it was only through both Mr Hopley's and the team's commitment that it was possible for us to reach our goals. We also owe a word of thanks to the parents and others who urged us on, and gave us great support. It was a most enjoyable and successful season.

Janson Hews and Ryan Koh.

15A Soccer

This season was a disappointing one for the 15A side. Although we did not win as frequently as we wanted, we all enjoyed the season. The main problem the team suffered this season was a lack of discipline, leading to the awarding of several yellow cards, and even one red card! If we are to succeed in following seasons we must play as a team, rather than as a loose collection of individuals.

Some of the outstanding players were David Gertler, Alexander Dang, Michael Benjamin, Adam Malouf and Stephen Cheng. We would like to convey special thanks to Mr Gifford and Chris Parry for coaching us throughout.

Timur Tez, Captain.

15B Soccer

The 15B team enjoyed a great season of soccer. We had a slow start to the season with a 0-0 draw with St Joseph's, followed by an unlucky defeat 0-1 at the hands of Grammar. However we stormed back after that loss, dominating our next game against Scots College. James Lafatis and Justin Denes were the scorers off a penalty and a corner kick, but we conceded one goal against the run of play to finish victors by 2-1.

Coming into the next game against Newington College as the underdogs we failed to rise above a poor start to lose 0-2, but without the stylish goal-keeping of James Ryan the score would have been much worse. Then in the next match, against St Ignatius, we again conceded an unlucky goal after Justin and James had scored, but at least registered another win 2-1.

This was followed by a rather slow start against Shore, our boys failing to put the ball in the back of the net for the whole of the first half, and most of the second. Finally, after one disallowed goal attempt, Barry Fialkov put it away in the final minutes to secure a 1-0 victory.

Following this win we came out for the last match of the season against Kings with a vengeance, dominating play throughout the match, making it probably our best of the season. Our first goal came off a centre, and was slammed home by Arto Hakkinen, and the second was scored in fine style by Cameron James. The third came through the actions of Barry Fialkov, and Kings added an own goal to make 4-0 the impressive final score.

Fine keeping throughout the season by James Ryan limited our opponents to just five goals.

Finally the whole team thanks Chis Parry for his coaching, and all the parents who helped organise the team.

James Ryan and Barry Fialkov.

14A Soccer

The 1993 season, although not as successful as the previous, was definitely a memorable one. The team finished up losing only one game. As we began the match against Newington with only ten players, and lost another sent off during the match, to lose 1-3 was almost a victory.

Apart from this one low point, the season was very enjoyable, as we comfortably won all the other matches. Much of the credit goes to our two Old Boy coaches, Thaha Mohideen and Mark Kaizik, the brains behind the team. We thank them warmly.

Warrick Segal, Captain.

13A Soccer

A bunch of very keen soccer players met for the very first time, and under the watchful eye of Richard Sandall, were distributed into their respective teams. The 13As consisted of K.Kazmirowicz, O.Dwyer, D.Chersky, J.Itzkowic, D.Karry, S.Kong, A.Legg, B.Miller, M.Pollock, J.Tan, and was captained by M.Patoka.

The side clicked after several games and had several good pre-season wins, including 4-0 over Cranbrook and 7-1 over St Pius X. In the GPS season the 13A's defence was almost impregnable, with several very talented backs. The side had a couple of gutsy wins, including Iggies and Newington, both by 1-0. We finished on a good note with a 3-0 win over Kings, which completed an extremely successful season.

Many thanks go to Richard Sandall for coaching all the sides, and also to Mr Miller for his assistance in coaching the 13As.

Daniel Chersky.

13B and 13C Soccer

The 13Bs and 13Cs were a bunch of about twenty-five players who enjoyed their soccer greatly, and achieved many sound wins over several sides during the pre-season rounds, and did especially well in the GPS season. The commitment of the players was exemplified by their consistent attendance at matches, most of which started at 8:00 in the morning. Both teams had very successful debut seasons, and most are expected to continue to represent High with distinction in subsequent seasons.

Rifle Shooting

This year has seen the rifle club continue to grow into an extremely active organisation with a number of excellent individual results recorded at both the smallbore and fullbore. The GPS Annual Shoot was held at the Hornsby Rifle Range on 20th and 21st July. In the 500m Rawson Cup, Nathan Scudder scored a "possible" of 35.1. The N.R.A. Shield, held over 600 metres, saw Ben Edwards top score with 47.1 out of 50. The final match, the Buchanan Shield, conducted at 300m, saw Daniel Lewkovitz shoot a perfect score of 40.3. Overall the team finished with 1372.40, beating our previous year's score by 130 points.

During 1993, members of the Club have competed in a number of other competitions. Nathan Scudder won 13th place in C-Grade in the New South Wales Queen's Prize Meeting in May. In June, three shooters contested the 42nd Annual Wingham Rifle Championships, with excellent results recorded. Nathan Scudder came 3rd in C-Grade, winning the bronze medal and a number of other prizes, Daniel Lewkovitz came fourth in the C-Grade Sweepstakes, and 3rd at 600 yards. In October, at the Cessnock Open Championships, Nathan Scudder came 2nd in C Grade with an overall total of 143.10 over three ranges, missing out on first place by only one point.

Smallbore shooting has progressed very well. On behalf of all club members, I would like to thank our smallbore range officers, Mr Fergusson and Mr Govendir, for the time and effort that they have put into the Club. Sydney High School competes in a regular smallbore postal competition with other GPS schools, which enables our junior members to become involved in open competition before moving on to fullbore shooting in their senior years.

In August, after discussions with the Headmaster and other Club officials, it was decided to conduct a rifle club tour to the United Kingdom in June, 1994. Preparations for the Tour are well under way. Immediately following the announcement of the Tour, nominations were called for from members of the Club, and regular training days have been conducted at the ANZAC Rifle Range at Malabar. With the assistance of Mr John Edwards, Manager of the Australian College of Physical Education, and a number of other experienced shooters, team members were coached in all aspects of individual and team shooting. A final team was announced at the end of the year, with training and preparations continuing.

The tour is aimed at establishing links with schools in the United Kingdom, and providing more experienced shooters with the opportunity to represent their school abroad. The additional fullbore practice associated with the Tour will certainly assist the team in preparation for the GPS Annual Shoot next year.

On Wednesday, 1st December, 1993 the Rifle Club hosted the 2nd Annual End of Year Shooting Championships. The first match contested was the Club Championship. This match was won by Philip Wong, with a score of 89. Certificates were issued to the highest scoring shooter in each school year. The second match, the Teams Event, involved two teams competing for a set of eight medals. The Students' Team won this event, with a score of 660. A combined Staff, Old Boys and Parents' Team was also entered, finishing with a score of 580.

The Second Annual End of Year Championships were well attended by staff, students and parents, who all enjoyed this social event. Unfortunately, the present smallbore range, which was needed for classroom space, had to be dismantled at the end of the year. It is hoped that a new range will soon be built elsewhere to accommodate the growing rifle club for weekly practice.

On behalf of the Club, I would like to thank our Shooting Master, Mr Wigan for his commitment to the sport. Mr Wigan left the School at the end of 1993 and we would like to wish him all the best for the future. At the End of Year Championships, a number of special presentations were made. Three of our senior club officials were granted Life Membership after a vote of all members of the Club. Mr Blinkhorne, Mr Govendir and Mr Wigan were each presented with framed certificates.

A number of Year 12 students also presented a new Championship Cup to the Rifle Club. The Championship Cup was first presented in 1929, and was later won by J. W. Sweet, a prominent Australian rifle shooter. The Cup itself was lost sometime later, however and it was the decision of these outgoing students to revive the Cup from 1994 onwards. This new cup will be awarded annually by the Shooting Master, in a association with other training staff, to a deserving student (or students where necessary) who meets the following criteria:

- (a) outstanding performance at the GPS Annual Shoot, Smallbore competitions and events, and at other shooting activities, such as the Queen's Matches and Open Prize Meetings.
- (b) commitment to the sport and to training.
- (c) sportsmanship.

As outgoing Captain of Shooting, I would like to thank the Club members and officials who have assisted in the efficient running of the club, and to congratulate the 1994 Captain of Shooting, Philip Wong on his appointment. I am sure that we will see some excellent results in 1994.

Nathan Scudder, Captain of Shooting.

Skiing

Master's Report

The second year of Sydney High Skiing saw a squad of twelve boys qualify for the National Championships. Once again the support of parents was essential to the operation of the team, and it is to be hoped that the continuing success of the team will lead to greater support for skiing from the wider school community.

The following boys represented NSW Schools at the National Schools Championships: Ben Surrest, Adam Robilliard, RJ Williams, Dylan Rivier, Brad Morgan, Paul Gaetjens, Isaac Koren, Peter Nicholas, Gareth Morgan, Ben Hart, Nicholas Fisher, Oliver Heath. My particular thanks to Mrs Caroline Williams who managed the team during competition.

Good luck, and good skiing in '94.

Mr M.Aldous, Skiing Master

Alpine Ski Team

This year over thirty boys registered for alpine and cross-country events at the NSW Northern Zone Interschool Ski Championships held at Mt Blue Cow. Mrs Caroline Williams acted as manager on snow and Mr Aldous co-ordinated all teams at school. An enthusiastic group of parents helped by being managers of an assortment of eighteen teams.

The school placed third out of 140 schools in the NSW Northern Zone Championships. First was Cranbrook with 117 points, second Knox 92 points, and third High on 72. Shore came fourth with 56 points.

NSW Northern Zone Event Placings:

Ninth Places: Alpine Division 2 - L.Crawford, G.Morgan, D.Bowman, A.Robilliard.

Moguls Division 2 - D.Gertler, G.Morgan, D.Bowman.

Seven Teams qualified to compete at the NSW Interschools Championships at Mt Blue Cow on 28th and 29th August.

NSW Championship Event Placings:

Second Place:

Cross-Country Division 2 - M.Hennessy, L.Crawford, P.Nicholas.

Snowboard Division 3 - R-J.Williams, D.Rivier, M.Philipp.

Fourth Place:

Snowboard Division 2 - B.Surrest, A.Robilliard.

Three teams qualified for the Australian National Interschool Championships held at Falls Creek in September. The team, accompanied by Mrs C.Williams, stayed at Mt Beauty and travelled to Falls Creek each day to compete. Competing against Australia's top junior skiers the three teams from High achieved good results, outperforming several alpine area schools.
